

CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Eagle Lake Readers.

For months Eagle Lake citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by Eagle Lake residents. Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Eagle Lake reader.

A. L. Wagner, Stevenson Ave., Eagle Lake, Texas, says: "I have the same high praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did three years ago, when I publicly stated that they cured me of kidney complaint. The cure still remains permanent.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Ladies' Work A Specialty

Cleaning clothes is our hobby. Dirt is alright in the right place, but it is out of place in garments worn by women.

Cleanliness Is A Duty and then, too, it is economical to keep one's clothes cleaned, pressed, and repaired. They not only last longer, but they look better and greatly enhance the beauty of the wearer. Let us clean your clothes. Our prices are moderate.

a forceful and brilliant orator. This canvass was made in the days when there were only three or four short lines of poorly-equipped railroads in Texas; the state had scarcely passed from the wilderness stage, and Judge Thompson, in making his campaign, had to use his buggy and mules as his only available means of transportation.

There were broad stretches of uninhabited country lying between each settlement, yet he visited and made speeches in the county seat of every organized county in the state. His was perhaps the most remarkable campaign ever made in Texas, if the toil and hardship which he encountered and endured are considered. In making this canvass his lines of travel led him through dense forests and over dry and parched prairies and across unbridged rivers and streams.

Somedays he was oppressed with thirst and heat, and sometimes chilled with rain and cold.

The mere failure, however, to receive the office with its emoluments made but little difference with Judge Thompson, because in making this race he had been moved by a sense of duty and patriotism rather than by motives of personal consideration.

THE DEMOCRATS.

This political campaign was made in 1871, and while the office was given to another, his object was in the end accomplished. Through his terrific arrangements of the "reconstruction regime" in control at Austin he succeeded in rallying and organizing the democrats, and in the election that followed two years later the Texas foes of democracy received a Waterloo from which they never recovered. Judge Thompson was nominated and elected lieutenant and governor of the state during the first administration of Governor O. M. Roberts. He has filled many positions in Texas with honor and fidelity to himself and his fellow citizens, and now in the evening of his useful and patriotic life the plaudit due to a good and faithful servant should be pronounced upon him.

There were other citizens of Columbus who held important positions of honor and responsibility in the state government. Among them were Hon. George W. Smith, who occupied a place on the supreme bench with the lamented Richard Coke; Hon. George McCormick served as attorney general during the administration of Governor Roberts, and Judge W. S. Delany was a member of the commission of appeals. They were all able and honorable men, who were eminently qualified, and made good in the positions which they severally filled.

Yes, Columbus has contributed her quota of good, able and useful men to both the state and nation, and still has others that she could contribute were they to seek honors in the political arena of their country.—S. M. Lesesne in Galveston News.

Mother of Eighteen Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I prefer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.—Adv.
