What It Sounded Like.
Fine music and fine poultry were two things of which little Ella's father was very fond. Recently he bought a talking machine and among other records was one of a very brilliant aria by a great coloratura soprano. The baby listened closely to the runs of bewildering music until the singer struck some high arpeggios and trills at the close, when she exclaimed: "Daddy, listen! She's laid an egg!"

Whooping Cough
Well—everyone knows the effect of Pine Forest on Coughs. Dr. Bell's Pine Forest is a remedy which brings quick relief for Whooping Cough, Croup, Hoarseness, soothes the lining of the throat and lungs, and makes the coughing spells less severe. A family with growing children should not be without it. Keep it handy for Coughs and Colds. 25c at your Druggist.

He Knew Not Mercy.
A fish peddler was whipping his "slow" but patient horse in a residential street the other day, and crying his wares at intervals: "Fresh mackerel! Fresh mackerel!"
A woman, seeing his acts of cruelty, put her head out of the window and called to him: "Have you no mercy?"
"No, mum," he replied; "nothin' but mackerel!"

Turn About is Fair Play.
It was just after the Christmas banquet and toasts were in order. The toastmaster arose to introduce a prominent elderly speaker and said:
"Gentlemen, you have just been giving your attention to a man stuffed with sage. Now will give your attention to a stuffed with turkey."

NO CANDIDATES OUT YET TO FILL ALDERMAN JOBS

No candidates are yet announced for aldermen and three are to be elected to the city council board on the first Tuesday in next month. Those whose terms will have expired on that date are E. Middleton, A. R. McCreary and C. H. Brosig. A city attorney is also to be elected at the same time. Mr. Emanuel Roos, the present efficient prosecuting attorney of the city, has announced his candidacy for re-election. His announcement will be found elsewhere in this paper.

G. H. WALLACE REPORTS BIG SNOW AT NEW BRAUNFELS

A letter Wednesday from Mr. Geo. H. Wallace, a former Eagle Lake citizen, written from New Braunfels, enclosing subscription amount, says: "We had quite a snow storm here Monday. Snowed from 11 in the morning until 8 at night. The people here where I board are 'dead stuck' on the Headlight because there is no war talk in it. You hear very little war talk here by the citizens. They are quite neutral."

Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my customers because I have confidence in it. I find that they are pleased with it and call for it when again in need of such a medicine," writes J. W. Sexton, Montevallo, Mo. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF EAST BERNARD OFFICER

A telephone message from Will Schattel at East Bernard yesterday about 11 o'clock conveyed the information that sometime during the night before an attempt had been made to assassinate him. Who his assailant was he did not know, and how badly wounded he himself was he did not say, but it is presumed that he is not badly hurt, as he did the phoning himself.

Whoever shot at him did so from out of an alleyway. Sheriff Kemp left for the scene immediately after receipt of the message.—Wharton Spectator.

Mr. Golden had a new office boy. A few days after his arrival some money was missed from the cash drawer.

Calling the new boy into the private office, Mr. Golden said severely: "There are ten dollars gone from my cash drawer, Albert. Now you and I are the only people who have keys to that drawer."

"Well," replied the boy cheerfully, "I suppose we each pay $5.00 and say no more about it."—Harper's Weekly.

April 3rd—Saturday—is going to be the Headlight's Bargain Day. On this day the paper will be One Year for One Dollar or Six Years for $5.00.

What Was It Then?

I don't see why you call your place a bungalow," said Smith to his neighbor.

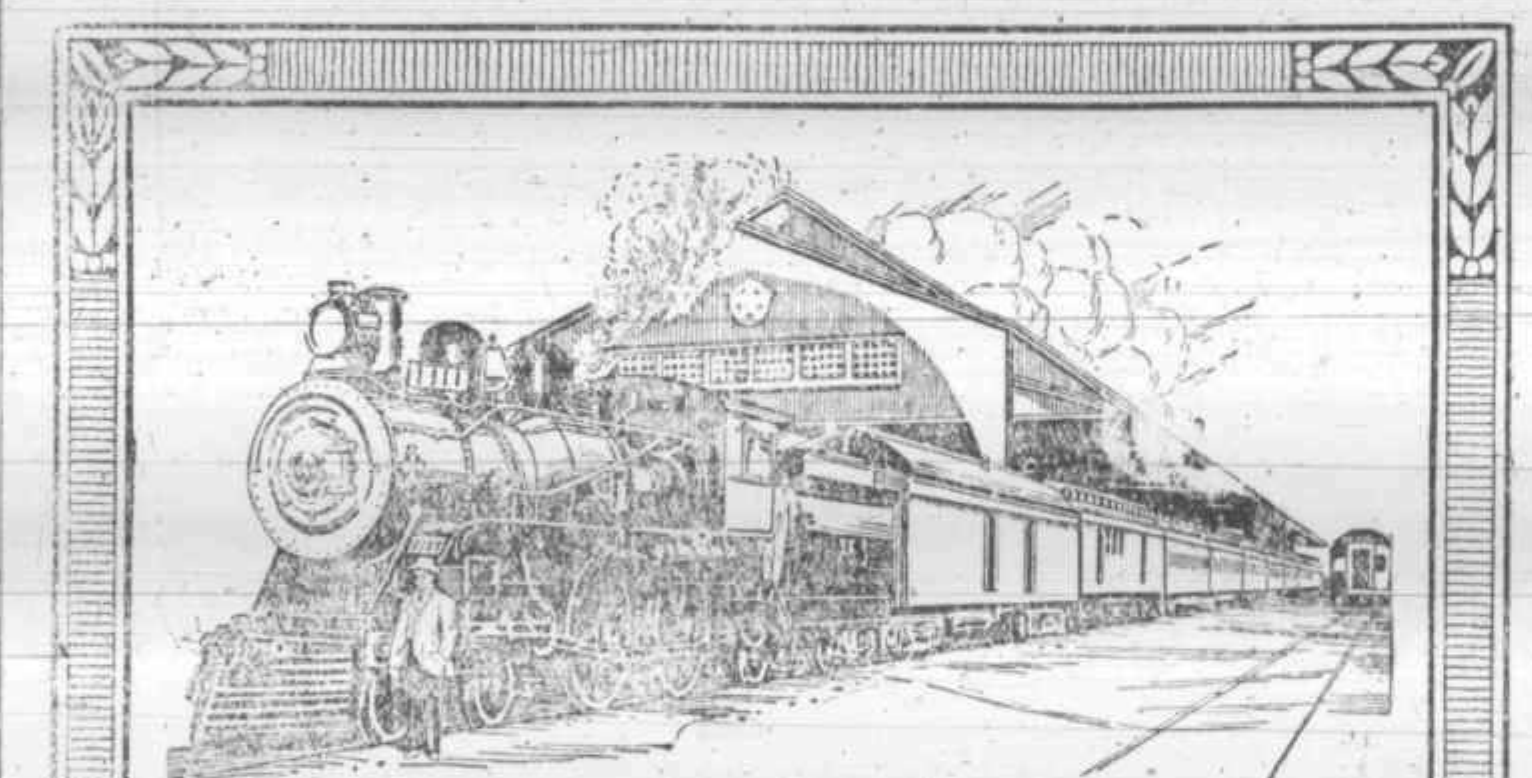

"Well, if it isn't a bungalow, what is it?" said the neighbor. "The job was a bungle and I still owe for it."

Keeping Up the Service

The European war brought to our attention with very great force the dependence which modern industry places upon the complete and continuous transportation service. Let something happen to disturb the action of transportation facilities and the whole machinery of modern commerce slows up.

In this country the railroad systems are the arteries of the commerce system, and the service rendered by them is so important that any difficulty is speedily felt by everybody. All materials which enter into the running of the railroad must be carefully selected for quality and service in order to avoid disastrous interruptions.

TEXACO QUALITY AND SERVICE have made themselves felt in keeping up the railroad service. On the books of The Texas Company as customers are almost all the railroads of any importance in all parts of the country—using "Made in Texas" Texaco Products because of the quality which insures the reduction of operating difficulties and the prompt service which insures supply.

The same quality and service which have induced these immense transportation systems, with their difficult requirements, to use Texaco Products are to be secured by you.

Call up the nearest agent. He will be delighted to serve you.

SANTA FE OFFICIALS MET WITH THE BUSINESS MEN

The fourth and last supper for this season was enjoyed by the members of the Business League at the Hotel Dallas last night, four of the Santa Fe railway officials dining with the business men last night by special invitation of the league. Those at the banquet tables were T. E. Brazelton, of the industrial department of the Santa Fe, Drew C. Head, assistant general freight agent, W. M. Wilburn, commercial agent, A. P. Hall, division superintendent, J. E. Roberts, E. W. Stoldt, F. C. Stoldt, Max M. Landa, H. E. Carey, H. L. Burt, J. A. Stephens, L. H. Burttschell, O. G. Kolberg, W. E. Lenhart, Bruce McCarty, Hayes Stephens, Mont. G. Calvert, E. Middleton, R. H. Jones, R. T. Westmoreland, J. P. Uery, W. M. Loving, E. L. Mooney, J. H. Morgan, C. K. Fiqua, C. H. Brosig, E. C. Smith, R. E. Walker, Alvin Harbort, N. C. Ney, W. G. Beers, A. R. Pierce and H. H. Johnson.

The menu consisted of roast turkey with dressing and cranberry sauce, French peas, cauliflower, pickled beets, creamed potatoes, olives, hot rolls, ice cream, cakes and hot coffee.

Mr. J. E. Roberts acted as toastmaster, calling on the four visiting railroad officials of the Santa Fe, each of whom responded with a nice talk. Mr. Roberts also called on Mr. Middleton, the league's efficient and popular president, but owing to the lateness of the hour, President Middleton refrained from taking up any more time, but went into some business matters that needed attention.

Mr. Middleton certainly deserves credit for the splendid spreads which have been arranged for the members of the league under his management. He is making the league an excellent president. While last night's supper is the last of the winter season, President Middleton is arranging to have one grand, old-time basket picnic for all members of the league and their families sometime during the spring.

HELP MAKE YOUR HOME PAPER A BETTER PAPER

Every dollar gotten in during the Headlight's Bargain subscription offer campaign is going right into new and modern printing machinery with but one aim in view, that we may be enabled to give our readers a better paper. The people of the neighboring towns are responding to the offer far better than the people here at home, which looks a little like our efforts to give Eagle Lake a first-class newspaper are appreciated more by outsiders than by people here at home. If you think the Headlight is deserving of it, renew for a few years in advance.

SPLENDID MAGICIAN AT THE DIXIE TONIGHT

Morris, the magician, at the Dixie Theatre last night was good. His tricks and sleight of hand work were splendid. He will appear at the Dixie again to night and Saturday night, with an entire change of program on both occasions. The admission price is only 15 and 10c, and the work of the magician, to say nothing of the splendid picture program, is worth considerably more than the price asked.

Mrs. D. H. Conner of Fort Worth, another of the old Eagle Lake, boys is among those to renew his subscription at the bargain rate during the week.

A CARD FROM EAGLE LAKE'S NEW POSTMASTER

I wish to personally thank those who so loyally supported me in the race for Postmaster and especially the ones who took an active interest in my getting the appointment, and assure you I appreciate it no little, and I will not forget the debt I am due my supporters. To those who say fit to oppose me, I harbor nothing but the kindest feeling, as that was the right they had, and my sole object will be to treat all alike and work to the end for efficiency and accommodating service to the best of my ability. I trust that the public in general will consider the office theirs, not mine, and that I am there for service and hope to receive the hearty co-operation of all in order that the standard of efficiency, maintained by our retiring and accommodating incumbent, Capt. Geo. S. Ziegler, who has faithfully served you, may be still furthered. True to the old adage, "To Err is Human," we will no doubt make errors, and we ask the good patrons of the office, to overlook our short-comings and personally offer us any suggestions or criticisms, as we will gladly entertain and consider them without offense. Again thanking you, and also Editor McCarly for this valuable space, I am, Yours very truly, SAM H. LITTLE, P. M.

TONIGHT'S LYCEUM NUMBER HAS BEEN POSTPONED

Superintendent J. H. Morgan of the Eagle Lake High School stated to the Headlight yesterday that the next and last entertainment on the Lyceum course, The Stars, a musical number which is said to be the best on the course this year, has been postponed from March 12th, as had been advertised, until Wednesday evening, March 24th.

DRUMMERS' HOME CLOSES DINING ROOM SERVICE

After tonight the dining room at the Drummers' Home hotel will be closed, and all meal tickets now issued for that hotel will be good at the Hotel Dallas. The Hotel Dallas will also issue meal tickets. The dining room at the Drummers' Home will remain closed until business conditions improve.

W. A. DALLAS, Prop.

Mr. Errol Middleton, accompanied by his father, Mr. E. Middleton, left Wednesday afternoon for Houston, where Errol has again entered the Rice Institute and resumed his studies. While Errol is still weak from his recent severe operation for appendicitis, he was anxious to get back to his studies that he would have a chance to catch up in the time he has lost from his college duties during his illness.

Mrs. H. Lee Johnson returned yesterday afternoon from a short visit to Altair. She was accompanied home by Miss Lizetta Walker, a pretty and popular young lady of that place, who is Mrs. Johnson's guest for a few days.

Mrs. W. H. Lasater and cute little daughter, Cliffie, will leave tomorrow for Smithville to join Mr. Lasater at that place. The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church is giving a farewell reception to Mrs. Lasater, at the home of Mrs. L. D. Allen, this afternoon, a fuller account of which will appear in the next issue of this paper.
