

DRUGGIST GIVES

MONEY BACK

Dodson's Liver Tonic Gets a Four Square Guarantee from Calvert's Drug Store.

When an article is sold a druggist who is willing to give it his personal guarantee, it's a mighty strong proof of real merit.

That's exactly the case with Dodson's Liver Tonic. It is a pleasant-tasting, vegetable remedy for a slow and sluggish liver. Since Dodson's Liver Tonic came on the market the sale of calomel has gone way down. The reason is simple. Dodson's Liver Tonic is safe and harmless and guaranteed to be satisfactory. Calomel is often uncertain, sometimes dangerous, and no druggist wants to guarantee that it won't knock you out of a day's work and maybe send you to bed.

Calvert's drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tonic and guarantees it. It's a good thing to keep a bottle of it always in the house.

Calvert's drug store will give you your money back if you think Dodson's Liver Tonic is not worth the price. "Keep your liver working and your liver will not keep you from working," is good advice to go by.

Mr. B. L. Vineyard was in the city from Houston Wednesday on business.

W. E. LEMPERT.

The editor has gone fishing and while we are working and worrying over these pesky forms in this torrid weather, and chasing news items all over the city, we presume that he is sitting in the cool shade, bathing his little pink toes in the heavenly waters of that river with the fiendish name (Devil's River) and dreaming day dreams as he watches the cork, waiting for a nibble. In all probability he again sees himself a barefoot boy in jeans pants and one galloos, roaming in the woods around Eagle Lake. We hope his dreams will be pleasant and that the choicest specimens of the finny tribe will take kindly to his tempting bait. Go on, Bruce, have a good time. Our hearts are with you. The whole world loves a fisherman. Don't worry about the HEAPLIGHT. We'll get something out each week during your absence and if it doesn't come up to the usual standard the people will be generous enough to overlook any shortcomings, because the editor has gone fishing.

How Paint

Strike when the iron is hot and paint when the property needs it.

They paint ships a dozen times a year; yes, some of them, every voyage. What for, do you think? To look nice and get business.

A livery keeps its carriages painted and varnished and washed, to look nice and get business. A man with a house for sale or to let, "does it up," and Devoe is the paint.

There's more in paint than to keep out water. Paint for looks and you needn't think about water. A fresh coat of paint once a year is about as good for his credit as paying his debts. But the man whose buildings and fences look new, very likely, has no debts.

DEVÖE sells it.

"Six bottles of Electric Bitters" he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 30 cents at Calvert's Drug Store.
