Mr. C. M. Womack was a business visitor to Houston this week.

We are sorry to note that Mr. A. M. McDow is confined to his home with illness and hope he will soon be well again.

There is a good deal of grumbling among his numerous friends that W. A. Baar has accepted the management of a store at Bonus.

George Herder, Sr., is the receiver of a big farm property down there and proposes to operate a store thereon, with Baar in charge. Despite his eccentricities, Baar is regarded as one of the best fellows on earth, and his departure from among us about the first of December or first of January will be received with deep and sincere regret. Baar has had a number of years' rest from the mercantile business, but he served his time at it in former years, and proposes to make things hum in that line down at Bonus.

Our people will be glad indeed to welcome Mr. Baar to this section, for we all like him down here.

H. A. Townsend, John Perry and Earl Sandmeyer of Columbus, and C. H. Brosig of this city formed a hunting party on the Sandmeyer ranch this week. They succeeded in bagging five fine bucks.

My line of Vehicles and Harness is complete and up-to-date. Give me a call before you buy. A. L. Baring.
