Colorado County Pecans at Nut Growers' Association

Here is an opportunity for Colorado county pecan growers who lay claim to having extra large, good quality pecans.

Believing that Colorado county can put up a splendid pecan nut exhibit, an opportunity for which will be had at the annual meeting of the National Nut Growers' association at Houston next month, Messrs. Kolberg & Anderson, proprietors of the Eagle Lake Nurseries, are coming forward with an offer of three substantial prizes for the best samples of Colorado county grown pecans submitted to them before November 1st.

The premiums offered by these gentlemen are: First prize, $10 worth of nursery stock; second prize, $5 worth of nursery stock; third prize, $3.00 worth of nursery stock; winners to select such stock from the catalog of the Eagle Lake Nurseries.

The following points must be observed by growers making entries in the contest:

1st—Each entry of nuts must be from a single tree, and must consist of one pound of pecan nuts, counting not fewer than seventy nuts to the pound, thin shell easily removed, cleaning more than 55 per cent of meat of rich, pleasing flavor. Nuts to be of attractive color and from a tree known to be a prolific and regular bearer.

2nd—Each pound of nuts entered should be accompanied by a brief history of the tree, giving location, name of owner, approximate size and age of tree and such other facts necessary to identify and locate the tree.

3rd—Each entry should be securely wrapped, with name of owner on outside of package, the package to be sent to Kolberg & Anderson, Eagle Lake, Texas, by parcel post. The description and data should be mailed in a separate envelope.

After judging and award of premiums by the above named gentlemen, the prize winning entries and some of those grading close up will be entered at the National Nut Growers' convention in Houston, Nov. 5, 6 and 7, where the Texas Nurserymen's association have hung up $200 in premiums for the most valuable pecan nuts exhibited from Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

After the Houston convention it is proposed to have a pecan exhibit at the National Corn Show at Dallas, Feb. 10 to 24, where it is expected more prizes will be offered. Following this great show the pecan exhibits will be turned over to state educational institutions for permanent display. All premiums won at Houston or elsewhere will be forwarded directly to the original grower.

It is to be hoped that owners of exceptionally good pecan trees in this county will try for the prizes offered by Kolberg & Anderson. Such entrants also stand a good chance of winning premiums at one or more of the other shows mentioned.

If further particulars are desired address above named at the Eagle Lake Nurseries, Eagle Lake, Texas.

Investigations made by these nurserymen have convinced them that Colorado county has some of the finest native pecan trees in Texas, and it is their desire to secure full data on same and to boost for Colorado county at the National shows at Houston and Dallas.

While not largely attended by people other than those of that church, the ladies of the Christian Aid Society realized about at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McCarty last night. The menu consisted of milk or coffee, syrup and hot cakes—which made the "butterfly." The home was decorated in paper butterflies and Japanese lanterns. Misses Elouise Frazar and Mary Maud McCarty, dressed in paper maiche dresses of gay butterfly colors, served the guests in the dining room during the evening. The ladies are thankful to those who patronized them last night.

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cods' livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

As a body-builder and strength creator for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness; and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis or pulmonary troubles we ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

The Dixie Theatre has put on a new film service and is now giving greatly improved picture programs. The films now being used by the Dixie, the Mutual film service, include the American, Reliance, Majestic, Mutual, Bronco, Thanhauser, Key Stone and Kay Bee. These are among the very best, and it is hoped larger crowds will turn out to see the improved film service. Mr. Moore has just gone to a heavy expense in installing his own electric light plant, in order to give better pictures. Attend the Dixie tonight and see the new film service.

The 500 Club met with Mrs. W. A. Dallas Wednesday afternoon. After a number of interesting games were played, Miss Pansy Green, having the highest score, was awarded a beautiful hand embroidered towel, the work of the hostess. By a unanimous vote the club was changed from 500 to an auction bridge club. Refreshments of chicken salad, chip potatoes, French peas, bread and butter sandwiches, olives, ice tea, brick cream and cake were served to the following guests: Mesdames Barbe, Carey, Chester, Egnus, Frazar, Guynn, Landa, Lenhart, McRee, Owen, Smith, Simmons, Pierce, Misses Malcomson and Green.

Decay Of Courtesy.

If courtesy ever existed amongst our friends in the colder regions of this country it must be on the decline. We read that when the daughter of the President of the United States was traveling from the chief city of the country to Cornish she was disappointed in obtaining a lower berth on the sleeping car, and had to contend herself with an upper berth. The conductor, it is said, made every effort to find some gentleman who would be willing to exchange with Miss Wilson, giving her the lower berth and himself taking the upper one, but of all the passengers on the car not one was found who possessed the spirit of courtesy sufficiently strong to grant the request. It is not because Miss Wilson is the daughter of the highest functionary in our Nation. Surprise and mortification would be the same were she anyone else's daughter, so long as she was a respectable woman, or as we call it conveniently, a lady. It happened, however, that the daughter of the President was ill at the time, and in no condition to climb a ladder into an upper berth, after the manner of a cave dweller. Down this way such boorishness is wholly inconceivable. There is hardly a trip made by any sleeping car that this act of courtesy is not extended to some woman, whether known or unknown, young or old. We may be backward in a good many ways, but no combination of circumstances could possibly compel a lady to climb into an upper berth, while there were any breeches-wearing bipeds occupying a lower. The Governor of any Southern State, and from him down to the ward constable, or any private citizen would not have been appealed to in vain on this side of the imaginary line. Courtesy is inherent in the character of the Southern man, and he is heartily ashamed of his fellow-citizens of New York State, who could be guilty of such indelicacy and brutal selfishness. Miss Wilson or any other lady who desires to travel should direct her course Southward, where she will be certain to receive every manly attention and gentle consideration.—Memphis News-Scimmitar.

Chronic Dyspepsia.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman St., Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Did It Ever Occur To You

That a wise man doesn't devote all his time to telling about it.

That a good many persons are proud of having violent tempers.

That older folks prefer a "green" boy to one who is too danged smart.

That unlike the cold-storage egg, it is possible for you to be too fresh.

That a dog with fleas usually seems to be trying to make both ends meet.

That the most disagreeable thing to take is some of your own medicine.

That money never took any one to heaven; but it has kept a lot of people out.

That there are just two kinds of eggs—good and bad. There are no half-bad eggs.

That your neighbor should be grateful to you, for doing so much worring over his business.
