the best I ever saw" was heard from many in the audience. We can conscientiously say that Honest Bill gives one of the best little shows that it has ever been our pleasure to witness. He does not claim to have the largest and greatest show on earth, but any person visiting his show will be agreeably surprised with what they will see. That educated pony, "Cupid" is worth the admission price. The juggling act is good and the woman contortionist is exceedingly clever. There were quite a number of people here for the performance from Garwood, Lissie and many people from the country. All were well pleased with the show and simply carried away with "Cupid's" feats.

the country over, but failed to find the negro man or woman. On Wednesday morning the Sheriff at Giddings telephoned Sheriff Mayes that he had arrested the negro at that place, and that the negro man had pistol wound in his left shoulder. Sheriff Mayes left this morning for Giddings, and will bring the prisoner back to Columbus tonight. The Sheriff at Giddings stated that Turner says he lost the woman and did not know where she was. It is believed that the two, after making their escape from the house, caught a Sap train for Yoakum, where the man continued his flight on the Waco branch until he reached Giddings where he was arrested. The officers are still looking for the woman and no doubt it will be only a matter of a short time until she will be taken into custody. A charge of assault to murder will be sworn out against both the man and the woman.

Mr. J. W. Walker of Altair who was in the city yesterday morning, stated that the negro woman who took part in the shooting was not the wife of Turner, but his sister.

Mrs. John Laufenberg came down from Columbus Monday afternoon and is spending the week in the city with friends. Mrs. Laufenberg is making her home in Port Arthur, where Mr. Laufenberg has a position with the Leader Bakery, but has been visiting relatives in Columbus.

Dr. J. K. Davidson and Miss Mollie Davidson left Tuesday afternoon for a short visit to relatives in Houston.
