The New Grand Opened

The New Grand Theatre was opened last night by Messrs. P. L. Lowry and Louis Adams, two most pleasant young men of Richmond, who have purchased is furnishing the music for the present, a fine six piece electric piano having been purchased, and the present instrument is being used until the orchestra piano arrives which will be in about three weeks. A large crowd was present at the opening last night. The new managers promise to give the best pictures obtainable and ask for a share of you patronage.

Mr. W. H. Shaw, one of Garwood's popular and prominent citizens, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. Sam Alkek, who recently moved from Eagle Lake to Victoria, spent Saturday in the city on business matters and to enjoy one more good old, duck hunt on the lake. He succeeded in getting the limit in duck shoot.

The HEADLIGHT is pleased to learn of the continued improvement of Hon. Geo. Herder, who is ill at his home in Weimar of meningitis. His condition is growing better now day by day, and his physician now considers that he is out of danger.

Messrs. Lee Hughes and A. L. Baring have decided to make their brick buildings now under construction on the west side of the square, two stories instead of one story. The front half will be for offices, while the rear half will be used by Mr. Baring as a vehicle store room.

Woman's Union Prayer Meetings Organized

On Monday afternoon thirty or forty women met at the Methodist church and organized a Woman's Union Prayer Meeting, to meet every Monday afternoon at four o'clock. Meetings for the month of March will be held in the Methodist church.

The W. C. T. U., already strongly organized as a local branch of that wonderful, world-wide union of Christian women, firmly established in fifty nations, with over a million members, who, in their noontide trying hour with God circles the globe with their white ribbon of prayer for his blessings on "Home and Native Land" will meet at the same place and at the same hour.

This new organization will affiliate with the W. C. T. U. as its evangelistic and prayer department, not as obligated members but only as an affiliated organization. Thus the two will mutually strengthen each other, and the recent Anti-Slavery movement generated in our midst. Failure in attendance at this hour of prayer will mean a blessing lost from your life. Come—Contribute.

Dan Russel and the Matinee Girls show, which showed here some weeks ago in "The Man, the Maid and the Money" is coming back to Eagle Lake in a brand new play, "The New Partner," and will appear again at Fragar's opera house on next Thursday night, March 6th. This is one of the best musical shows that has ever visited Eagle Lake and played here to a big house. On their return engagement they will no doubt play to a capacity house, so you had better secure your tickets at Harris' Cream Parlor early. The new play, which is "The New Partner," is a two-act musical concoction full of comedy and song hits by an excellent chorus. Remember the date of the good one, Thursday, March 6th, and secure your tickets early.

Mr. John Helmer, one of the extensive potato growers of the Bonus section, was in the city Wednesday and while here purchased one of the new 1913 Studebaker 35's from the Smith Auto Company.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Goodell were over from Garwood yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Roig of Houston is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mamie Webb.

A pretty baby daughter was born last night to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson.

The Neff Tent Theatre Co. is coming to Eagle Lake next Monday for a week's engagement. Their tent will be on the Keith lot, and the show will be under the auspices of the Eagle Lake band. Read the half page advertisement in this issue.

With the first of March, the Headlight is ten years old. If you began when the paper was first established you owe for another year now, and as we will have to rake, scrape and borrow to pay for our office improvements, your's will be greatly appreciated if sent in right now.

Are you going out to Lissie tonight to see the local talent play, "The Deacon"? Curtain rises at 8 o'clock sharp.

"The New Partner," a real good musical comedy at the opera house Thursday night, March 6th. This is the same company that played "The Man, the Maid and the Money" here a few weeks ago, which was pronounced the best show in Eagle Lake this season. Tickets are now on sale at Harris' Cream Parlor. You had better get your seats early for they are going like hot cakes.

A clergyman not long ago received the following notice regarding a marriage that was to take place at the parish church: "This is to give you notice that I and Miss Jimma Arabella are about to come to your church on Saturday afternoon next to undergo the operation of matrimony at your hands. Please be prompt, as the cab is hired by the hour."—Tyt-Bits.

Messrs. Henry Hahn, N. W. Callison and W. S. Strickland were court visitors to Columbus Wednesday.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South met at the church on February 25th, and the installation service of the newly elected officers was conducted by Mrs. Woods in a very impressive manner. The following officers were installed: President, Mrs. M. C. Yates; third vice president, Mrs. P. T. Gordon; fourth vice president, Mrs. T. P. Doole; corresponding secretary, home and foreign department, Mrs. G. W. Westmoreland; recording secretary, Mrs. E. Roos; treasurer, home department, Mrs. Geo. W. Cross; treasurer, foreign department, Mrs. F. S. Ulery; press reporter, Mrs. John Matthews; superintendent of supplies, Mrs. E. Roos; agent, Missionary Voice, Mrs. J. F. Fordyce.

The president took the chair, gave her annual address, followed by a full report of the past year at the Methodist Orphanage, Waco. The fourth vice president, who in charge of the local work, presented her committee, presented her plans for the year's work, which were accepted by the Society, and when perfected, will be a spiritual, social and financial benefit to our church. There is no limit to the growth of the auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society that walks with God, that stands ready for service. We ask every woman of the Methodist church to join us in this great work.

secretary after which the regular business session was conducted. The superintendent of supplies reported a box sent to the Missionary Home and Training School, San Antonio. In acknowledgement of the receipt of this box, Mrs. W. F. Kirby, superintendent of the Home stated: "The box reached us in fine shape and is one of the best boxes received at the Home during the past year." An urgent appeal from the president of our Missionary council, Mrs. Belle H. Bennett, Richmond, Ky., that each Auxiliary make a pledge over and above their dues for the great work we are enterprising, was responded to by our Society taking a $10.00 share in the Virginia Johnson Home, Dallas. It was also decided that our Missionary Society would furnish the means to clothe one orphan for a year at the Methodist Orphanage, Waco. When You Think of Drugs—Think of Us

It is always flattering to a store to have many regular customers. People who come repeatedly must have confidence.

A large percentage of our business comes from regular customers who trades with us year in and year out. They know our methods are right and that they will always be treated as we would like to be treated were we the buyer instead of seller.

Why not make this your regular trading place for drugs and medicines?
