Mr. and Mrs. Moore Have Sold Dixie Theatre To F. J. Kozuch Who Took Charge On First Of Month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore have sold the Dixie Theatre and business to Mr. F. J. Kozuch of East Bernard, who is already in charge of the business, having assumed control on the first of the month, but owing to the week's engagement of the Lester-Lindsey tent theatre has given no performance at the Dixie this week. Mr. Kozuch says that he expects to make a great many improvements at the Dixie and will give the people of Eagle Lake some splendid pictures. He will make his home here and will devote his entire time and attention to the business. Mr. Kozuch was a visitor to Houston this week on business connected with the show here. He says it is his intention of putting in a piano to furnish music, but whether he will put in the piano just at this time he is undecided, as he wants to get a line on the business and see just what is needed before making too heavy investments. For the present Mr. Kozuch's family will continue to reside in East Bernard but later on they will join him here and make this place their home.

Mrs. Chas. Mrazek and "The Senator" were here Monday en route to their home at Columbus from a Christmas visit to relatives at Garwood.

Mr. Isadore Nathan came over from Yvonne and spent Friday and Monday in the city visiting his parents; Mr. and Mrs. J. Nathan.

Mr. Frank Walker And Miss Gladys Craddock Were Married At Home Of Bride Here Last Sunday.

One of the events of the holiday season was the pretty home wedding of Miss Gladys Craddock and Mr. Frank Walker on last Sunday at the suburban home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Craddock of this city. The impressive ceremony which made these charming young people a happy husband and wife, was performed by Rev. J. A. Stephen of the Baptist church.

The bride was gowned in an elegant chiffon broadcloth coat suit with accessories to match. The home still wore its holiday attire, the living room, hall and dining room being decorated in pot plants and cut flowers. The living room, where the ceremony was performed, was a perfect bower of beautiful ferns and evergreens. A delicious wedding dinner was served in true old-fashioned style.

The many friends of these popular young people will be glad to know that they will continue to make Eagle Lake their home, and will be at home to their friends at their country home west of the city.

Mrs. Lillie Gabert and daughter, Miss Lillian, left Sunday morning for their home in Yoakum, after a pleasant Christmas visit here to Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Little.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Kolberg brought their pretty little daughter at their home on Wednesday morning.

Company Has Made Good With Eagle Lake People And Is Playing To Large Crowds Every Night.

The Lester-Lindsey Theatre Company came in last Sunday from Wharton where they played a two weeks' engagement and are here for one week. The large tent is located on the Keith lot, Strickland Avenue and State St. Large crowds have been in attendance each night. The Lester-Lindsey Company is one of the best theatre attractions that has ever visited Eagle Lake. The company is well balanced and there is not a poor actor in the cast.

Mrs. Lindsey takes the leading feminine parts and Mr. Jess Phillips is the leading man. Both are exceptionally clever and are favorites with the show-going people of Eagle Lake. Mr. Chas. Rummel in character parts is good and also is Mr. Carl Burch in the same line of work. The heavy parts are shared by Messrs. Alf Walton and Jack Sutherland. Mr. Sutherland made his first appearance with the show in Eagle Lake last night, he taking the part of the lawyer in "Within the Law." He just returned to the show yesterday from Kentucky where he was called by the serious illness of his brother. Mr. Burch is also good in character acting. Miss Charlotte Temple, who takes the feminine character parts, is pleasing to the audience. The ingenue is ably depicted by Mrs. Sutherland, and Dell Phillips, the comedian, a brother of the leading man, is also good.

The band and orchestra are exceptionally good. The show, as a whole, is better than usually visits towns of this size, and is not to be compared to the average traveling tent organization. Mr. Lindsey has an exceptionally good company, and all members of the troupe have made friends during their stay in Eagle Lake.

Mr. Lindsey is well and favorably known in Eagle Lake, having in former seasons visited here when he was connected with the Chase-Lister show. He is a former Marshall, Missourian, and while here each season has the pleasure of renewing his acquaintance with the Messrs. Terrell, Brisbois and J. W. Burns, all of whom are also originally from the same town in Missouri.

The Lester-Lindsey show has made good in Eagle Lake and whenever they return here again they will always find a hearty welcome.

Tonight's bill will be "The Third Degree." Saturday afternoon at half past two o'clock a matinee, "The Chauffeur," will be given and on Saturday night the play will be "Married Life."

Mr. Herman T. Newhouse of San Francisco, traveling representative for the Eastman Kodak Company for many years, was a visitor in the city this week. Mr. Newhouse owns eighty acres of land near Eagle Lake, and for a number of years has been a regular weekly reader of the Headlight.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fox of Lucas, Kansas, stopped over in Eagle Lake a few days this week looking at the country. They were en route to San Antonio where they expect to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. Stafford Taylor, Headlight Foreman, And Miss Mary Middleton, Married On Wednesday Night

Mr. D. Stafford Taylor, the Headlight's popular young foreman, and Miss Mary Middleton stole a march on their friends by motoring to Columbus on Wednesday night where they were married at nine o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. S. J. Haygood, Rev. Mr. Haygood, the Methodist pastor, officiating.

The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Lott and Mr. Andrew Mersfelder, who accompanied them to and from Columbus.

Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known to the people of Eagle Lake, and while the wedding came as a surprise, it was not wholly unexpected as Stafford and Miss Mary have been sweethearts for a long time. They are prominent young people of our city and both are held in high esteem by all who know them. For several years the bride has been stenographer and cashier for the Schuhmacher Grocery Company. She is one of Eagle Lake's sweetest girls and numbers her friends by her acquaintances. She is also a fine young business woman. The groom has been connected with the City office for the past seven years, and for the past few years has been holding the position of foreman in the office. He is a splendid young man and is worthy of the fair young prize that he has wooed and won.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are at home to their friends.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Taylor, on Main Street. The Headlight joins the large circle of friends of this estimable young couple in wishing them a long life of health, happiness and prosperity.

POTATO WAREHOUSE AT CALHOUN WAS BURGLARIZED

Some one broke into the potato warehouse of Messrs. Brisbois & Terrell at Calhoun on last Saturday night and consequently there's 'taters on some table now where there 'twant no 'taters before. Entrance to the warehouse was gained by breaking the lock on the front door. Just how many potatoes were taken by the thieves is not known, but between a half dozen and a dozen two bushel sacks are missing. Somebody down in the Calhoun section must be planning to cut down the high cost of living during the New Year.

Opera House Beautifully Decorated And Many Out Of Town Guests Were Here For The Occasion.

One of the most delightful dances ever given in Eagle Lake was the Christmas dance on last Friday night in the Frazar opera house given by the gentlemen of the city. The hall was prettily decorated in moss, yucca, palms, tinsel and other Christmas attire. The stage was banked with beautiful pot plants, behind which the orchestra sat. Music was furnished by the famous Cornelison orchestra of Schulenburg, of which there is no better in this section of the country. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Guynn, forty-four couples participating in the same. Delicious punch was served continuously throughout the evening and at the midnight hour refreshments of sandwiches and hot coffee were served. There were many out-of-town visitors present for the occasion and all were loud in their praise of the dance.

"I have been to the holiday dance in all of the towns within a hundred or more miles of Eagle Lake this Christmas," remarked one visitor, "but I have attended no dance this season that could in any way touch this one." It was "some dance" and this was the verdict of every one present.

Mr. E. E. Peterson, a student in the University of Texas, was a guest of his brother, Mr. W. L. Peterson, during Christmas week.

Dr. E. H. Cookman spent the day in the city.
