Lameness

Sloan's Liniment is a quick and reliable remedy for lameness in horses and other farm animals.

"Sloan's Liniment surpasses anything on earth for lameness in horses and other farm animals. I would not stop without it in my stable."
—MARTIN DOYLE,
422 West 10th St., New York City.

Good for Swelling and Abscess.
Mr. H. M. Grooms, of Lawrence, Kan., B. F. D., No. 3, writes: "I had a mare with an abscess on her neck and one on her hind leg. Sloan's Liniment entirely cured her. I keep it all the time for pains and small swellings and for everything about the stock."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is a quick and safe remedy for hog cholera.

Governor of Georgia uses Sloan's Liniment for Hog Cholera.

"I heard Gov. Brown (who is quite a farmer) say that he had never lost a hog from cholera and that his remedy always was a gallon of Sloan's Liniment in a gallon of slop, decreasing the dose as the animal improved.
Last month my boys and myself were at the Agricultural College building and in the discussion of the various diseases, Gov. Brown gave the remedy named as useful." you are behind with yours your renewal at this time will not be amiss.

The Eagle Lake Headlight of last week was not only a credit to Eagle Lake, but to Colorado county, as well. It contained lots of reading matter, one two page advertisement and several other pages of half page and smaller advertisements. The paper is always well printed and is a credit to the publisher as well as to the many wide awake business men who give it an advertising support that is worth while.

Mr. Horace McRee, the head company's grocery department will be married next Sunday in San Antonio to Miss Adeline Clawson, a pretty and charming young lady of El Paso. Mr. Mc-Ree and bride will return to Eagle Lake Tuesday and for the present will board with Mrs. J.

E. Green. The HEADLIGHT's congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life are extended in advance. The following account of a miscellanthe bride-elect is taken from the El Paso Herald:

One of the charming parties of the season was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. C. C. Covington, who charmingly received a company of thirty-five ladies at her home, 1232 Hutton street.
The delightful affair was given in honor of Miss Adeline Clawson, an early November bride, and was a most successful and beautiful affair. The hostess was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. I. M. Peacock, and Mrs. D. R. Wilkins, sister of the bride-elect. Little Misses June and Dorothy Covington directed the ladies to the dressing rooms. The drawing room was decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums, while the color scheme of pink and white was artistically carried out in the dining room. The dining table was covered with a cloth of Russian cluny and the centerpiece was a reflector, with a cut glass vase filled with a bou-quet of pink and white chrysanthemums. Pink candelabras were also in evidence and the chandeliers were effectively trimmed with the color scheme of the rooms. An interesting feature of the afternoon was a guessing contest and the prize, a box of embossed stationery was awarded to Miss Walker McClellan.

Musical numbers further added to the afternoon's pleasure. Miss McClellan rendered several vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs.
Robin Gould, while instrumental numbers were given by Miss Emma Hoffman, Miss Margaret Henderson and Mrs. Robin Gould. At 5 o'clock a dainty collation was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Hoffman and Miss Dora Lee Peacock. The charming bride-elect was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

It is ever occurred to you that this is the time of the year to set out trees, plant some nice roses and other kinds of shrubbery in your yards or are you going to let this season slip by and say "I'll just let the weeds grow another year and next year I'll put out the trees and roses." Why not plant them now and let the trees and plants have the benefit of that year in growth. It costs but very little to do this, and considering the attractive appearance it will add to your place, it costs nothing.

The Houston carnival has been attracting many visitors from we do not believe as many from here have attended the carnival there this year as in years gone

As this article is written this (Friday) morning, we gaze from our front windows in the Headlight office on two jennets lea-surely promenading the public square. Now, we have a stock law here and there is no excuse for this. This paper, in almost every issue, advocates the planting of shade trees and shrubbery, that our town may become an attractive one, but, in the face of the stock law, stock are permitted to run at large and this is certainly a poor inducement to offer any person on the subject of planting shade trees.
We have a stock law and it is the duty of some one to enforce it. We have, up to this time, said nothing on this subject, giving the officers sufficient time to get this matter in hand, but patience has ceased to be a virtue.
If we are going to have a stock law, let's have one. If it is not the duty of our present officers to enforce this law, then the city council or somebody should appoint some one whose duty this shall be. The people, a majority of whom voted for this law, are demanding its enforcement.

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of '64 to '65. This great general will go down to posterity as having accomplished one of the most brilliant feats of arms in the history of the world. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They sound a human note that no other work of literature has done in a decade; it is war, it is romance, it is history, it is literature. You simply cannot resist it. The story of the Civil War now published for the first time and containing all the freshness of a contemporary happening. These letters will grip you hard, and hold your interest from first to last. Fill out this coupon and send it now before you forget it.
