Healing Salve for Burns, Chapped Hands and Sore Nipples.

Colds

Should be "nipped in the bud," for if allowed to run unchecked, serious results may follow. Numerous cases of consumption, pneumonia, and other fatal diseases, can be traced back to a cold. At the first sign of a cold, protect yourself by thoroughly cleansing your system with a few doses of the old reliable, vegetable liver powder. Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of Madison Heights, Va., says: "I have been using Theodor's Black-Draught for stomach troubles, indigestion, and colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I ever used. It makes an old man feel like a young one." Insist on Theodor's, the original and genuine. R-51

On account of illness in the family of the pastor, there was no preaching at the Christian church last Sunday. Bro. Stephen, the Baptist pastor, was in Columbus attending the fifth Sunday meeting, there being preaching at the morning hour here only at the Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. R. L. Pyle, delivering a fine sermon, after which he organized a junior church, and baptized a class of ten children who united with the church.

Mr. Robert Strahan spent a few days here this week visiting his father, Mr. J. R. Strahan, and other relatives. He is now traveling for the Memphis Gum and Novelty Co., having held the position for the past eight months, with his headquarters in Corpus Christi.

IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN

READERS OF THIS PAPER

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the results of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post.

You can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.—Adv.

Did you ever cough for a week? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for two years.

Mrs. D. A. McGee, Waycross, Ga., says: "I had a very heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough which kept me awake nights for fully two years, and felt tired all the time. The effect of taking your cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is that my cough is gone. I can now get a good night's rest and I feel much stronger in every way. I am 74 years old."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cod's liver strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Eat Whale Meat Salution

For High Cost of Living

"It American and European people could be educated to the point of eating the canned flesh of animals which individually yield as much as 80,000 pounds of meat, what a wonderful food supply would be within reach of the poor of our great cities," remarks Roy Chapman Andrews of New York, in an interesting communication on whaling to the National Geographic Society, at Washington, D. C. He predicts that as a result of the world hunt for the monarch of the seas, now going on in full blast, the commercial extinction of the large whales within a very few decades, is inevitable. Except in Japan, he says, great portions of the flesh of animals, which is palatable and healthful, is now going to waste.

For people realize, that the blue or sulphur bottom whale, found in all our oceans, is not only the largest animal that exists today, but is also so far as is now known, the largest animal that has ever lived on the earth or in its waters," write Mr. Andrews. "Specimens have been measured with reach a length of 87 feet and in all probability weighed as much as 75 tons. Although the mouth is enormous, large enough in fact to permit 10 or 12 men to stand upright in it, the throat measures only 9 inches in diameter. These animals, like most of the 'whale-bone' whales, usually feed on minute crustaceans, a shrimp about three-quarters of an inch long. They probably never eat fish of any kind if other food is to be had, and of the many stomachs I have examined, never once could I find anything but the little red crustaceans be found. From the stomach of one blue whale at Vancouver Island, five barrels of shrimp were taken, and it was by no means full.

"Probably no cetacean has such wonderful strength as have the blue whale. When I saw a blue whale with a harpoon between the shoulders drag a ship with engines at full speed astern through the water almost as tho it had been a rowboat, I began to listen to the stories of their incredible strength with more respect. The fluke, closely related to the 'greyhound' of the sea for its long, slender body is built on the line of the racing yacht, and the animal can equal the speed of the fastest steamship.

All the large whale show great affection for their young, and the cow and calves will seldom leave each other when pursued by a ship. I remember one time in Alaska we sighted a female flukeback with a young one about 30 feet long beside her. As the old whale rose to spout the gunner fired, killing her almost instantly. The calf, although badly frightened, continued to swim in a circle about the ship, and finally, when its dead mother had been hoisted to the surface, the little fellow came alongside so close that I could have stuck him with a stone. During the time that the carcass was being inflated and the gun reloaded, the calf was constantly within a few fathoms of the ship swimming around and around, sometimes rubbing itself against the body of its dead mother. Finally a harpoon was sent into its side and it sank without a struggle.

In the upper portion of the head of the sperm-whale is an immense oiling tank in which the valuable 'spermaceti' is found

A liquid condition, and from which it may be dipped with a bucket when an incision is made. From a sperm whale 60 feet in length which was sent from Japan, 20 barrels of spermaceti were taken out of the 'case' and the surrounding fat. The sperm whale is the animal which yields ambergris, the valuable substance used so extensively in the perfume industry.

A menagerie that had been exhibiting in a Missouri village was struck by a cyclone and its live stock was blown loose and flew away.

That same evening as the luckless owner of the show was sitting in the village store, ruminating on the fortunes of life, a colored gentleman poked his head in at the door. "Did you lose a giraffe?" he inquired.

"Yes," returned the owner; "I sure did. Have you found him?"

"Yes, sah; I done found him."

"Got him with you?"

"No, sah; I reckoned I better inquire first, sah, before I fetched him over."

"All right, you fetch him here and I'll give you a dollar for your trouble."

"Yes, sah; but I reckon de trouble am wuf mo' dan a dollar. Dat ole gi-raffe am right smart rambunctious. He done tried to bite me."

"What are you talking about, nigger? Giraffes don't bite! They kick! But you bring him along and I'll give you $2."

"All right, boss; I reckon you am mo' familiar with dat gi-raffe dan I be, but he sure made signs like he would bite me."

The darkey departed and about a half hour later there was a sudden commotion on the front porch of the store, the door was thrust open, and in came the colored man, puffing and wild eyed and pulling on a rope. At the other end of the rope, squirming and snarling, was an enormous Nubian lion—the fiercest lion in captivity," according to the show bills.

"Dar, mistah white man," exclaimed the captor, throwing down the rope and pointing to the lion; "dar's your ole gi-raffe, and I tell you he do bite!"—Lippincott's.
