Wilson-Moses Wedding.

The following account of the Wilson-Moses wedding is taken from the last issue of the Honey Grove Signal, and though a little late for this paper, it is the first detailed account of the wedding that we have been able to obtain.

One of the prettiest weddings of the year was solemnized last Thursday morning, October 17th, when Mr. W. E. Wilson, of Eagle Lake, Texas, led to the marriage altar Miss Jessie Moses, of this city. The Presbyterian church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with pot plants and evergreens. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Bess Robnett sang in sweet voice the popular wedding song, "Because." Promptly at ten-thirty the bridal party was at the door, and to the strains of "Lobengrin" played by Miss Henderson and Miss Waltemire on the piano and violin, the ushers, Messrs. Henry Allen and Will Graves, led the way down the aisle. Next came the flower girls, Mary Esther Dowlen and Lou Dan Wood. They were daintily dressed in white and their flowers were pink carnations and ferns. Following these was the little ring bearer, Eunice Wolfman, arrayed also in white and carrying a large American Beauty rose in whose petals lay the ring, love's symbol. The bride entered with her maid of honor, Miss Willie Mae Tucker. The bride's dress was a beautiful blue pressed zibeline with hat and gloves to match, and she carried a large bouquet of large American beauty roses. The maid of honor was richly attired in champagne cloth with blue trimmings and wore a picture hat. She carried a large bouquet of cream roses.

The groom entered with his best man, Mr. Wirtz, of Eagle Lake. They were met at the altar by Rev. E. L. Moore, who in beautiful words spoke the ceremony that made them man and wife.

In writing of Miss Jessie Moses, no one can do justice to her beautiful life and character. She was reared in the home of her uncle and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hales, and grew to womanhood among us.

She is cultured in mind and possesses a modest Christian character that all might emulate. Her husband is to be congratulated on the prize he has won for she will be a light to any community and an honor to his home. We do not know Mr. Wilson personally, but hear he is upright in life and in every respect worthy of her whose hand he has won.

They have the best wishes of our people for a long life filled with the best earth can give. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on the 11:30 train for their home at Eagle Lake.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at Calvert's Drug Store.—Adv.

To The Democrats of Colorado
County.

Weldar, Oct. 29, 1912.

Gentlemen: It is only a few years since Colorado county was wrestled from Republican rule, and while most of our democrats are loyal in the primary elections, they think it of no use to come out and vote again in the November election. I earnestly urge every democrat to come to the polls on November 5th and cast a democrat ballot from president down to constable. By doing this it will give Colorado county some prestige in the state conventions and our vote will count something, for on the November vote will be based our next basis of representation. Let us have a friendly rivalry between precincts to see who can cast the biggest vote and control the county conventions. Also do not forget the three amendments to be voted on. I would advise every democrat to vote for the adoption of all three amendments.

Respectfully,
J. O. BOETTCHER,
Democratic County Chairman.

"A Pair of Country Kids."

Did you ever sit on a mossy bank and look at the sun-kissed brook as it merrily dances in glees around the protruding pebbles and feel glad that you were alive? Well, that is the same sensation that you experience when you go and see "A Pair of Country Kids" at the Opera House Monday, Nov. 4th. It is a laughing, bubbling pure heart and home story. When the curtain drops on the last act you feel as though you had been refreshed by a drink of good cool spring water. The kids are full of fun and these two characters alone insure a good performance.—Adv.

Ought to Paint

I ought to have painted last year, but I hated to pay $2.25 a gallon.

I've got to paint this year; it'll take a little more paint, I suppose 1 gallon in 10; and a little more work, I suppose, 1 day in 10. My job would have cost last year about $52.50; it is going to cost this year $57.75.

$5.25 gone. I suppose it'll be the same again, if I wait again. What if paint goes down to $2 a gallon? $2.50 on the job!

I shan't wait; what a fool I was!
