THE COST OF PAINTING A HOUSE

Includes the cost of the paint, plus the labor of putting it on. The paint that will cover the most surface—that looks the best—that lasts the longest—that satisfies the buyer—that pleases the painter—that does not crack or peel—that wears the smoothest—that holds trades-men's friends—that has a reputation—that is absolutely pure.

Is Masury's Pure Mixed

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides.
I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE
CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs.
It is a good tonic. Try it!—Your druggist sells it.

Mrs. J. W. McCarty left Monday afternoon for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Ada Spratt, in Pittsburg, Texas.

Mrs. N. W. Callison and little daughter, chaperoned by Deputy City Marshal Ned W. Callison, Jr., are spending the week with relatives in Houston and attending the carnival.

The time for planting shade trees, shrubbery, etc., is now upon us. Are the people of Eagle Lake going to let another season slip by without improving their places? Why not put out these things now and let our town be growing and improving along this line, as well as all other lines?
By the way, had you noticed that the city park is growing into a mighty shabby and dilapidated condition when just a little work, just a few new trees planted and just a little time and attention given it would help its appearance at least one hundred percent.

NUMBER 26

The Beethoven Musical Club

met Miss Bessie Lena Yates last Saturday from four to six p. m.
The program committee, Misses Mary Maud McCarty, Gene Welford and Mildred Davis, assisted Miss Yates in giving the club members and their guests.

PROGRAM:
Beethoven's life, discussed by Miss Yates and Errol Middleton.
"Minnette"—Beethoven—Clarence Stoermer.
"Sonata"—Beethoven—Joyce Burg.
"Instant D'Arce"—Antiga-nette—Darby.

"Alpine Flower"—Balm—Op-belia Johnson.
"Last Hope"—Gottschalk—Marie Paul Barbe.
"Farewell to the Piano"—Beethoven—Willie Lovette.
"Symphony"—Beethoven—
Miss Yates.

After the musical program the club members and guests were invited into the dining room where the color scheme of pink and white in the decorations was carried out and a beautiful bou-quet of pink and white cut roses adorned the center table. Miss Yates was assisted by the program committee in serving refreshments of pink and white divinity, grape juice and cake.
The next meeting will be with Miss Gene Welford. This study of the life of Bach will be the principal feature of the program.
The members of the Beethoven Club are twelve of Miss Yates' pupils from the fifth grade up. Pupils eligible for membership are required to make the fifth grade. We are informed that several other of the school pupils are working hard in their school studies in order that they may receive the honor of becoming members of the club.

Is this town what it ought to be? Is it all that it could be and should be? Yes or no? Can you answer these questions or can you not? If not, why not?
Who's keeping it back? Who's responsible? Is not this town equal to the sum of all of its parts? Am I not just as much a part of this town as Jones is?
You bet! Then who's responsible? I am!

Preston Simmons, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Simmons, met with a rather peculiar accident last Sunday afternoon.
He was riding horseback talking to some companions when an insect of some kind flew by and stung him on the tongue while he had his mouth open in talking. In a few minutes his tongue was horribly swollen. Medical aid was called and he was all right the following day.

Mrs. Calvin Brown left Sunday afternoon for a visit to relatives in Bryan. She will also visit Dallas, Atlanta and other points in North Texas, and expects to be away 'till after Christmas.

Wedding at Chesterville

A pretty wedding was celebrated at 12 o'clock Sunday. November 10th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Andrews of Chesterville, in which their accomplished daughter, Miss Lella, was given in marriage to Mr. John W. Adams. While Miss Grace Darby presided at the piano, the bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. Jay Andrews and Miss Ethel Darby, marched into the room where the guests were assembled, and immediately the solemn words were pronounced by the Rev. D. A. Keane that the couple were now man and wife.

The bride was attired in a beautiful white satin dress trimmed with French lace and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. After congratulations and best wishes for the newly married pair, the company sat down to an excellent turkey dinner. Many beautiful presents were received, showing the esteem in which these popular young people are held by their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Adams left on the evening train amid a tremendous shower of rice for a several days' visit to Houston and Galveston. There were present at the wedding Mr. and Mrs.
H. F. Andrews, Mr. Jay and Or-lie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Adams, Misses Gladys and Goldie, Frank and Texie, Mr. and Mrs. James Adkins, Miss Ruth Wilkerson of Houston, Mrs. J. Darby and daughters, Misses Grace, Ethel and Elma, Mr. A. Doers, Mr. Lee Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Speed.

Mr. W. A. Baar of Weimar was here Monday, going to Bonham to take a look over the situation there. Hon. Geo. Herder, receiver of the Lakeside Sugar Refining Company, will, within the next thirty or forty days, open a general store at Bonham for that firm, and Mr. Baar will be in charge of the same. Mr. Baar has had much experience in the mercantile business and no doubt will make a go of things there.
We will all be glad to have him move to this section. Mr. Baar is a fine newspaper writer and when he moves to Bonham he will keep the HEADLIGHT informed as to the happenings of that entire section through a weekly letter to the paper.

and especially invited to attend the Sunday services.

The following letter from the Chamber of Commerce of Dallas has been received by citizens of this city: "I write to thank you, as one of the leading business men of Eagle Lake and of Colorado county, for the splendid showing your county made at the State Fair. Out of the thousands of people who saw your exhibit and examined the products of Colorado county there are many who sooner or later will be seeking new homes. The little folder that was handed out to them contained some valuable information for the prospective home seeker. If you had told me in person, by letter or through printed matter, that Colorado county was producing such a variety of crops and of the quality you had on exhibit, I doubtless would have discounted your statement to a certain extent, but when I saw the products themselves, I had to believe.
Herein lies the value of exhibits of this kind. The prospective citizens can see for themselves exactly what the county is producing. It is our hope to see the fair exhibit department of the State Fair become a true picture of Texas and of the possibilities in Texas. The Colorado county exhibit contributed largely to this end and we are grateful to you and to the other business men of Eagle Lake for it."

Mayor Putney asks the HEAD-LIGHT to state that all who want to contribute to the charity fund, in order that no beggars shall be allowed to "panhandle" on the streets or within the business section, to deposit their donations at either bank. This is a good move and will be a saving to the business men of the city, who are
