

Tribute To The Memory of T. J. Roberts.

The recent death of T. J. Roberts has deprived us of an excellent friend upon whom we could rely. His interest in the cause we represent was to us a source of unfailing strength and his presence was ever welcome in our midst. Devotion to principle and service to others makes the true aristocrat. While unostentatious in manner and unselish in conduct, our friend was sincere in his dealings and unwavering in his convictions of right. Duty was his watchword. Reason the lamp by which his feet were guided. Justice seasoned with mercy directed his judgment and humanity was the cornerstone of his faith. Now the flame is extinguished, but the light he gave will shine on from the evening.

We desire to express, as well as we may, our sorrow that he has gone, and convey our sympathy to those bereaved who revere a husband's memory.

He who follows after by day, the best he knows, and ever learn the true good at every step. Until his feet are given wings to haste toward eternal bliss.

Mrs. Mooney Entertains.

Mrs. E. L. Mooney entertained the Woodmen Circle at her home on Prairie Street last Friday at 5 o'clock luncheon. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Theo. Bennett. Mrs. W. A. Thatcher presented Mrs. E. W. Hanly, on behalf of the circle, for her efficient work as clerk, a beautiful set of silver table spoons. Mrs. Hanly responded briefly, but beautifully.

Last week's standing of the vote in the piano contest at Calvert's drug store, showed Miss Bunnie Frick, the charming little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Frick in the lead. Miss Bunnie is one of the sweetest little girls in the city, and she asks that if you have no special interest in any of the other contestants, that when you are making purchases at Calvert's, to call for the coupons which are given with every cash sale, and vote them in the ballot box in the store for her. She will appreciate any assistance you will give her in the contest in casting your votes for her, or asking your friends, who are not otherwise pledged, to vote their coupons in her favor.

Not Sure.

A little boy who was very much puzzled over the theory of evolution questioned his mother thus:

"Mamma, am I descended from a monkey?"

"I don't know," the mother replied. "I never knew any of your father's people."

Religious folks are never boastful, are they not?"

"Certainly not, child. But what put that idea into your head?"

"Noticed, at the 'experience' meeting that many told what religion had done for them, but did not mention they had done anything for it."

She Stuck to It.

Everybody in the town had been suffering from colds, with the result that the doctors were sadly overworked.

One medical man, who had not been to bed for two nights, was called out again to an old lady who had been suffering from pneumonia.

On arriving at the patient's bedside to doctor inclined his ear to her chest, and asked her to count, so that he could test her breathing.

Alas the poor man was so fatigued that he fell asleep at the post of duty, and it seemed but a minute later that he awoke, and heard the good dame, husky of tone, but determined, solemnly reciting:

"Ten thousand and seventy-six, ten thousand and seventy-seven."

Famous Stage Beauties

Don't leave them. For at night women use Bagley's Face Salve. It cures the face. Excellent for Eczema or Salt Rheum. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains, heals burns, cuts and bruises. Unsurpassed for piles. See at Calvert's drug store. Adv.

They had been engaged, but they had quarreled, and were too proud to make up. Both were anxious to have people believe they had entirely forgotten each other.

He called a few days ago at her home to see her father—on business, of course. She answered the door-bell.

Said he: "Ah, Miss Jepkin, I believe. Is your father in?"

"No, sir," she replied; "father is not in at present. Do you wish to see him personally?"

"I do," was his response, feeling that she was yielding; "on very particular personal business," and he turned proudly to go away.

"I beg your pardon," she exclaimed after him as he reached the lowest step, "but who shall I say called?"

IT'S SURPRISING

That So Many Eagle Lake People Fail to Recognize Kidney Weakness.

Are you a bad back victim? Suffer twinges, headaches and dizzy spells? Go to bed tired—get up tired? It's surprising how few suspect the kidneys.

It's surprising how few know what to do. Kidney troubles needs kidney treatment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. Have convinced Eagle Lake people of their merit.

Here's an Eagle Lake case, Eagle Lake testimony. Kidney sufferers hereabouts should read it.

Mrs. Mary E. Truitt, State St., Eagle Lake, Texas, says: "For two years I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Calvert's Drug Store, at any sign of disordered kidneys and I don't mind saying that they have always given me relief. For years, kidney complaint had caused me annoyance. I can't say enough for Doan's Kidney Pills for troubles of this kind, and also for swelling of the feet."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Wise Little Eva.

"What does a cat have that no other animal has?" asked the teacher.

"Fur!" shouted one pupil. "Haw-haw!" guffawed another pupil—"skunks—'n' moles has fur."

"I know, teacher—whiskers!" "Haw-haw!" Papa has whiskers!"

"My papa ain't." "Cause he can't Haw-haw! Your papa ain't no good. My papa says—"

"Stop!" cried the teacher. "Can't anybody tell me what a cat has that no other animal can have?"

"A little girl timidly puts up her hand." "Well, Eva," smiles the teacher, encouragingly.

"Kittens!" says Eva. And goes to the head of the class.

One for Her.

Only her mother noticed to invite a very serious young parson to dinner, and he was placed next the light-hearted girl. Everything went well until she asked him:

"You speak of everybody having a mission. What is yours?"

"My mission," said the parson, "is to save young men."

"Good!" replied the girl. "I'm glad to meet you. I wish you'd save one for me."
