

PROMENADE PARTY TUESDAY EVENING.

An event of Tuesday evening of considerable social interest was a promenade party, given by Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Simmons at their lovely new home for Miss Mary Simmons of Brenham and Misses Dinkelspiel of Dallas. Punch was served in the breakfast room of this spacious home throughout the evening, followed by delicious brick cream and cake. Those that participated in the pleasures of the evening were: Misses Russell of San Antonio, Williamson, Nell Green, Thatcher, Pansy Green, Watson of San Antonio, Mabel and Doris Carlton of Velasco, McElhinney of Lake Charles, La. Smith of Yorkville, S. C., Holmes of Turle Bayou, Gabert of Paris, Westmoreland, Bothe, Woods of Uvalde, Poyle of San Antonio, Willson of Houston, Mabel and Lucille Dinkelspiel, Brenham, Messrs. Ahlers, Anderson, Stolz, Victor Engelhard, Waldo Terrell, Harbert, Cruse, O. G. and J. W. Westmoreland, Dr. Thomas, A. J. Wirtz, Max Conner, Hahn, Dobbins, Goldsmith, Mason McCarty, Preston Wicker, Harry Hub Johnson and R. E. Williamson.

GIVES HAY RIDE AND PICTURE SHOW PARTY.

Little Miss Josie Westmoreland gave a delightful hay ride and theatre party to about eighteen or twenty of her little friends on Thursday night of last week. After a pleasant hay ride, the party enjoyed the picture show at the Dixie Theatre.

Mr. S. S. Thigpen was a visitor to Hallettsville last Saturday.

Mr. W. S. Griffith Garwood was looking after business matters in the city Saturday.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPTEMBER EIGHTH.

The Eagle Lake Schools will open on September 8th. The teachers selected are, Miss Jane Cross, city; Miss Mollie Davidson, city; Miss Nannie Jennings, Martindale; Miss Beulah Daniels, Fentress; Miss Maud Hart, Texas City; Miss Annie Smith, Lexington; Miss Maffie Mersfelder, city; Miss Frances Parrish, Denison; Mrs. J. H. Morgan, city. Other teachers have not yet been definitely decided upon.

EVEN WILD DUCKS KNOW GOOD COUNTRY.

There are hundreds of wild ducks on the rice fields. These ducks are those that remained here last spring, when the ducks were making the northern flight. More and more ducks are staying in this section and hatching here each year. Even wild ducks know a good country when they find it.

If you want a Lyceum Course in connection with the school, call at Harris' Palace of Sweets and make your selection of seats at once. The course last year was excellent and the committee promises even a better course this season, provided they receive the support they should.

The season tickets have been reduced to $1.50 for five or more numbers. Since these entertainments are free to the school children and high class in character, every seat in the auditorium should be taken in advance. Let everyone not only provide himself, but also see that his friends and neighbors do their part.

That the plaintiff E. M. Neill is entitled to one equal undivided one-eighth part of the first described tract of land, and an undivided one-fifth part of the second described tract, the plaintiff, Sallie R. Rosenfield and her husband, N. Rosenfield, are entitled to an undivided one-eighth part of the first described tract, and an undivided one-fifth part of the second described tract; the plaintiff, Phoebe J. Wirtz, and her husband, J. G. Wirtz, are entitled to one equal undivided one-eighth part of the first described tract of land, and an undivided one-fifth part of the remaining described tract of land; that the defendants, Sallie Hollingsworth, R. C. Hollingsworth and Jas. B. Hollingsworth are jointly entitled to one equal undivided one-eighth part of the first above described tract of land and an undivided one-fifth part of the second described tract; and that the defendants, Mrs. M. L. Calhoun and her husband is entitled to an undivided one-half of the first described tract of land, and an undivided one-fifth of the second described tract. That the plaintiffs and defendants are the sole owners of said land and premises so far as is known to plaintiff, and the estimated value thereof is $25.00 per acre for the first tract and $10.00 per acre for the second tract, or a total valuation of $275.00 for all of the property.

That the defendants, Mrs. M. L. Calhoun and husband, have collected rents and revenues from said property of the value of $2000.00, and have converted and appropriated the same to their own use and benefit, to the plaintiffs' damage in their proportionate amount thereof.

The said property is divided into farm, pasture and wood land and has improvements situated thereon in such shape as that a fair and equitable division thereof cannot be made.

Plaintiffs pray for citation, for judgment against defendants, Mrs. M. L. Calhoun and husband, for their rents and revenues collected as above alleged, with legal interest thereon; judgment for the partition and division of said land and premises, that same be ordered sold and the proceeds divided among the parties as their interests may appear; and, in the alternative, if the court is of the opinion that a fair and equitable division of the real estate can be made, that commissioners be appointed and a writ of partition issue, and for possession of that portion that by judgment of the court may be ascertained and declared to be the property of plaintiff, for costs of suit, and general and special relief.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Columbus, Texas, this 6th day of August, A. D. 1913.
