WIRTZ-STAMPS WEDDING

Popular Eagle Lake Citizen and Seguin Young Lady Married in Seguin Tuesday.

(Through the kindness of Editor Smith of the Seguin Enterprise in mailing us proofs of the wedding in advance of his publication, the Headlight is enabled to print the Enterprise's article of the wedding in this week's issue of the Headlight—Editor.)
"May peace and joy and health abide with you and Love be to your side. And all your life be mine with you. That wish a day shall never be long."

No prettier wedding has ever been celebrated in Seguin, nor one in which has been centered more friendly interest, than that which took place Tuesday morning at the Baptist church, when Miss Kitty May Stamps and Mr. Alvin J. Wirtz were united in marriage. Rev. T. J. Dodson, of San Antonio, officiating.

For the occasion the church had been beautifully decorated with pot plants, palms, ferns, etc. The ceremony was particularly effective; clusters of gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums gave a color effect that was especially fine.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Walter Nolte sang most beautifully "Without You" by D'Handel, accompanied on the organ by Miss Eugenia Burges, who also played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the bridal party appeared and marched down the aisle.

The brides, Misses Nora Holmes and Mattie Campbell came first, charming in their gowns of dark blue charmeuse, and carrying arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. They were followed by the handsome matrons of honor, Mrs. W. D. King and Mrs. Eugene Nolte, attired in costumes of brown charmeuse, and also carrying bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Then, the bridesmaids came the bride and her father, Dr. A. M. Stamps, who were met at the altar by the groom, Mr. A. J. Wirtz, and his best man, Mr. R. Wirtz. And with the beautiful ring service Rev. T. J. Dodson pronounced the words which united the two young lives.

The brunette beauty of the bride, who is one of our most admired young women, was most charmingly emphasized by her handsome tailored suit of brown cloth, with hat and all accessories to correspond. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bridal party left the church.

Immediately following the ceremony, a delightful reception was held at the handsome home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Stamps. Here also an artistic taste was displayed in the decoration, and the yellow chrysanthemums brightened the green with the glory of their color, and Killarney roses gave the delicate touch of white.

The guests were met and welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Stamps, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Wirtz, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. King, Mesdames Walter Nolte, Eugene Nolte, W. H. Baxter, W. P. Griffin, S. F. Pierson and B. G. Foster; Misses Lou Willeford, Mattie Campbell, Nora Holmes and Eugenia Burges; Messrs. T. D. Stamps and R. Wirtz.

was in charge of Miss Corinne Vaughan, and if its silent predictions prove true Miss Dorothy Vaughan will be the next bride, for she found the ring; Miss Mattie Campbell will always have plenty of money, for the dime was hers; the thimble told of needlework to be done by Miss Polly Hollomon, while the button let every one know that Miss Corinne Vaughan is to be a "bachelor girl."

Miss Nora Holmes caught the bride's bouquet, and the bride's attendants, as well as Mrs. Walter Nolte and Miss Eugenia Burges were presented with beauty pins on which their initials were engraved.

Mr. and Mrs. Wirtz left on the noon train for San Antonio and other places. They will later go to Eagle Lake, in which city Mr. Wirtz is a prominent young lawyer and where they will make their home.

Unnumberable good wishes for the young couple, and especially go with them; though they are accompanied by many regrets that Seguin will no longer be Mrs. Wirtz's home.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Wirtz, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. King, Waco; Misses Lou Willeford, San Marcos; Marie Burns and Ruth Burleson, San Antonio; Rev. T. J. Dodson and Mr. J. D. Stamps, San Antonio; Messrs. Robert Walker, Eagle Lake; R. and Milton Wirtz, Austin.—Seguin Enterprise.

At Christian Church.
We missed you from our Bible School Sunday morning, and also from our communion service. I have just been wondering this week, if you had a real good reason for being absent, one that you feel would be acceptable to the Lord and Master? I am only kind that should have kept you away. We are going to expect you next Sunday, and shall be distressingly disappointed if you are not there.

The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The subject for the morning sermon, "The Bible Our Guide." "We Would See Jesus" will be the topic for the evening sermon. Come and let us help you and you help us.

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.
Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee.

PLAY-SINGERS COMPANY

First Lyceum Course Attraction One of Best Entertainments Here in Many Seasons.

The Play-Singers Concert Company at the school auditorium last week, the first number on the lyceum course, was a most excellent entertainment. The company consisted of four pretty, attractive and talented young ladies, Miss Florence Carey, violinist-contralto; Miss Theodosia Hayden, violinist soprano; Miss Dora Hershaw, pianist-soprano and Miss Kathryn Firebaugh, reader-cellist, whose homes are in the State of Illinois. The young ladies were at perfect ease on the stage. Another thing that met favor with the audience was that the ladies wore no "stage paint"—they wore their own complexions, thus giving a change from the usual "stage paint" face, to the sweet, natural face of the artist.
