S. K. Gardiner Partially Paralyzed.
Mr. S. K. Gardiner of Glidden, known to many of the people of Eagle Lake, who has been doing some gin machinery work at Hallettsville, was found in the gin yard at that place one day last week in a helpless condition, with his entire right side paralyzed. He was brought to Eagle Lake on the early train Monday morning and taken to the home of Mr. Henry Walker until the arrival of the 10-10 Southern Pacific when he was conveyed to his home at Glidden. Mr. Gardiner is just able to talk and says that he stooped over to pick up his pipe, that had accidentally dropped out of his mouth, and in doing so he felt dizzy and knew no more.

Some good work is being done in the Masonic cemetery in the way of beautifying the grounds, cleaning up the graves of the grass, etc. This is a most excellent work that Mr. Robert has undertaken, and every person who has loved ones and friends buried there should assist him financially in the work. With a little expense the grave yard can be made to show a wonderful change in appearance. Fences should be erected around the family lots, shrubs, roses and vines planted on the inside of the inclosures. Do not neglect this work the coming fall of putting out shrubbery in the grave yard.
