

Elmer Judson Boothe.

Mr. Elmer Judson Boothe, twenty-six years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Boothe, died last Sunday morning of typhoid fever. His father, Mr. Boothe of this city went to Sherman last week when news of his illness was received, but his condition was so much improved, his father returned home thinking his son had passed the danger period of his illness. Soon after his return home another message was received that his condition was very much worse, and there was no hope for his recovery. Mr. Boothe left Saturday evening for Sherman, his son having died before he reached him. The body was brought to Eagle Lake at noon Monday. Funeral services were held at the family residence at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, interment being made in the Masonic cemetery. The deceased was a young man of exemplary habits and splendid character. He was a native of Iowa, and spent some time in Eagle Lake a short while since, having erected the Boothe home in this city. The HEADLIGHT extends its sincerest sympathy to the family in their hour of deepest sorrow.

Is there a hog law on the ordinance books of Eagle Lake and if there is, why are hogs being allowed to "root" around over the streets like they are doing now, and is the stock law which recently carried, going to receive the same "strict enforcement" that the hog law is getting? Don't everybody answer these questions at once.
