To advertise our store we are going to give away one of the best clocks of its kind that money can buy. The clock shown in the picture above is the clock some one will receive absolutely free. You may think that a clock given away in this manner is a cheap piece of goods manufactured for this one purpose. This is not the case with this clock, as many of you have seen it in our stock and priced it at different times. This clock has glass sides, trimmed with 22K gold and stands 17 inches high. The clock as shown in this advertisement will be placed in our window and on Dec. 12 we will wind it up tight. To the person who will guess the HOUR and the MINUTE that this clock will stop, we will give this clock free. Whether you buy goods at our store or not, you are entitled to a guess in this contest. Our object in making this offer is to induce you to visit our store and examine our display of jewelry now ready for you to select your Christmas presents from. Each person is entitled to one guess only. Write your guess upon a piece of paper, sign your name and address and bring of send same to our store in a SEALED ENVELOPE. DO NOT SEND BY MAIL. Date and time of arrival will be placed upon each envelope. After the clock stops each envelope will be opened in the order in which they were left with us. In case there is no correct answer, the person having the nearest correct guess will receive the clock. The last person to leave their answer stands just as good a chance to win as the first one placed with us. This will make a handsome Christmas present for your friend. Don't forget to send in your guess.

OSCAR GRAHAM AT OP-ERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Oscar Graham, on a return engagement playing "A Prince of His Race," will be the attraction at the opera house in Eagle Lake tonight (Friday.) Mr. Graham is one of the best actors and carries one of the best companies that has ever visited Eagle Lake. He has been coming to Eagle Lake for a number of seasons, having opened the opera house here with this same play. Since then he has played Circle C Ranch, The Stumbling Block and this season presented The Higher Law. His company has never failed to give satisfaction, and it is generally conceded by the people here who have seen all of his plays, that "A Prince of His Race" the bill for tonight, is one of his very best attractions. Tickets are on sale at Chris Harris cream parlor.

USED-GASOLINE IN A KEROSENE STOVE

At the Methodist ladies' bazar last week, the ladies used an oil stove all during the day. This stove was the property of Mr. W. Y. Westmoreland, and was an oil stove, but through some error, it was filled with gasoline while in use at the bazar, and burned gasoline all day. After having been taken to the home of Mr. Westmoreland, and in attempting to light it the following day, a small explosion occurred. In speaking of the matter Mr. Westmoreland says it is the greatest wonder in the world the stove did not explode, and asks us to make mention of the fact so that all people will be very careful in the future to make sure whether they are putting kerosene or gasoline in their stove before they are lighted.

Mr. J. W. King of Lissa was a pleasant caller at our office while in town on business last week to renew his subscription for another year, and also that of his daughter in Indiana. Mr. King says there is still a good deal of rice in the Nottawa-Lissa vicinity that has not been threshed, and some he says that has never yet been cut.

The edition of the Headlight was mailed at the usual time last week, but on account of the congested condition of the mails at a number of points, it is possible that the papers will be late in reaching a number of the subscribers. The overflow has caused mail to become congested and late all over the state, and for this reason, quite a number of subscribers at various places have been late in getting their papers and we have received many letters during the week asking for extra papers of this issue. On publication day we printed several hundred extra copies of the issue containing an account of the flood, but there was a big demand for them and every extra paper was sold before Saturday night. For this reason, we are unable to supply copies of this number and on account of so many requests for them we are unable to answer all letters, and this notice will serve as a reply.

Christian Pastor Was Ill.

Rev. R. H. Jones, pastor of the Christian church, has been quite ill the past week and was unable to fill his preaching appointment last Sunday. He is much improved now, we are glad to note, and will preach at the Christian church as usual next Sunday, both morning and evening.

Mr. Wm. Weishuhn, one of the Headlight's good friends at Bernardo, was in the city on business Tuesday and left with the editor a supply of fine home made sausage, he having just killed a porker at his home. The sausage put up by Mr. Weishuhn was as fine as we ever ate, and he has our thanks for the treat. Mr. Weishuhn says the people at Bernardo failed to get their Headlight at that postoffice this week and our subscribers there were anxious for the paper, especially so on account of the article of the flood. We regret that we were unable to supply our readers there with duplicate copies, and hope that our regular bundle of papers for Bernardo has been received at that office ere this.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Will Chapman of Lissa were shopping in the city last Saturday. Mr. Howard was a pleasant caller at our office to renew his subscription for another year, for which he has our thanks.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Will Find Help in This Letter.

Overworked, run down, "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Brill's experience.

She says: "I was in a very weak, run-down condition. Life was not worth living. I could not sleep, was very nervous, stomach bad, and was not able to work."

"I consulted with one or two physicians, without benefit. I read of Vinol helping some one in a similar condition so I began to take it, and it simply did wonders for me. I gained in weight and I am now in better health and stronger than ever. I can not find words enough to praise Vinol."

"Mrs. W. H. Brill, Racine, Wis. Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength-giving effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money."

M. G. Calvert, Druggist, Eagle Lake, Texas.

Mrs. Joe Dally and children left Tuesday afternoon for Houston, via a Sealy, after spending some time here with Mr. B. H. Dally's family. They are yet unable to reach their home at Simonton, where her husband, is a member of the mercantile firm of Daily Bros. She reports that water during the overflow reached a depth of five feet in the store, doing great damage to the stock of goods.
