ember the Friday night class and song service. you will be with us. Al School at 10 every morning. day morning little Edwin Thomas was badly burned about the face and hands with crude carbolic acid. His papa had placed the acid on a shelf at the hen house, for safe keeping, and little Edwin running by frightened a hen and she knocked the bottle to the ground, breaking it on a brick. The acid splattered on the little fellow's face and hands, causing ugly and painful burns.

KANSAS CITY MANS SAYS THINGS LOOK GOOD HERE

Mr. L. L. Morrison of Kansas City is spending a few days in the city. Mr. Morrison has many friends here who are glad to see him. He says conditions here are no worse than anywhere else in the country where he has visited. In fact, Mr. Morrison says, it really looks better here to him than in most places, for we have such a diversity of crops that, in his opinion, this section of Texas, is never going to, feel the effects of the European war, like some other sections.

The Headlight is in receipt of three beautiful calendars. Two are from the First National Bank, and the other from the F. S. Ulery & Son jewelry store. They are Osborn art calendars and bear the genuine hand-colored portraits from life.

The Christian Missionary Society met Tuesday with Mrs. J. W. and Mrs. A. M. McCarty. Fifteen members and three visitors were present. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Simmons on February 9th.

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Armstrong of Kyle are in the city, having come to be present at the funeral of their great granddaughter, little Gussie May Seaholm. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong are old Eagle Lake citizens and their many friends here are glad to see them again.

Miss Margaret Skelton has returned home following a week's visit to relatives in Honston.
