

The Headlight.

BRUCE W. McCARTY
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

Established in March, 1903 and published continuously under one management.

Official Organ of Eagle Lake.

Eagle Lake Advertiser (published in 1903) absorbed March 1904.

Office on Main St., McCarty Building, formerly occupied by J. H. H. & R. H. H.

TELEPHONE NO. 88.

Published at Eagle Lake, Colorado County, Texas, every Saturday morning, except on days when the day is a holiday.

Subscription Rates:

ONE YEAR $1.50

SIX MONTHS 1.00

THREE MONTHS .50

THIS PAPER IS NOT SENT ON CREDIT

ADVERTISING RATES REASONABLE.

And will be made known upon application.

Local advertising, five cents per line each insertion.

SATURDAY, JAN. 23, 1915.

How still Joe Bailey keeps himself—but we're not complaining.

Virtue is its own reward, for which reason it isn't necessary to advertise it.

The rose is red and sweet is honey; skirts are tight and so is money.

A man may be a cheerful neighbor and still bear watching as a business partner.

Progressive policies mixed with wild cat ideas are likely to cause the downfall of man.

The war news in the daily papers these days sounds like Dr. Cook might be on the job with some of the big newspapers.

The Dallas News in speaking of Gov. Clegg's recent outburst, says that Oscar attempted to torpedo the Democratic Ship of State with a firecracker.

In these days of "tight times" we are all having our troubles, but a few troubles are just as necessary to the development of a man or a business as a few fleas are to a dog.

Boost your town! If you can't do anything else, you can tell of the good things other people are doing, and if you keep this up and there is nothing else that can be said of you when you die, people will say, there lies concealed in old mother earth, a silent form—but he was a booster while trodding here on top.

Brother, don't stop your paper just because you don't agree with the editor. That last cabbage you sent us didn't agree with us either, but we didn't drop you from our subscription list on that account.

Most artists rave over the slender, willowy girl, says an exchange, but the girl who doesn't have to leave her hips and bust on the dresser when she goes to bed isn't the most popular party in the world.

Some of the buildings which were destroyed in Sunday morning's fire were an eye-sore to the town, but it is not safe to get rid of such by fire, especially by incendiary which cost a young negro man his life. So, some good detective work is in order.

There has been a custom among some people when they get out of humor with a newspaper to "spite" the paper by "stopping" it. Since the rapid advance in the price of print paper and everything else in connection with making a paper, the better way to "get even" is to take the paper as long as you can without paying for it.

Irish potatoes will prove this year more profitable than cotton. Raise all the "spuds" you possibly can, Mr. Farmer! You know Times.

No doubt the potato farmers of this section who last year raised a good crop and yet lost between seventy-five and a hundred thousand dollars on spuds, will be of the opinion that the Yoakum editor is giving somebody a bum tip.

Editor Cobb of the Smithville Times says: "The life of an editor was saved the other day by a silver dollar in his pocket. A crank shot at him and the ball struck the dollar. Now should we happen to get shot before you pay up your subscription and there is no dollar to stop the ball we shall always presume you might have saved our life."

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.

Then why don't he change to the S. P. and nestle down between Edna and Louise—Beeville Picayune.

Or coming over on the main line he might be content to linger in between Natalie and Stella.

Girls' canning club work is attracting national attention. A country publication with a nationwide circulation last week published a picture of a little girl and the products she had canned with the canning club last year.

Helen Durham, of Davis county

Utah, joined a girl's canning club last year. She had never canned a quart of fruit in her life. When the season was over and the club exhibits were being made up for the state fair, Miss Durham had ninety-nine varieties of canned fruits, greens, vegetables, meats and relishes, and the like. Her exhibit won first prize, and she was awarded the medal for state championship. In the far west the club movement has taken hold of boys and girls with a vengeance. This is the kind of work that the girls and women of our own county have an opportunity to enter if funds for services of a woman agent are raised locally.

In a Kentucky town during a recent warm spell of weather, the chief of police ordered a woman in a "stay in the shade" dress to put on more clothes. She was traversing the platform of the station, a stranger. She replied that she didn't have any more with her, whereupon the chief went home and got one of his wife's petticoats, and taking it to the offender demanded that she put it on. The city council allowed him five dollars for the skirt.—Eagle Lake Headlight.

The man who would undertake to start an opposition paper to as good a paper as the Headlight has got mighty poor judgment, to say the least of it.—Weimar Mercury.

Girls' and Women's demonstration and club work was instituted in our neighboring county of Wharton, according to announcement last week. Other counties are interesting themselves in the matter. Colorado county ought to have this branch of farm education started here and get the benefit also of the government appropriation. Only $150 is needed to be raised in this county this year to meet the federal funds and cover four months' work.

While burglary, robbery, theft and even murder, are running rampant in the neighboring cities of Dallas and Fort Worth, everything glides peacefully along in Midlothian, and our peace officers have the least to do of any one in town.—Midlothian Argus.

Don't leave out Eagle Lake. They had an account of six burglaries in one week. That is one thing Eagle Lake has Livingston boasted on—Livingston Enterprise.

That, yes, that—and even more.

Our fire boys deserve a great deal of credit in fighting the fire of last Sunday morning. Have you ever stopped for a moment to think what it means to be a fireman? Do roll out of bed on a Sunday night (like last Sunday night was) and rush to a fire, to get soaking wet from the icy water—and all in an effort to save somebody else's property! This is what our firemen do. Then we should give our fire boys more encouragement than we do. Tell them of their good work and encourage them in every way possible, and don't knock on them whenever you see an opportunity. Have you ever realized that they are not getting paid for this heroic work?

Harry, the news butcher on the Sp., says his one ambition in life is to get enough money together so he can settle down comfortably between Alice and Edna—Mathis Informer.

Not acquainted around Edna but we, ourselves, wouldn't mind so much in "casing" down at between Alice and Edna—Eagle Lake Headlight.

Alas! how soon one's hopes are frustrated. Ben Bolt has already settled down between Sweet Alice and Edna—Alice Echo.