Pays to Advertise.

So many evidences that it pays to advertise are presented on all sides that it is hardly necessary to recount the success of the man on Long Island who advertised for a wife. He began his campaign last May and recently he looked around him, the choice of four hundred applicants for the position, his fancy being taken by a girl who but recently came to America from England. It is related that the woman who responded to the advertisement did not stop with sending him letters and photographs. They besieged him with telephone calls, personal visits, messengers and in every way conceivable, in the race for preference. The fellow had to marry in order to escape the persecution. Yes, verily, it pays to advertise.

Christian Church.

At our Bible School services Sunday morning it was decided to hold a contest between the male members of the school and the female members. Things are getting interesting in our Bible School work, and this contest will be a close one, for both sides are led by efficient captains—Mrs. Bruce McCarty leading the ladies and girls and Mr. E. Middleton the men and boys. It will be fine for the side that wins, for the losing side has to serve the winners with something good to eat. The contest will last nine weeks, closing with the last Lord's Day in March. Let's get busy, men and boys, for we want to be served and not to serve—bring a new pupil next Sunday. The preaching services will be held Sunday at the usual hours, the minister preaching at both services. The subject for the morning sermon, "Freedom by the Truth." "What a Good Man Had to do to be Saved," will be the theme for the evening sermon, and the speaker will use a large chart in illustrating his theme.

MRS. PIERCE HOSTESS TO METHODIST AID

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. A. R. Pierce Tuesday afternoon for their monthly mission study. A study of the Methodist deaconesses and Wesley Houses was very interestingly taken up by the leader, Mrs. Yates. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Pyle on Tuesday, February 10th.

If Advertising Stopped.

Can you imagine what existence would be like if all advertising were eliminated? asks a writer in the Woman's Home Companion, and then goes on to say:

It would mean more than the absence of advertising in the pages of the periodicals and newspapers. It would mean that the grocer would not have his name or business over his door or on his window. The druggist would not display the globe of colored water. The minister would not announce the topic of his next sermon from the pulpit. There wouldn't be signboards at the country cross-roads, nor on the street corner in the cities.

If you wanted to go to a store, particularly the best store, no one could direct you, for that is advertising by word of mouth. Frankly, you would find it practically impossible to live without advertising, although you might manage to exist after a fashion.

The great agents of civilization are those which save time and increase the comfort and convenience of the people. There are the things that make the railroad and the many application for electricity, the telegraph, the telephone, light and power—so enormously valuable. Advertising belongs in this same category. There is no way of estimating its capacity for saving time, for increasing comfort.

He Met Mr. Jones.

A steamboat called "Old Kentucky" blew up near Trinity, at the mouth of the Ohio, by which accident a lady rejoicing in the name of Jones lost her husband and her trunk, for both of which an action was brought. There was, strange to say, great difficulty in proving that the late Jones had been on the boat at the time of the explosion, that worthy having been notoriously drunk on the wharf-boat just as the steamer left Trinity.

Many witnesses were examined to prove the fact. Until finally Mr. Deitzmar, a German was placed upon the stand. Our friend James Smart, was attorney for the boat, and elicited this testimony from Mr. Deitzmar:

"Mr. Deitzmar, did you know the 'Old Kentucky'?"

"Ah, I was drawn up and there I was on board when she collapsed her flue!"

"You she busted de boiler?"

"As I was said."

"Did you know Mr. Jones?"

"To be sure. I took passage together with him."

"You did? When did you last see him on board the boat?"

"Well, I didn't see Mr. Jones on board de boat last time!"

Mr. Smart certain that he had won his case, with a triumphant glance at the jury, asked:

"You did not? Well, Mr. Deitzmar, when last did you see Mr. Jones?"

"Vell ven de schmoke pipe and me vas going up-ve met Mr. Jones comin' down!"

Considering the fact that a Lavaca county man held the senatorship for so many years, Lavaca should not be planning to "cop" the job again so soon. Give some of the other counties a chance—pass the "grapes" around.

LAVACA WANTS TO "COP" JOB AGAIN

A well defined rumor was spread this week that Mr. W. Bagby is being solicited by some of the leading men of the state and district to become a candidate before the next election for primary this year for state senator to succeed Dr. Clark. It is further stated that among the solicitors are erstwhile supporters of the doctor who think that a man of Mr. Bagby's ability and prestige is needed in the senate just at the present time. As to whether Dr. Clark will be a candidate to succeed himself or not we have not learned. We have also not learned if Mr. Bagby has any intention of accepting the nomination as he is not in the city at present. Hallettsville News Era.

Consider the fact that a Lavaca county man held the senatorship for so many years, Lavaca should not be planning to "cop" the job again so soon. Give some of the other counties a chance—pass the "grapes" around.

KENNETH HARRIS' BIRTHDAY PARTY

On yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Chris. Harris gave a delightful children's party at her home, in honor of the tenth birthday anniversary of her little son, Kenneth. Quite a large crowd of little boys was present, and all spent a pleasant evening in playing games, after which they all went from the home down to the Harris Palace of Sweets where they were served with refreshments of ice cream and cake.

THE COLORED PEOPLE HAVE A BIG SUPPER

The colored people gave a big "leap year supper" at Mount Olive Baptist church on Wednesday night, for the benefit of that church. The women made the "engagements," took their supper baskets with them and paid the admission price at the door. The price of admission was 15c, the proceeds of the evening amounting to $11.00. The church was crowded with colored people for the occasion.

Miss Grace Tatters leaves this afternoon for Simonton, at which place she will arrive tomorrow night.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE COMMISSIONERS COURT.

Gentlemen: We, as a committee appointed by the Columbus Civic Club, at its regular meeting on February 2nd, desire to remind you of the duty and responsibility of a county or its authorities, to its citizens or any one subject to its power.

In every daily and other paper throughout the vast State, the subject of more humane treatment to its convicts is discussed and attracting the intellects of her best people.

The citizens, and women—if we must add—of Columbus are not passing this great question heedlessly.

The rumors that we continually hear that these men in our power are not sufficiently clothed to withstand the cold spells in any comfort while they labor for us is distressing to all whose feelings are not calloused and it is our mission to ask if it is not the county's duty to supply these necessities while said county rears the benefit of their time and labor? And will the proper authorities give this matter their immediate attention?

BEAKES GIVEN EXAMIN- ING TRIAL YESTERDAY

In the justice court yesterday, the case of George Beakes took up the greater part of the day. This is the case growing out of the shooting of Garfield Cook, colored, in this city some weeks ago. Beakes is under a charge of assault with attempt to murder, and was under bond of $500 to await the examining trial. In the examining trial yesterday he was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $300, with Chas. von Lengerke, Henry Beckmann, Stout Whitten and Chas. Harter as bondsmen.

Brains Dulled By Constipation

Some People Only Half Alive:
Dodson's Liver Tone Cleans
You Out and Wakes You Up.

When constipation is having its evil effects on your body and brain, Nature is doing her best to offset them and overcome the effects of the poison. But usually Nature cannot do this unaided.

In the past, many sufferers at first have tried to cure their constipation by the use of cathartics, but this only makes the trouble worse. For some people calomel does not appear to give a temporary benefit, but as a matter of fact it is a poison that proves to be injurious and even dangerous to many. If you have ever taken calomel you probably have suffered from evil conditions following its use.

But nowadays great numbers of people have learned how to feel better, brighter and healthier by taking Dodson's Liver Tone instead of calomel. Indeed, this harmless vegetable liquid is recommended and guaranteed by Calvert's drug store who will refund the purchase price to you without question if you are not completely satisfied with it.

Get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for only 30c, and learn for yourself how easily and naturally it assists Nature in getting rid of and correcting constipation and biliousness, how it clears away the sick headache and coated tongue and sets you right without ache or gripe, without any interference with your regular habits. Fine for the children. They like to take it.—Adv.

He Coughed.
"Muriel," said the old gentleman sharply, "that young man you had in the parlor last night in 'dull of comprehension. All I had to do was cough when the other chaps remained too late, and they would take the hint and depart. Did this one say anything when I coughed last night?" "Yes," replied the beautiful daughter. "He said the next time he called he was going to bring you some cough drops."

Mr. Willie Hermann arrived this morning from Brenham for a business visit.

TELEPHONE LINE TO SHAW'S BEND

The farmers living north of Columbus met last Sunday and agreed to construct a telephone line, work on which was begun the following day. This line is to extend from Columbus as far as Shaw's Bend, a distance of ten miles. Such a line has been in contemplation for the last two or three years. It will make a direct connection with Ellinger, which has been reached heretofore in a circuitous route that was more expensive and inconvenient.
