The Home of HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX Fine Clothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Norris of Durango, Mexico, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon for a visit to his mother, Mrs. Lucy Norris, and other relatives. Mr. Norris is interested in silver and gold mines in Mexico and on account of revolution in that country his business has been abandoned for the present, and he and his wife will likely remain in this section until things in Mexico become more settled.

Mrs. Oliver Brown and Mrs. Helmer Seaborn left Tuesday afternoon for a four weeks' visit to relatives at Elgin and Kyle.

Calhoun, which is better known as "Potatoville," is soon to establish a postoffice. The office will be known as Calhoun and will be in the Calhoun Mercantile Company's store. Mr. Allen England, the popular bookkeeper for the large Terrell Bros. potato farm and manager of the mercantile company's store, will be postmaster.

Mrs. B. H. Daily spent Wednesday with Mrs. L. W. Terrell at Calhoun.

Mr. Isadore Nathan was a visitor to Houston Wednesday.

Hon. George Herder of Waimar, receiver for the Lakeside Sugar Refining Company, came down Wednesday afternoon to look after business connected with said receivership.

We are glad to add the name of Mr. H. M. Rogers to our subscription list. Mr. Rogers is lately from Oklahoma and is now one of the large potato planters of this section.

The interior of the Welford & Cooper saloon has been neatly painted by the Eagle Lake Paint Company this week.

The annual election of school trustees for the Eagle Lake independent district will be held in this city May 4th. There will probably be only one ticket, that of the old trustees, who will again offer for re-election—P. T. Gordon, S. O. McCarty and J. F. Fordyce, the other members holding over. Every person in Eagle Lake is well pleased with the showing our school has made during the present session and the patrons of the school are anxious to see the school work go on just the same without any changes or a break in the school work of any nature, and to this end the old school trustees are being urged to offer for re-election.

Mr. Lee Hughes has purchased the Dr. Norris and J. T. McCarty lots on State Street. The two lots measure 180 feet on State Street and 70 feet on Herbert Avenue, and are located diagonally across the street from Dr. Norris' home. This is one of the best building sites in the city and Mr. Hughes will sometime in the near future build a fine home and move his family back to Eagle Lake. Our people will be glad indeed to learn that Mr. Hughes is contemplating returning to this city, even though he says it may be sometime yet before the move is made.

Mrs. W. A. Thatcher and Mrs. James Newsom left Tuesday morning for a few days' visit to Houston.

Mrs. J. J. Whatley returned Tuesday evening from an extended visit to relatives and friends in San Antonio.

Miss Lillie Griffin of Nedra was the guest of Miss Eula Minter last week.

Mr. R. E. Walker was a business visitor to Columbus Tuesday.

Mr. Lee Hughes, the prince of good fellows, was here from Richmond on business Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Regina Chew came down from Columbus Wednesday for a visit to her father's family here.

We are pleased to add the name of Mr. B. F. Pettit to our subscription list this week.

Mr. Chas. Davis of Eldridge came up from that place in his Mitchell car Wednesday afternoon and took the train at this place for a business visit to Sugarland.
