Be Happy!

Happy the girl, or woman, who has never suffered from any of the diseases of womanhood! Or, if she has been a sufferer, happy is she if she has learned of the wonderful benefits of Cardui, the woman's tonic!

Cardui is a gentle, tonic remedy, for women's ailments. It is a natural medicine—safe, harmless, purely vegetable. It has been in successful use for more than 50 years. It has cured thousands. It should do the same for you.

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic.

Mrs. Mary Neely, of Denver, Tenn., says, "I think there is no tonic on earth, as good as Cardui. I used it with the very best results. I had backache and nearly everything a woman could suffer with, until I took Cardui. Now, I feel better than I have for two years. I shall always recommend Cardui to other suffering women. I can't praise it too highly. As a medicine for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui is safe and reliable. Try it, they say."

Dixie Theatre Showing to Large Audiences Every Night.

The Dixie Theatre is having large crowds every night, but the attendance on last Saturday night was a record. Every seat in the auditorium was filled, many were standing in the rear and many procured tickets at the window but waited until the first performance was over before coming in. There is a reason for the big attendance at the Dixie and that reason is that Manager W. A. Moore is giving nothing but the best of pictures.

The Dixie Theatre is having large crowds every night, but the attendance on last Saturday night was a record. Every seat in the auditorium was filled, many were standing in the rear and many procured tickets at the window but waited until the first performance was over before coming in. There is a reason for the big attendance at the Dixie and that reason is that Manager W. A. Moore is giving nothing but the best of pictures.

Mrs. J. J. Wright arrived from Houston Monday to join her husband who is in charge of the implement and hardware department at the Farmers Supply Company. Mrs. Wright was accompanied by Mrs. Fred Fox of Houston who is her guest for a few days.

Mr. Chas. Davis' four passenger Mitchell car arrived last Saturday. The machine is indeed a dandy.

Mr. Andrew Merfeldt of Glen Flora was here last week, having been called by the illness of his mother, Mrs. M. E. Merfeldt.

Our congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Osborn on the arrival of a beautiful eleven pound girl at their home last Friday.

Our congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Stewart on the arrival of a pretty little daughter at their home last Sunday morning.

Miss Alice Walker left Monday for her home in Saticoy, California, after a visit of several weeks to Mrs. Bruce McCarty.

Mr. John Clay and son, Mr. Will Clay, were in the city Monday on business from their farm below Nada.

Miss Lizzetta Walker, one of Altair's pretty and popular young ladies, was a visitor in the city the first of the week, the guest of Mrs. R. S. Simmons.

Mr. John H. Mielkow, one of Altair's prominent citizens, was among the visitors in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walker of Altair were visitors in the city last Saturday.

Mr. L. A. Harris, one of Altair's prominent business men, was here on business Monday and renewed his subscription to this paper for another year.

Mr. Harris says he has found the HEADLIGHT a good advertising medium and advertising in it certainly brings results.

NUMBER 48.

Medical Purposes Only Not Appealing to "Oom Paul."

Mr. H. C. Thomas, the hardware and implement man at the Frank Stephens Company, who is better known as "Oom Paul" through his writings to the Weimar Mercury and Garwood Express, spent last Sunday with Editor Goeth at Weimar. We have been thinking just why "Oom Paul" would want to travel thirty miles to spend only a half an hour with the Weimar newspaper man, and we understood it only after we had read the Weimar Mercury which contained an article about him.

The paper editor is in receipt of a package containing two quarts of a delicious strawberry jam, sent by Ferdinand Weimar, a son of the editor.

But what puzzles us further is how did Henry Thomas get onto it so quickly? However, Henry Carey says when "Oom Paul" saw he could not sway the Weimar editor's declaration, "For medical purposes only" he took the return train for Eagle Lake.

Mrs. G. M. Daugherty of Georgetown arrived last week to be with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Mersfelder, who has been quite ill.

Mr. W. L. Avery of Groveton, who was one of the first to grow potatoes in the Eagle Lake section for market, and who is now farming potatoes on a large scale at Groveton, was a visitor in the city last Saturday.

Bob Jackson, colored, killed a large rattlesnake on Mr. J. P. Anderson's place last Friday. The snake measured six feet and four inches in length and had thirteen rattles and a button.

Rev. G. W. Story and wife passed through Houston yesterday on their way to visit their daughter in Freeport, Ill. They expect to spend six or eight weeks in the North.—Houston Post.

Mr. J. H. Owen returned to San Antonio Monday after a few days business visit to this city.

"I believe in giving credit where credit is due," said Mr. Wm. Kotzebue to the HEADLIGHT this week, "and I just want to say that I don't believe the quality of printing of the two-color letter heads you have just delivered to us could be improved on by any printing office in Texas."

Mr. W. A. Moore, manager of the Dixie Theatre, has an article in this paper, asking the boys to refrain from throwing mud balls or anything else across the audience during the shows. While the management wants the children to enjoy the pictures and get all the pleasure and enjoyment possible out of them, Mr. Moore would like to see the smaller boys discontinue the loud shrieking and yelling during the performances. Such uncalled for noise is annoying to the older people, and the management asks the co-operation of the older people in restoring the best of order during the show, thereby enabling him to give Eagle Lake an attractive and high class place of amusement.

Yours very truly, THE DIXIE THEATRE.

Mrs. Mentor Northington of Bonus was a visitor in the city the first of the week.

Mr. A. F. Harbert, Mrs. Estep Brown and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Carey in Mrs. Brown's Overland, and Chas. Brosig, Wm. Kotzebue, Terry Balhorn and Chas. Von Langerie in Mr. Brosig's Overland, went to Weimar Monday to take in the big picnic at that place.
