MORE THAN A HUNDRED PEOPLE WILL GO ON TRADE EXCURSION

One Hundred and Nine Have Signed up to go on the Eagle Lake Business Men's Three Days' Excursions. Names of Those Going are Printed on Another Page.

A live session of the Business League was held in the Firemen's Hall on last Friday night, about fifty of the representative men and progressive citizens of the city being present. The matter of advertising the excursion was the main topic of discussion. Mr. H. Nussbaum is in charge of the advertising, which gives assurance that the excursion will be well advertised, for he is a business man that believes in advertising, and but few issues of the Headlight have been put out without the business of H. Nussbaum being prominently displayed in at least a half-page advertisement. Mr. Nussbaum, for the Business League, has had printed a quantity of neat folders giving the schedule of the three days' trips and the names of all those who have agreed to go on the trips. These folders will be mailed to all the

"THAT DO BEAT IT" FOR GOOD HUNTERS

Messrs. Chas. von Lengerke and Deputy Sheriff H. P. Hahn came in yesterday from a trip over the prairies. Taking a peep into their buggy to see if these widely known nimrods had been killing game out of season, we found but two old jack rabbits and a couple of fly-up-the-creeks. Considering the ability of these two hunters, in language of Rip Van Winkle—or probably it was some other writer—"that do beat it."

Mr. Will Sledge and family of Weimar are spending a couple of days camping and fishing on the lake. Will says they had mighty poor luck yesterday and that Mrs. Sledge says if they don't do better today, she'll begin to think the Headlight has been "just talking" about how well the fish are biting.

At the Dixie Theatre on Tuesday night a five dollar gold piece was given away. Mr. Grady Harris held the lucky ticket.

WILL ATTEND REUNION WITH BAY CITY BAND

Mr. L. E. Bartschell will leave on May 3rd, for Jacksonville, Florida, where he will assist the Bay City band in making music at the Confederate reunion. Mr. Bartschell will miss the first band concert here which will be on Tuesday, May 5th, but will have another musician to take his place as director on that occasion. Beginning on the date mentioned the band concerts will be given every Tuesday night.

To The Voters:

While I have not been permitted to be at home and look after my candidacy for the constable's office, I take this means to say to the voters of the precinct that I am still in the race, and am depending on my friends for their support in my behalf at the primary on May 2nd. You vote and any assistance you can give my candidacy will be highly appreciated. Yours very truly,
J. M. CALLESON.

Get wise, read the Headlight.

BOOTH ELECTED AS SCHOOL TRUSTEE

At a meeting of the school board held Monday night, Mr. G. E. Booth was elected to succeed Mr. E. L. Mooney as a member of the board. Mr. Mooney having recently resigned his position on the board to qualify as mayor of Eagle Lake. Mr. Booth is an excellent citizen, takes a great interest in the progress and upbuilding of our school, and in our opinion, the school board has chosen wisely in his appointment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Nathan of Marlin were the guests of the family of his brother, Mr. J. Nathan, here last week, they having made the trip from Marlin here in an auto.

What True Friendship Is.

"Give the world the best you have and the best will come back to you." Not in coin of the realm always will it come back, but in human love which will reflect your own love poured out upon those with whom you come in touch. There are many so-called friendships based upon social status or money value, which are a libel upon the name.

To get the finest economy upon friendship one must read Emerson's immortal essay. He shells off all pretense of the relation and gives us the kernel of truth in all its beauty and fineness of expression. And if one could live up to its ideals of such relationship, heaven could have begun on earth.

But the joys of being a friend is to be able to forgive another his faults.

"Look up, not down; look in, not out, and you are a friend." Is full of suggestive thought to one who wishes to reach an ideal of friendship.

The primary element in securing a friend and keeping him is to have faith—faith in one's self, faith in our fellowman and faith in the moral purpose and power of the universe. Faith in setting the old world right than all the energy, power and laws of the universe. Has not Ben Lindsey, the Denver juvenile judge and child reformer, demonstrated to the world the effect to faith in humanity? He makes a good citizen out of the would-be criminal by believing him capable of the best and trusting him.

Another element of friendship is tenderness. We do not take time in this busy commercial age to give enough love to our friends. If you love your friend tell him so. Give him words of praise, warm from the heart, a hearty handshake that lingers long after we have gone. "Well put new courage in his heart and fresh energy in his frame. The responsibilities grow less, the burden lighter because our friend has given us cheer. Who said, "Love me and the world is mine?" This easy to be a hero in the strife when some one watches with loving eyes and ready aid.

plause as we climb life's rugged pathway.

Last, but not least in the composition of true friendship comes sympathy. It is the rarest of the jewels, because most to be prized and hardest to find. It is rare to find sympathy unless the person with whom we come in touch has passed along the same route.

Sorrow and pain are sent to each of us that we may understand our brother's sorrow. With the shadows, life plays; we need the half tone and shades to make harmony.

To be a friend we must adapt ourselves to our friend's environment being able to see the vision which his eyes behold. And, seeing, be able to say, I understand.

Have you even noticed how a great tragedy befalling a people draw them close together? A common sorrow makes them more akin than many common joys.

Yet we need sympathy in joy quiet as much as sorrow to give the enjoyment a completeness. No one ever found highest joy in being alone. Even the spiritualist communes when alone with another spirit. "The Great One communes with his spirit and getting in tune or sympathy with the Infinite gives Him His joy."

A great friendship demands self-sacrifice. A great friendship cannot come to an extreme selfish person. All the joy comes from giving ourselves to our friend when they need us. Yet again from another viewpoint it takes quite as much self-sacrifice to accept as to give.

It all that has been written and spoken about hell, the truest picture to my mind is the expression, "lost soul." What is it to be lost but to be away from all of our kind—alone forever more. Friendless is to be in "hell." Throughout all ages to be searching and never finding a congenial soul, what could be hell but this?

So let us draw into ourselves friends, eternal friends, and above all, getting into harmony with the Infinite. Seek truth and do not fetter our souls with bond of unworthy friends. Pythian Banner.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Eagle Lake.

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger. Intimeofkidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of evidence of their worth.

John L. Perry, Columbus, Tex., says: "About a year and a half ago I was taken with what I believed was kidney trouble. My limbs and feet began to swell, and the doctor I consulted said I had Bright's disease. I received no relief from his treatment and consulted another physician. He told me I had dropsy and that my death was only a question of months. A friend, hearing of my condition, advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did, and they brought prompt relief. After taking a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was able to get around with ease. I can say I owe my life to this remedy. I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand, and take a few doses occasionally with the best of results."
