It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darius Downey, of Newburg, Junction, N. H., writes: "My wife has been using Chamberlain's Tablets and finds them very effective and doing her tons of good." If you have any trouble with your stomach or bowels give them a trial. For sale by all druggists. Adv. The Headlight wants a live correspondent at Altair, Chesterville and Bonus. Stamped and envelopes furnished.

PRINTING

The job printing department of the Headlight is thoroughly equipped to do the highest class of printing, and at prices that would force big city printing houses to shout for the referee in bankruptcy. New type, new presses and a liberal application of "know how" enable us to turn out high class printing at the lowest prices. Make us prove it.

THE HEADLIGHT

Reading Ads

An exchange tells of the reason a man gave for stopping his paper. He said he got all the local news before the paper was printed, for he was in the grocery business, his wife belongs to all the women's clubs, the sewing circle, and the church societies, his son works in the post-office and his daughter was a telephone operator. All this enabled him to keep up with what was going on without reading the paper.—Vernon Call.

That man was unusually situated. He could hear all the chatter while it was being chattered, but still he needed the newspaper. Newspapers carry not only local news but local advertisements, and every man with a family loses money if he doesn't read advertisements and adjust his trade to them. It is the advertising stores that put out the bargains and not to know when a ignorance. The old-fashioned aborigine sneered at "advertisements" was content with a yarn galley any a chew of stinging tobacco. But his son, a likely young man, is smarter. He buys his clothes and his pleasures intelligently, which is to say he keeps posted by reading advertisements, and we don't much blame him for having quit the old home and thus emancipated himself from the stifling environment he grew up in. People who do not read advertisements are the natural prey of the hookworm.—State Press.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES
A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Eagle Lake women know how the aches and pains that often come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, are frequent indications of weak kidneys and should be checked in time. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. They attack kidney disease by striking at the cause. Here's proof of their merit in an Eagle Lake woman's words:

Mrs. M. E. Cooper, Cemetery Ave., Eagle Lake, Tex., says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills a most beneficial remedy and to those who suffer from attacks of backache and a tired worn-out feeling, I strongly endorse them. More than once when suffering from pains and aches, due to disordered kidneys, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Calvert's Drug Store, and they have never failed to give me quick relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's—and take no other.—Adv.

FIVE DOLLARS A WEEK

This is it down on Belzebub's books. "August the seventeenth—Isabel Brooks: Home in the country; folks decent but poor; Character excellent; moral still pure; Came to the city today and found work; Wages five dollars; department store clerk."

Wages five dollars! To last seven days! Three for a miserable hall room she pays; Two nickles daily the street car receives; One dollar forty for eating that leaves. One forty has quite a long way to reach Twenty-one banquets at seven cents each!

There! Every penny of wage has been spent! Squandered for feasting and riding and rent! Spendthrift! She doesn't remember life's ills, How in the world will she pay doctor bills? What if she's furloughed? (there's always a chance!) Isabel ought to save up in advance.

Hold! We've not mentioned her clothes; she must wear Dresses, hats, shoes, stockings, ribbons for hair—How shall she get them? Suppose that we stop; Perhaps its as well if we let the thing drop. You good math'maticians may figure it out; It's a matter of figures or figure no doubt.

Carry this picture, it's better I'm sure; That a girl like Isabel should be so poor. Belzebub thinks much the same as we, Why as I live! There's a tear in his eye! Now what in Hell can make old Satan cry? Surely the devil is feeling his age; Look what he's writing on Isabel's page: "Virtue's a luxury hard to afford, When a girl hasn't money enough for her board."—Herbert Kaufman.

NOTICE—Owing to the fact that so many people send to our office on Friday evening for a paper before they have been mailed in the postoffice, we often run short of papers in making up our regular mail. For this reason no papers will be sold or given out from the Headlight office on Friday evening until after the entire edition has been mailed in the postoffice. The Headlight will be placed on sale every Friday evening at least thirty minutes before they are mailed in the postoffice, at Calvert's drug store.

Mr. B. E. Ericson of Austin arrived in the city yesterday morning for a visit to his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Deats.

Faced the Flood With a Prayer.

A west side woman who was alone in her home when the flood came was charitable enough to admit to the house a strange man who was vainly striving to reach his own home and rescue his family. When she did not think of the flood she was apprehensive of the man. It was an unusual situation, as the common danger drove them closer together and to the second story.

When death seemed certain, she wrote a farewell and pinned it high on the wall. The man, too, was impressed. Together they recited the twenty-first Psalm and then he made a prayer. "I was so relieved when I found that he was a christian," she said, "and it certainly was a beautiful prayer." Whether or not it was his prayer that checked the flood, the water began to subside and the two were in time permitted to escape.—Columbus Dispatch.

The Eagle Lake baseball team was defeated by the Columbus team on the Columbus grounds last Friday evening in a score of 10 to 9. At the beginning of the seventh inning the score was 9 to 0 in favor of Eagle Lake. Our boys went "up in the air" during the last two innings and allowed the Columbus boys to land with home runs, three baggers, two baggers and singles at their pleasure, piling up ten runs in two innings. "Mutt-head" plays by Eagle Lake in the last two innings were the features of the game.
