DO YOU UNDERSTAND ABOUT DRUGS?

THE old style drug store was a place where little attention was paid to the care of stock. Drugs of unknown value came in, were put in stock and kept there until sold, remaining often for years and until they had lost what value they originally had.

Our kind of a drug store is where the finest drugs, only are bought. They are inspected on arrival and rejected if not up to our standard. While in stock they are protected against deterioration and are discarded if they lose their freshness. You must trust some one as to the quality of drugs. Why not trust us. You want pure fresh drugs—we have them

The editor of the Menard Messenger gives as his opinion that a big daily newspaper cannot be published. He admits that it is done, but he says it is an impossibility, nevertheless. Considering the amount of labor necessary to get out a small paper once a week, he says one several times as large and published every day is an impossibility. No body except one who has worked at it can appreciate the amount of labor needed to get out either a daily or a weekly. In one case there are many persons each performing some specific part, while in the latter only a few persons are required, each doing a variety of things, but in both cases there is plenty of hard work. Some of the men employed on a city daily would not make much headway with a weekly where one man must know how to write editorials and locals, set type, run a press, do job printing, keep books, solicit advertising, make collections, rustle for news, entertain visitors, pay bills and do a lot of other things at the same time. But it is hard work in both cases.—San Antonio Express.

"Smile awhile,
While you smile
Another smiles,
And soon there's miles
And miles of smiles,
And life's worth while
If you but smile."

A Personal Interest
"Does your mother take an interest in your father's business?" asked the lady visitor.
"Indeed, she does," replied the boy, feelingly.
"And what is your father's business?"
"He's in the shingle business!"

We've All Been There
Man (to boy in swimming)—If the water's so cold, why don't you come out?
Boy—Oh, I want to get some other fool to come in!—Life.
Gibbs—I admire the man who says the right thing at the right moment.
Dibbe—So do I, particularly when I'm thirsty.
