The Dead Past

"There hasn't nothing so dead as yesterday. Lots o' people don't know that. You hear 'em 'blowin' aroun' what happened to 'em eight years ago last Monday like it was goin' on today. When I hear a guy tellin' what he was and how he put it over somebody last year, says I to myself, 'That man's a dead one, an' don't know it.' Nobody cares who you was last week. They want to know who you are today now. You might blow a little 'bout what you are goin' to do tomorrow, but if you want an audience to listen to what you did last year, go talk out in th' cemetery.
Then tomorrow, got plenty o' time to hear all about it an' you'll get more whistlin' and cheerin' out o' them 'n you will from live ones. Take it from me, nobody cares a whoop who you was. You can fool yourself by lookin' at th' album with your picture in it, but all the other guys shut their eyes when you try to show it to them: If you did anything worth while an' got real stuff in you, th' same finger in you'll keep you so busy gettin' ahead right now, you'll forget you had an album. They's only one thing people remember 'bout a man unless he's dead, an' that is, how hard he can punch right now.
Nobody can remember th' horse that Maud S. beat. If Maudie was standin' in front o' th' city hall today talkin' 'bout her record, some old dray horse'd give her the laugh an' say, 'He-haw-Maudie, get out o' my way. I got one horse power. What you got?'
No, sir, this bunk about what you used to be don't get you nothin'. Quit livin' last winter.
Try this one. Did you ever drink fizz water left out in a glass overnight? Tastes like a rubber bob.
That's th' kind of a taste you make in ev'rybody's mouth when you bore 'em tellin' who you licked year before last. If ev'ry-body bragged about what he used to be, there wouldn't be breath enough left to 'Hello' in a telephone.

"Don't stand in th' doorway!
'Move up, move up, plenty o' room up front!'
'Watch your step!'—Conductor in Atlanta Journal.

Take a walk through the residence portion of Eagle Lake and note the many new, handsome and costly residences, some recently completed, others nearing the finishing touch and others just commenced, and you will be come thoroughly convinced that you are living in the liveliest and most progressive little town in South Texas.

Colonel T. W. Insall, Sr., Dead

Weimar, Tex., April 22.—Colonel T. W. Insall, Sr., dropped dead early this morning, death due to heart failure. Colonel Insall was a Confederate soldier and a prominent citizen of this city.
He leaves a widow and five children to mourn the loss of an in-diligent husband and father. He was a consistent member of the Baptist Church.

Cement sidewalks have been laid around the home of Mr. W.
E. McKee on Railroad Street and Lake Avenue during the past week. Mr. McKee has also taken down the picket fence around his place which greatly adds to the looks of things. Since the stock law went into effect quite a number of the citizens of the town have taken down the fences, giving the homes a more city-like appearance. After a time when it has been proved that an occasional cow or horse will have no opportunity to get out and in a night eat down and destroy a yard that it has taken years to improve, we will see practically all of the yard fences in Eagle Lake taken down.

Socialists Will Nominate

The Socialists of the Eightteenth Senatorial District, will without doubt also get in on the special election for a senator to be held sometime in June to succeed Senator D. A. Paulus, resigned.

While there has been a statement in the daily press that E.
R. Meitzen, editor of this paper, will be the nominee for the place, this is by no means a certainty for the simple reason that the nominating convention has not been held yet and no member of the Socialist party is permitted to announce his candidacy so long as he is not a nominee.

However it can be said with certainty that the Socialists will place some suitable man in the field, for the purpose of giving the Democratic nominee the best possible "run for his money."

Notice to Campers, Hunters And Fishermen.

This is to notify all mankind that my pastures are posted according to law and that no one is entitled to trespass therein without my special permit, and further, that I intend in future to protect myself in these premises to the fullest extent of law, on the following conditions:

First—Should anyone be detected trespassing after the first appearance of this published notice, and my man or myself shall be informed that the trespasser has not read this advertisement, then we will read same to them from the copy of the paper we will carry and it shall be optional with the trespasser to pay for said ad-or be prosecuted.

Second—I do not wish to work a hardship on my neighbors hence do not lock my gates against regular travel, but said travelers must close all gates securely after them or pay any damage or inconvenience that may accrue from their negligence.

Third—Should anyone desire to enter said premises for recreation or pleasure, they must surely provide themselves with a written or printed permit from me, as I shall certainly in the future protect myself by compelling everyone to produce this evidence of friendship and good will in my behalf, and no excuses will be tolerated.

We have for years paid good hard money to papers to advertise this noticing and if you are not a reader of the Sealy News or Eagle Lake Headlight, the claim that you did not see the notice will avail you nothing, and may cost you the line of costs of prosecution. Certainly we do not wish to foul our business in business and philanthropy of friendship is not a part thereof. If you want to do the right thing, please and have a permit.

ees to serve for two years, or until their successors are elected and

DON'T WAIT

Take Advantage Of An Eagle Lake Citizen's Experience.

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backaches becomes chronic;

'Till kidney troubles develop;

'Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Profit by an Eagle Lake citizen's experience.

Osborn Walker, Eagle Lake, Texas, says: "Disordered kidneys, lameness across the small of the back and weakness of my kidneys caused me much suffering. At times it was practically impossible for me to get up or down or to use my back in any way. I finally used three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and a cure resulted. At Columbus, where I formerly lived, I have known of many who have used Doan's Kidney Pills just as successfully as myself."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Walker had—the remedy backed by his testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-

Eagle Lake is one of the best lighted towns in South Texas.
Coming in town from any direction the bright lights of the city can be seen for miles before you reach it. There is nothing like a well lighted town. Let our motto for the future be: "More lights and better lights."

Bank, the postoffice and a gen-

Backache

Miss Myrtle Colburn, of Russellville, Ala., says:
"For nearly a year, I suffered with terrible backache, pains in my limbs, and my head ached nearly all the time. Our family doctor treated me, but only gave me temporary relief. I was certainly in bad health. My school teacher advised me to

Cardui
The Woman's Tonic

I took two bottles, in all, and was cured. I can always praise Cardui to the sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a blood purifier, and is especially adapted to women, such as headache, backache, or other symptoms of womanly trouble, or if you merely need a tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, try Cardui. 24c

Why He Was Late

"What made you so late?"
"I got stuck in the mud."

"Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."

"I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."

"And you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets."

"Sure, that is what he needs." Sold

Studebaker

"Yes, our new wagon's a Studebaker —the only kind we know"

"The Studebaker idea has been in our family for sixty years. We have never thought of buying any other kind of a wagon."

"It's true, we're continually being offered other wagons costing a little less, with lots of promises as to what they will do. But we know in our family what a Studebaker will do. A few dollars difference in price doesn't mean much. It's the service a wagon gives that we consider most."

"Long service for a fair price means more every time than short service for a few dollars less."

"That's why we stick to Studebaker—and 'Stick to Studebaker' is a pretty good motto for a man who uses wagons."

"Studebaker wagons are built of good stuff. They're made right by people who've had years and years of experience in making them right—people who are trusted the world over."

"Studebaker wagons last, because they're made to last."

"Look out for the dealer who tells you his wagon is just as good as a Studebaker. That's my advice after a good deal of experience—and the experience of all of my people. You get a Studebaker and you've got a safe investment."

SAFER THAN CALOMEL

Dodson's Liver Tonic At Night Will Straighten You Out By Morning. Calomel May Knock You Out of a Day's Work.

If you are a calomel user, next time you are tempted to buy it ask your druggist if he can absolutely guarantee the drug not harm you. He won't do it because he CAN'T do it.

But here is a perfect substitute for calomel which the druggist does guarantee—the famous and reliable Dodson's Liver Tonic.
Calomel's drug store will refund your money without question if you are not thoroughly satisfied.

Go to Calvert's drug store, whom you are acquainted with—and find out about the great number of people who are taking this remarkable remedy and feeling better, keener, healthier, and better able to enjoy life than they ever were when taking calomel.

Why? Because calomel is a poison—one that may stay in the system, and while seeming to benefit you temporarily, may do harm in the end. If you haven't felt these ill effects so far, it is because you are fortunate enough to have a strong constitution.

Don't take the risk any longer.
Get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic (50c) and note how easily and naturally it corrects all bilious conditions, how it clears away that sick headache and coated tongue, how it sets you right without ache or gripe. The most wonderful thing in the world for constipation.

All this without the slightest interference with your regular habits.—Adv.
