The editor is away from home for a few weeks, and the business management of the office is being looked after during his absence by Mr. J. K. Callahan.
And while we are on this subject we want to remind our patrons of the necessity of a prompt settlement of their accounts on the first of the month when our bill collector comes around—for we will need this money to conduct the affairs of the office during the editor's absence. Whatever you do don't "stand off" our bill collector when he visits you next Monday.
Several have gotten in the habit of "putting off" the collector for a month or so after a bill is made and we want to remind these that a few "stand offs" while our banker (the editor) is away will greatly interfere with our work during his absence.

If there is an ordinance against enforce that law? And if the law is not going to be enforced, what's the use of having a hog law?

mond, Annie Stone of Dallas and Ethel Lippman of Washington, D.

People You Know

News was received in Uvalde Sunday of the death of a former citizen and business man, Elmer J. Booth. Little information was given, other than the death occurred in Sherman, Texas, from typhoid fever. Many friends sympathize with the young wife, who will be remembered as Miss Volena Cohen, the infant daughter, and other relatives. Including the parents, who now reside in Eagle Lake. Uvalde Leader-News.

A thief broke into the home of Harbert Simpson and wife about 2:30 Sunday morning and made off with two diamond rings.
Sheriff Mayes was reached over the phone and was soon at the scene of the robbery but was unable to locate a clue. An entrance to the room was gained by a window. A thief found was left to the home but was unable to scent the trail.—

Girls of the Period

Little girl, you look so small!
Don't you wear no clothes at all?
Don't you wear a shiny shirt,
Don't you wear no petticoat?
Just your corset and your hose?
Are those all your underclothes?
Little girl, when on the street,
You appear to be all feet.
With your dress so very tight,
You surely are an awful sight;
Nothing on to keep you warm, Crazy just to show your form.
Little girl, you don't live long Just because you dress all wrong, Don't you wear more under clothes

Than your corset and your hose?
After awhile I do believe You will dress like Mother Eve.
Little girl, it's not right, So few clothes make an awful sight,

You're a fancy moving picture,
Where the sun shines bright!
Mr. H. Nussbaum, one of Eagle Lake's prominent dry goods merchants, returned last Saturday morning from Dallas where he purchased a large stock of goods for his fall and winter

Indian Killed On Track.

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often its that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble.

"It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R.
Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Calvert's Drug Store.

Many legal notices are running in the Citizen at the present time to the exclusion of other matter that might be of more general in-not to those who have the bills only one week longer and the space they occupy can be filled
