LITTLE CHILD BURIED WEDNESDAY EVENING

Our deepest sympathy is extended Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mooney in the death of their little nine months' old daughter, Florence Marie, who died at the family home in this city Tuesday night, after an illness of one week. Services were held at half past three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, interment being made in the Lakeside cemetery. Rev. J. A. Stephen, the Baptist pastor, conducting both services, at the home and at the grave. The funeral was largely attended.

Remember, Sunday January 25th is "Church-Going Day" in Eagle Lake. An effort is being made by the pastors and congregation of all the churches in the city to have a full attendance at every church on that day. All the people of Eagle Lake and surrounding country are asked to attend some church in Eagle Lake on Sunday, January 25th. Attend on this day whether you go to church on any other Sunday during the year or not. Make up your mind now that you will be one of the church attendants on Church-Going Day. All the people of Eagle Lake should observe this day, for surely every person in the community should attend church at least once during the year. Be in some church in Eagle Lake on Sunday, January 25th. You will be welcome in any church of the city.

Her Promise
Mrs. Flint sighed deeply as she removed her hat-pins—so much so that her husband looked up anxiously from the evening paper. "I don't believe I've any bent for politics," she said, in response to his inquiring glance. "Every time there's an election of officers of the club I get into some kind of trouble, try as I may to avoid it."

BAPTIST PHILATHEA CLASS IS ACTIVE

A very interesting meeting of the Baptist Philathea Class was held at the home of Mrs. Tobie Meyer on Tuesday afternoon. Almost the entire afternoon was taken up in the election of officers for the ensuing year. The officers elected are, Miss Fannie Williamson, president; Mrs. Horace McRee, vice president; Mrs. J. E. Roberts, secretary; and Mrs. Bass, treasurer. After the business session was concluded, the hostess served delightful refreshments of hot chocolate, angel food and fruit cake. The next meeting will be with Mrs. B. H. McElhinney.

The year's report shows the class has spent $388.25 for religious purposes. In August they had a linen shower for the Houston Baptist Sanitarium and received ninety-nine useful articles. Including dues and one entertainment, they have taken in $72.19. The class has furnished the Sunday School with three teachers and pianist.

The Philatheas have lined up to help make Sunday, January 25th "Everybody-Go-To-Church Day" a success. They realize it isn't a church affair but individual will work, with that end in view.

LOCAL FAMILY HAS MOVED TO PALACIOS

Mr. C. H. Allison and family have this week moved to Palacios where they will make their home. Mr. Allison has been engaged in farming in the Eagle Lake section for many years, and has many friends throughout this section who regret to see the family move away, but wish them well in their new home. We learn that Mr. Allison will engage in the mercantile business in Palacios.

His Stomach Troubles Over.
Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

The Main Thing.
When the man who had been hit by the automobile at last opened his eyes a sigh of relief went up from the crowd.

"It's a wonder you weren't killed!" said one of the bystanders. "You're luckier than most of the fellows who get hit."

"I certainly am," replied the victim, rubbing his bruises. "I got hit number just before he struck me."

Willing to Oblige.
At a reception the other evening I overheard the following: A young engaged couple were sitting by themselves when a friend came along and said: "You two seem very happy over here away from the rest of the crowd."

"We are," replied the girl, "won't you join us?"

"Sorry I can't," said the friend. "I'm not a minister. But I'll call one if you wish."

Mr. J. F. Beard returned Tuesday from a ten days' visit to relatives in San Antonio.

Skeptical Sam
Professor C. F. Marvin, head of the United States Weather Bureau, tells this story of an expedition from the University of Pennsylvania, which was sent to one of our Southern States, some years ago, for the purpose of observing a solar eclipse.

The day preceding the event one of the professors said to an old colored man who was employed in the household wherein the scientist was quartered:

"Sam, if you will watch your chickens to-morrow morning you will find that they'll all go to roost at eleven o'clock."

"Sam, as might be expected, was skeptical, but at the appointed hour the heavens were darkened and the chickens, as foretold, retired to roost. At this the old negro's amazement knew no bounds, and he diligently sought out the scientist.

"Professor," said he, "how long 'go did you know dem chickens would go to roost?"

"About a year ago," said the Professor, indulging in a faint smile.

"Well, ef dat don't beat all!" was the man's perplexed reply. "Why, Professor, a year ago dem chickens wa'n't even hatched!"

Squaring The Bill.

The bright little surgery at the rear of the doctor's house was occupied by two—the doctor, man and a patient, who was being attended to for the last time, seeing that he had got over his illness.

"Yes, yes," said the doctor: "you're all right now. You needn't come here again."

"But, sir," remarked the patient, "vat about der bill? I ain't got much money. Vii you take der bill out in trade?"

The sawbones looked his man up and down.

"Well, I might do it," he replied. "What's your business?"

"I'm a doctor," said the patient, "and I've been in front of your house every evening for von month."
