

made more attractive by the use of pink and white roses, ferns and festoons of hearts, was the scene yesterday afternoon of one of the most delightful hospitalities of the season, when Miss Lillian Bentley entertained with a handkerchief and hosiery shower in compliment to Miss Christine Davis, whose marriage to Mr. Paul Cawthon of Trinity takes place the 14th of this month. After the guests had arrived the living room door was thrown open and to the strains of the wedding march came the maids, Misses Bentley, Regina Chew, Ethel Davis and Ray Wilson, then Miss Davis seated in a pink and white cart was drawn by Myra Weldon Davis and Virginia Guynn to where a pink wedding bell was suspended. Little Genevieve Calvert pulled the ribbon and out of the bell came a shower of pretty things. Pink hearts were given to each guest on which to write a wish for the bride to be. A lovely salad course with punch was served, and before each one, bade the charming little sack of rice and attached to it a card on which these words were written: "Keep this with the greatest care, to shower upon the happy pair."

side upon a permanent location. Mr. Owen is a close observer of the conditions and possibilities of a country and has traveled quite a good deal looking over various sections of this and other states since selling his hotel interests here, and stated before leaving for Chicago that he had seen nothing that looked better to him than the Eagle Lake country. "I can see it just as plain as day, and I know what this country is coming to, but my health has not been good here is the only reason I am moving. That this is the coming country there is no doubt," said Mr. Owen. Their many friends regret to see them leave Eagle Lake, but hope that after Mr. Owen has spent an extended stay in the East, he will be able to return to Eagle Lake and again make his home here.

Miss Julia Cobb Frazier, age 62 years, died at the family residence in this city Sunday morning at 2 o'clock and was buried the same afternoon in the Lakeside cemetery, Rev. J. E. Lovett conducting the funeral services. She was one of Eagle Lake old and most highly respected citizens and possessed a wide acquaintance. She was a good woman and loved by all who knew her. Miss Frazier was a member of the Baptist church for more than twenty years. She leaves two brothers, Messrs. J. U. and N. F. Frazier, and three sisters, Miss Bettie Frazier, Mrs. J. P. Anderson and Mrs. Donna Harbert besides several nephews and nieces, to whom the HEADLIGHT extends its sincerest sympathy.

Mr. T. L. Smith of the Smith Auto Co., leaves tomorrow for Detroit, where he goes to inspect the Studebaker factories and brighten up on the automobile business. He will also take advantage of the occasion to get acquainted with the new officials in charge of E-M-F and Flanders factories. Mr. Benson, who is virtually responsible for placing the 1912 Cadillac in a class by itself, has been made general sales manager of the Studebaker corporation. The Studebaker factories have adopted the policy of having their dealers visit their factories each year, so they may keep in touch with the rapidly improving industry.

County Commissioner T. J. Roberts informs this paper that considerable complaint is reaching the commissioners' court about the automobiles damaging the county road bridges by passing over them at a high rate of speed. This court we learn is considering whether they will have passed a law requiring all automobiles to go over all bridges at slow rate of speed or put bumpers several inches high at both ends of all bridges to compel slow driving across same.

In keeping with its up-to-date methods, the HEADLIGHT will give full returns from every county in Texas on the night of the July 27th primary. This paper is now arranging to add a stereopticon machine to its equipment and the returns will be flashed on canvas from the office on election night at a la the big city daily papers. This service will be furnished the HEADLIGHT by the Southwestern Telephone and Telegraph company, and will be the same service, with identically the same bulletins that are furnished every leading daily paper in the State. More information on the subject will be given in later issues of the paper.
