

A Dollar's Worth.

An up-State Assemblyman went to a local hotel of unpretentious character a short time ago, says the New York Herald, and said he wished to rent a room for 75c, if possible, and if not, for $1.00. The clerk told him there were no 75c rooms, and that it was only on rare occasions that they let anything for less than $1.50. It was finally agreed that the man should get a $1.00 room, and the bellboy started him off toward the roof.

Early the next morning the legislator came down to the desk in a state of great excitement. "Say," said he to the clerk, "what kind of a place is this, anyhow? Why, in the middle of the night two great big rats got out of the floor right in the middle of the room and had a fight."

"Well," calmly replied the clerk, "what do you expect for $1.00 a bed night?"

For Eczema, Tetter and Salt Rheum.

The intense itching characteristic of these ailments is almost instantly allayed by Chamberlain's Salve. Many severe cases have been cured by it. For sale by all dealers.

A farmer tells an exchange that he rid farm of rats as follows: On a very large number of pieces of shingles I put about a teaspoonful of molasses, and on that, with my pocket knife, I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye, then placed the shingles around under the floors and under the cribs. The next morning I found forty dead rats and the rest had vamoosed. I have cleared many of the pests in the same way, and have never known it to fail.

The Good Time.

I put a mortgage on my home, to buy a motor car, and now all joyously I roam on rural roads afar. I take the children and the wife, and scour the countryside; I'm bound to lead a merry life, and let all business slide. We pass the poorhouse as we race, and merrily my fran remarks: "Alas that dismal place! I go in debt for gasoline, for this and that repair; But oh, the country's bright and green, and I'm happy there! We pass the poorhouse as we scoot, and wife, she says to me: 'Oh mark it well, my dear galoot—that's where we'll shortly be!' I used to deal in earthen jars, and made all kinds of chink; but now the chugging motor cars are all of which I think.

The clerks conduct my little store, and when I am away, they take their coats and lock the door, and fishing they go, folks say. But merrily my good car spins, and on the poorhouse grass the paupers sit and stoke their chins, and hail me as I pass.

WALT MASON.

Just Her Husband.

A woman mounted the step of a car, carrying an umbrella like a versed sabre.

The conductor touched her lightly, saying "Excuse me madam, but you are likely to put out the eye of the man behind you." "He's my husband," she snapped with an air of full proprietorship. —Chicago Post.

A Cat Story.

Mayor Lew Shank, the beneficiary of much of his own and some of some others' humor, has finally fallen heir to a good cat story which is credited to him by a Crawfordsville admirer.

The mayor, this writer alleges, received two white cats by parcel post from Crawton. They were nice, country-bred cats, and the woman who sent them sought good homes and a little change for them in Indianapolis.

During a lull at the city market Mr. Shank offered the cats for sale. In his own inimitable way he cried them to a crowd. "Here they are—two fine, house broke Tabby cats—what an bid—what an offered!"

"What's their names, Lew?" asked a huckster.

"Tom and Jerry—what'll you give for Tom and Jerry?"

"Why don't you call them Cook and Peary?" asked a small boy.

"Son, these are not pole cats," answered the mayor.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. All Drugists, H. E. Buckle and Co. Phila. or St. Louis. Adv.

LIV-VER-LAX FOR SICK HEADACHE

It is Your Inactive Liver and Clogged Bowels. Liv-Ver-Lax is the Panacea for All Troubles and Constipation.

You are bilious, your thirty feet of bowels becomes clogged up, poisonous gases are generated in the bowels and thrown out in the system, your head aches, you have chills and fevers, you are nervous and ill tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off. Your disordered stomach and biliousness cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. Is not your stomach as good as any?

Try Liv-Ver-Lax, it is purely vegetable. Do not resort to calomel and harsh physics which ruins the system and softens the bones.

Liv-Ver-Lax acts gently, yet positively on the liver, stomach and bowels. Is pleasant to take and does not create sickness. It is a reason for grown-ups and babies alike.

You will be surprised at the amount of bile a bottle of Liv-Ver-Lax will clean out of your system. Buy a regular 50c or $1.00 bottle from the Eagle Lake Drug Co. or at any drug store and be convinced.

The Lebanon Co-Operative Medicine Co., Lebanon, Tenn. None genuine without the likeness and the signature of L. K. Grigsby. Adv.

At Christian Church.

Remember the special services at the Christian church Sunday evening. Rev. S. G. Juma of Mexico will be present and bring a message that will be worth your while to hear. The program has been thoroughly and faithfully planned, and should you miss this great service, it will be your loss.

The pastor will conduct the morning service and will speak on the theme, "Christmas With our Christ." How would you like, dear friend, to live in a land where the Galilean is not known? I feel sure not one of us would appreciate living where there are no churches. Then let us honor our Lord by putting forth our humble effort to make His interest more permanent in the hearts of men.

R. H. JONES, Pastor.

The first heat at Cater's Drug Store, given on Wednesday by the Philathea Class, of the Baptist Sunday School, was a big success. The class had a fine assortment of handsomely decorated dolls on sale and also served a salad course with hot coffee. They realized $46.40 from the sale and yet still have some pretty dolls on hand which they hope to sell between now and Christmas.

While potatoes will not be a drug on the market this year, consumers need not fear that there will not be enough to meet demands. In a special report on the potato outlook, L. C. Corbett of the department of agriculture at Washington asserted that while the total harvest will be less than last year, it will be sufficient to supply normal need.

Our general display of all kinds of goods will be on hand at the Eagle Lake Racket Store.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Texas Calls on Kansas.

Dr. Bruce of the Northern Normal School of Texas, spoke to the students and faculty of the Normal this morning. Dr. Bruce with the presidents of three other Normals of Texas, is visiting the normal schools of some of the other states. In introducing Dr. Bruce, President Batcher spoke of the comfortable feeling that the people of Kansas had because of the great empire of Texas was between them and Mexico. As president of normal school Dr. Bruce has undoubtedly listened to many speeches to the normal students and shunting advice and congratulations usually given by these speakers he gave the students and faculty an interesting talk. He spoke chiefly of the state school system of Texas. In concluding his address Dr. Bruce said, "If the Mexicans start this way, don't be alarmed, don't be afraid, don't be nervous." —Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.

The Unselfish Workman.

Charles S. Melien, the well-known railroad man, presided at dinner in Boston, the pioneers of our American railroads.

"These men were unselfish," he said. "They work solely for the people's good. They risked their fortunes and their lives without seeming to notice it. They resembled, in fact, Pat Collins."

"Pat was on the roof of an old eight-story building, beginning the work of demolition. His position on the roof was very dangerous. As he threw down staves and rubbish he was in continual peril of falling down himself."

"But his sole care seemed to be the people below, who insisted on standing in the street and looking up at him on his precarious perch."

and again to stand back. Finally, exhausted, he said:

"Behad, if I drop on the heads of some of yez, I bet ye'll wish then ye'd kept out of the road!"

A man was sued for a certain amount of money. The debtor repeatedly offered to work off the debt, but this offer did not seem at all to suit the taste of the creditor. At last the judge asked the plaintiff the reason for his unwillingness to accept the debtor's offer to "work off the debt." His reply was:

"Well you see, your honor, the man's an undertaker!"

Rare Cleverness.

"Why won't you buy something at my table?" demanded the girl at the fair.

"Because I only buy from the homey," said the man. "They have a harder time making sales." The girl was not offended, and he worked this right down the line.
