David Freeman, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills, but cost no more. Not What the Judge Intended.

An English firm was prosecuted before the highest court for swindling and unfair business dealings.

In acquitting them the chief justice said with great emphasis:

"The evidence is not quite sufficient to convict you, but if any one wishes to know my opinion of your methods I hope they will come to me."

Two days afterward the firm's advertisement appeared in all the London papers with the following well display: "Reference, by special permission, the Lord Chief Justice of England."

"Yes, sir," said the chemist. Step inside, please. There's an article I can highly recommend. Testimonials from great men who use it. It makes the hair grow in twenty-four hours."

"Aweel," said the Scot, "ye can give the top o' your head a bit rub wi' it and I'll look back the morn and see if you're tellin' the truth."
