

Outside Evidence

A newspaper photographer was busy at the Boston Navy Yard securing photos of the battleships getting ready for Mexican service, and the picture above is one he secured for his paper. It would have been impossible for us to get such evidence of Texaco quality and service, so we secured one of the pictures from the photographer.

Naturally, active service means hard usage, difficulties and dangers. So there is keener inspection of stores, and more microscopic examination of goods.

It is quite natural, therefore, for the photographer to have snapped his camera just as Texaco Products were being hoisted aboard the U. S. S. "Nebraska".

Texaco Quality and Service are known where the demand is for high quality and careful prompt service.

Look for the Texaco Products in your own town. You can recognize them by the Red-Star-Green-T emblem of "made in Texas" fame.

They are just as valuable for you as they are for the navy. See our agent.

HONEST BILL'S SHOW RETURNED FROM HOUSTON LAST MONDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harter spent several days in Houston last week taking in the Society Circus put on at the auditorium in that city by the Red Roosters. Honest Bill's show was a feature of the circus and Mr. Harter was the guest of Honest Bill while in Houston. The Honest Bill show made a hit at the circus, and little "Cupid," the educated pony, was a favorite with the people who attended the show. Farmer Governor Colquitt was among those who came to the ring side and showed the pony his watch. "Cupid" told him the exact time. "It's great," remarked the ex-Governor, as he returned to his seat. Then Major Dickerson of the Dickerson Car Wheel Works, exhibited his watch to the horse. After "Cupid" had told him the exact time, Major Dickerson said, "I have been around the world several times, but I have never seen a pony that beats this one."

Headaches Often Are A Rare Convenience

I wrap a rag around my brow, and say, "I have the headache now," when some renowned, acknowledged bore, comes knocking blithely at the door. The bore is told of my distress, and goes away, but thinks, I guess, that all my fierce, convenient ache, would strike the doctors as a fake. My frau announces that the place needs cleaning up, it's a disgrace. "Go out," she begs, "and take away, those old tin cans and bricks and hay, and make the whole blamed place appear as though white folks were living here." Whereat, I have a hefty sigh, and wipe some briny from my eye, and say, "Ah, naught would please me more! I deadly feel such a chore. But I am feeling half way dead—I have a headache in my head." The headache has its daily use: It is the finest old excuse! Without it life would be so blue. We couldn't dodge things as we do. But now, when things unpleasant come, with anguish we pretend we're dumb, and to our chancers we repair, and nurse our aching heads here.

Mr. G. E. Boothe has traded a lot in the rear and to the west of a car last Saturday, which is the first car to make the trip over the roads from here to Garwood in many months. They went by an out-of-the-way route, going through fields. Returning they came home by way of Altair. Mr. Field says the trip was something awful, and he would not make it again in a car for twenty-five dollars.

The smiles and the laughter stirred up by George Bailey's quips and brief paragraphs in The Houston Post, driving the wrinkles of care away, would be sadly missed could we not get them in this newspaper shop.

The Judd Lewis "sob-stuff," as newspaper men call it, is worth the price of the Post alone. The regular price of the Post for Daily and Sunday is $5.00, when taken through the mail or one year. From May 1st to March 25th will be Houston Post Bargain Day, and between these dates this newspaper will get $1.00 per copy for $1.00. The price is not good either before or after. A twelve months' subscription to The Daily and Sunday Post for that amount is $5.00. If you can't wait, hand us a quarter. That sum will get you the service until Bargain Day begins. Then you can come in with the $1.00 and get the Post, Daily and Sunday until this same time in March, 1916 through the mail.

Mr. Chas. von Lengerke left Monday morning for Garwood, where he has taken a position as manager for the Garwood Supply Company.

GROW TWO TURNIPS
WEIGHING 21 POUNDS

Mr. G. E. Boothe

Two turnips of unusual size, on exhibition at the First National Bank are attracting a good deal of attention this week. They were grown on the L. W. Terrell farm at Calhoun, and the two together weigh twenty-one pounds, one weighing eleven and a quarter, the other nine and three quarters pounds. Mr. Terrell's turnips are all of extra large size but of course not in proportion to these two.

Meers. R. S. Simmons, R. E. Walker, Bruce McCarty, A. J. Wirta and Master Pryor Simmons were visitors to Columbus Tuesday afternoon, going on in the Simmons car. Owing to the fact that the east bridge at Columbus is undergoing repairs at present, and on account of the deep sand and steep banks leading to the ferry boat at that point, which is in use while repairs are being made at the bridge, the car was left on this side of the river, the party crossing on the ferry and walking into Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Womack left last Saturday for Fort Worth where they will make their home. Mr. Womack has been connected with the office of Swift & Co. here for the past several months.
