

NUSSBAUM'S

STOCK REDUCING SALE

Is still going on. Only four more shopping days before Christmas. In these four days we have to unload an enormous stock of the best merchandise. We are determined to do so regardless of profit. Carrying over stock means tying up capital and paying interest on investments which we cannot afford. Therefore the goods must go. You will profit by selecting your gifts here.

Here are some of the things we have for gifts: Suits, overcoats, hats, shoes, trunks, suit cases, club bags, hosiery, umbrellas, handkerchiefs, sweaters, ties, cuff links, scarf pins, mufflers, scarfs, hand bags, bar pins, counterpanes, bed sets, and best of all, a pair of all wool blankets. You will find almost anything you want for a Christmas gift at Nussbaum's.

The Heart of a Man.

On a Southern Railway train recently there was a lady traveling who had with her a sweet baby boy who had long since wearied of his journey. He was not contented in any position or with anything the mother had to offer. The passengers near saw the trouble and some would have been glad to give the mother a few minutes rest, but none dared. Others thought the mother should have stayed at home. By and by a man with a kindly face got on the train and found a seat across the aisle from the fretful child. His attention was at once centered upon the two. He held his hands confidently for the little fellow but he refused. Then the gentleman arose and approached the child with a kindly smile said, "Let's see the train." The dimpled hands went out to meet his as he said, "So chain." The two were friends. The man held the child close to him and carried him to the end of the car. He was to the delight and relief of the mother, and the admiration of most of the passengers, he held the child tenderly to his heart and talked to him in his own language. The confidence gained he came back to his seat and held the child and let him play with his nose and mustache and press his chubby fingers against his chin. The train had now reached the mother's destination and she took the child saying, "Thank you kindly, sir. I must put on his cloak now." The gentleman gave him up with a reverent bow and then took his seat. He sat pensively for a little while and then covered his eyes with his hand, resting his elbow on the arm of the seat. He sat thus for some minutes and then in spite of his efforts at secrecy was seen to take his handkerchief and blow his nose. He was incidentally wiping his eyes. The porter called his station and he left the car. Two ladies sitting together looked at each other and one who happened to know the man, said, "Just about a year ago he lost his own baby about the age of this one."—Christian Courier.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed
A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs. I write Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

The Eagle Lake Racket Store

"A Prince Of His Race."

The College Indian romance is not a dime novel story, but one that is full of heart interest and pathos. It rivets the audience's attention from the rise of the curtain to the finish of the last act, and has been permanently classed stronger than "Strongheart," in dramatic climaxes and situations. There is a bright line of comedy that tends to keep one amused all throughout the action of the play. This excellent company will be at the Plaza Opera House tonight (Friday) and will be produced in its entirety and with the original cast.

The news agent on the Santa Fe has asked the Headlight to correct an error that appeared in the last issue of this paper in regard to the report that the selling of chronicles above regular price here during the scarcity of daily papers here last week. He says there was a big demand for the papers but he sold none of them above the regular price, and that the report was a false one. We are glad to make the correction, as it is not the policy of this paper to do any one an injustice.

For that Dull Feeling After Eating.
I have used Chamberlain's Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at any dealer and see what a splendid medicine it is.—Adv.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Davidson of Glen Flora were the guests of relatives and friends here last week. They were married in Galveston only a few weeks ago, Mrs. Davidson being formerly Miss Willie Ratcliff, a sister of Mrs. W. A. Moore of this city.

We learn that a compromise has been made in the Stafford will case, on trial for the past three weeks in San Antonio. In the compromise, according to best information received here, each of the Walker and Stafford heirs, is to receive $21,000 in addition to the $10,000 named them in the will.
