When in Need of Good Fresh Groceries
Ring No. 1-5-4

and we will assure you prompt and quick delivery. We devote our entire time to the grocery business, and therefore are able to keep our stock nice and fresh. We are not the largest grocers in Eagle Lake, but we sell groceries as cheap as any of them. All we ask you to do is to give us a trial for one month, and if the goods do not come up just as we say, we want you to tell us when the month is over. When you need a sack of flour, try a sack of La France. We guarantee every sack we sent out. Every sack contains a coupon which are valuable at our store for handsome premiums. We handle Bour's Old Master Coffee. Remember we have no "leaders" that we advertise below cost (as some of our competitors do) and then charge a double price for an article not advertised. We sell our goods at a small profit and by doing so have increased our trade 50 per cent since last year.

The suit of Colorado county involving title to 1556 acres of land in Throckmorton and Baylor counties is set for trial in Seymour next week. County surveyor, Mitchell, chainman Strahan, and county judge Mansfield will leave next Sunday to attend the trial. Several counties, and a large number of citizens in Baylor and Throckmorton are parties to the suit. Some ten or twelve surveyors are witnesses, and lawyers by the score have been engaged. It is sincerely hoped that the case may be tried at this term of the court, and all parties express the belief that it will. Colorado county is somewhat hampered on account of not being able to secure the reports of the surveys made by Mr. Jackson in 1894, and previous to that time. They were not recorded in the minutes of the court and the originals cannot be located. —Columbus Citizen.

Why Go to the University of Texas?

In the first place, the University of Texas is the State's own provision for its youth, contemplated from the foundation of the government, established by its organic law, maintained by legislative grants—the crown of its system of education, like all its schools, free of charge for tuition.

There are larger and more famous universities in this country than the University of Texas. For example, Harvard, Wisconsin, California have each a larger attendance, larger faculties and more buildings now than the University of Texas. But each is far away from Texas, its environment is different from that to which the Texas boy and girl are accustomed, and the expense involved in a year at any of them is materially greater than that of a year at the University of Texas.

The University of Texas stands superior when compared with the other southern and southwestern colleges and universities. Not one of them has so many students, so large a faculty, so good a library, or so valuable buildings and equipment.

To a man or woman who expects to live in Texas, there is a great gain in being educated in Texas. It gives a knowledge of the State's history, of the character of its people, of the conditions of its life that are necessary to success in Texas. It gives further a wide acquaintance with the best class of people from all over the State that throughout life is an unfailing source of pleasure and help. A famous Southern Senator used to declare that the thing that had been of most benefit to him all his life was the fact that he had been a student of the university of his State. Another Southern man, one of our ministers abroad, declared that though he had had a full course at a leading Northern university and long years of travel abroad, he would give it all for a degree from his State university.

Flies Kill 100,000 a Year

Prof. Hodge of Clarke University, in speaking of the fly, says it causes 100,000 deaths a year and does a property damage of $12,000,000 that it travels only 1,000 feet and delights in liquid diet. When it finds something it likes better than its latest meal it disgorges. One pair of flies beginning in May will breed 143,675 bushels, by September. The time will come when it will be considered more disgraceful to have flies in our homes than it now to have bedbugs. The only way yet found to get rid of flies is absolute cleanliness and "swatting." —New Orleans Picayune.

Swat the fly and let's have a sewerage system!

Mrs. M. E. Guynn entertained last night with a "marriage lottery party" in honor of her niece, Miss Margaret Mansfield of Columbus. Each guest brought a photograph of himself or herself and after being coupled together by fate, the workings of destiny and the key to the future were shown through a microscope. The guests were Misses Smith of Pittsburg, Brooks of Wharton, Regina Chew, Alice Chew, Kate Pegram, Ethel Davis, Ray Wilson, Pansy Green, Edith Frick, Lilian Bentley and Gladys Welwood. Messrs J. D. Seymour, Walter Dick, Oscar West of Columbus, McDaniel of San Antonio, Fritz Engelhardt, Waldo Terrell, Oscar Westmoreland, Algon Harbert, L. Goldsmith, Curtis Dewberry, Peterson and Chas. Von Lenzke. Refreshments of pineapple ice and cake were served.

Our friend, Mr. T. W. Byars, came in last Saturday and dropped in to discuss politics a little. While here he related an instance that is a little out of the ordinary. He was at his home, which they were unable to break up. After taking all the eggs away from her she continued to occupy the nest in spite of hot weather, and all efforts to oust her. An old cat with a litter of young kittens occupied another nest under the same shed, and during the temporary absence of her catship the hen would fly up and occupy the nest with the kittens. While the thermometer was standing at nearly 100 above zero, the kittens could not be made to understand why they should be further subjected to being hovered under the hen, and protested bitterly against such solicitude as to their comfort on the part of her henship. In their efforts to get cool the kittens would crawl out and make the neighborhood hideous with their cries, while the hen would cluck to them and endeavor to hover them back under her wing. The hen was then put in a coop, but escaping several days after she returned to the nest of kittens, more determined than ever in her efforts to keep them from freezing. Without any protest from the kittens, the foster mother has now been securely imprisoned. —Columbus Citizen.

Editor E. Goeth of the Weimar Mercury, his sister Mrs. Theo. Klem of El Campo, Misses Emma Bock and Alma Ruhl and of Weimar were here this morning, having come down to bring Mrs. Klein who took the Santa Fe this morning for El Campo. Editor Goeth is giving Weimar a splendid newspaper, but the strange thing about it is that some of Weimar's largest business concerns never advertise. In this good day and time people look upon business firms that do not advertise as non progressive. It's about time some Weimar people were awakening from their Rip Van Winkle slumbers, giving the Mercury's advertising columns the patronage the paper deserves—joining the progressives and assisting in putting Colorado county to the front where it belongs.
