Danger In Delay

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Eagle Lake People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Back ache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease may follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in Eagle Lake.

Mrs. W. A. Thatcher, Eagle Lake, Texas, says: "While I have not used Doan's Kidney Pills, this does not prevent me in publicly endorsing the remedy, as others of my family who have suffered from disordered kidneys, have taken them. It is a positive fact that Doan's Kidney Pills helped these cases wonderfully. To all kidney sufferers I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and will be glad at any time to praise them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Adv.

Contractor O. J. Howard has purchased the two lots on Main Street to the west of and adjoining the property of Mr. S. G. Garmon, and will in the very near future begin the erection of a house on the lots to be occupied by himself and family.

"Bar Haven" at Frazar Opera House Tonight.

The Junior Baraca-Philathea class of the Baptist church will present at the Frazar opera house tonight, the "three-act comedy drama, 'Bar Haven.' Specialties will be given between the acts. Come out and help the class and enjoy the fun. Seats are on sale at Chris Harris' cream parlor. The curtain will rise promptly at 9 o'clock, in order that all who desire may attend the revival meeting at the Christian church before attending the play. Services at the church will be closed about 8:45 o'clock, giving those who would want to attend the services and then see the play, an opportunity to do so.

The following is the cast of characters for the play:
Leo Bradley, in search of an heir
Gideon Graham, a wealthy rascal
R. E. Walker
Rev. John Wesley Wiggins, the pastor at Bar Haven
J. E. Roberts
Cy Brackett, who is fishing for fish and Arbella
Paul Brown
Mrs. Wardell, "The Manor"
Miss Bartha Smith
Florence Wardell, her daughter
Miss Nora Barrow
Kate Wardell, who comes into her own
Miss Mary Edna Booth
Spray Hopper, the captain's daughter, who laughs at love
Miss Gene Welford
Arbella Wortendyke, between the devil and the deep sea
Miss Ruth Cooke
Time: The present
Place: Somewhere near Portland, Maine
Remember the curtain will rise promptly at 9:00 o'clock.

Approves of Judge Mansfield's Candidacy.

We note in several of our exchanges that Judge Mansfield will likely be a candidate for the nomination for congressman of this district next year. The gentleman in question is at present county judge of Colorado county, a man of strong intelligence and personal magnetism; one who, if elected, would fill the position with becoming dignity and great credit to himself and his constituents. He has not, so far as we are able to learn, accepted the call of his friends, but if he should come forth, he would make a clean, good race. LaGrange Journal.

There will be a meeting of the Business League in the city council room to-night at 8:30 o'clock. All members of the League are requested to be present.

Mr. James Towell of Columbus was the guest of Mr. W. H. Griffin this week while here on a business visit.

"Some" Roast.
A citizen has suggested that we ask the Yorktown News the following: Now the time is here when the Flatonia creamery will turn out a thousand pounds of butter daily, and approximately three thousand pounds Saturday. How about Yorktown?—Flatonia Argus.

The Yorktown creamery is turning out an average of 1,400 pounds of butter a week, and the output is increasing every year. The difference in butter production is made up here by the immense cotton and corn crops. Yorktown gained over 12,000 bales last year, and shipped 15,000 bales while Flatonia shipped about 4,000. There is more money spent in Yorktown accidentally than in Flatonia on purpose. There have been more new homes built here since January 1, 1913, than in Flatonia during the past ten years. Flatonia, according to the government census has steadily lost in population, being credited in 1910 with about half of the population that she had in 1890. At this ratio of decrease we figure that Flatonia will be taken entirely off the map in 1930.—Yorktown News.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle was finished he was as well as ever," writes Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling Street, Sydney, Australia. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.—Adv.

WOMEN IN PRUSSIA'S ARMY

Several of Them Played Prominent Parts in War of Liberation a Century Ago.

The year 1913 marks a notable passage in the history of Prussia. A hundred years ago Prussia rose against Napoleon, who was already weakened by the retreat from Moscow, and with the help of the Austrians and also of a very large body of Russians they managed to drive the French army over the frontier after defeating it in the tremendous "days" struggle at Leipsic.

Many are the centennial celebrations that are arranged for this year. Histories of the war, generally known as the "War of Liberation," are also being issued, and naturally enough one or two of these deal with the part that women played in the war, writes the Berlin correspondent of the London Standard. In one of these Major Noe, one of the chief students of the history of this campaign, gives a sketch of the career of seventeen daughters of Prussia who were specially prominent in the fight. Incidentally it shows that in several cases the women were as brave as soldiers, able to command and ready to obey, as well as being able to withstand the hardships of campaigning. To cite some instances, Maria Werder, a woman of Silesia, was allowed to serve as a hussar in the same regiment as her husband, who was a wealthy land owner. She was wounded in several engagements and saw her husband shot dead by her side at Leipsic.

Elenora Prochaska is one of the better known of these heroines. She engaged under the name of "Carl Ross" in the light horse when only eighteen, and several poets have written of her courage and of her death just before the battle of Leipsic. A monument stands to her memory in the cemetery at Potsdam.

HOT ONE
Cholly—I er-er live as you may say by er-er my wife.
Miss Cautique—Yours must be a precarious livelihood.

IN A HURRY.
Bits of colloquy between counsel and witnesses in the local courts, while not important to the case, sometimes make good reading. For instance:
"Madam, how old are you?"
Witness naturally hesitates.
"Come, come, madam. The longer you delay answering my question the older you are."

GROOM RARELY LOOKS LIKE ONE.
"How women do love to stare at a hero," said the cynical youth.
"Yes," assented the savage bachelor, "that is one reason why they always flock to weddings."—Boston Evening Transcript.

ALL IS VANITY.
Mrs. Gramercy—You'll find the weather lovely and warm in the Mediterranean.
Mrs. Park—I hope, my dear, it won't be too warm to wear my new set of furs.—London Opinion.

PLAIN GOLD ONE.
Heck—They say a ring around the moon is a sign of rain.
Peck—So is a ring around a woman's finger a sign of rain.—Boston Transcript.
