CHRISTMAS TREES AT THE CHURCHES WELL ATTENDED

There were trees and Christmas entertainments on Christmas eve night at the Baptist, Christian, Methodist and Presbyterian churches. The Episcopal Sunday School holding its tree, party and entertainment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Oliphant. All of the entertainments were fairly well attended and the children seemed to enjoy the occasion and the visit of Old Santa Claus to the fullest extent. All of the trees were prettily decorated and well filled with presents for the little ones.

The gross receipts at the Rex Theatre firemen's benefit show on Tuesday night were $87.18. The expenses amounted to $28.26, leaving a net profit to the firemen of $58.92. Had the night not been so cold, no doubt a much larger crowd would have been in attendance.

BICKHAM FAMILY MOVE TO THEIR FARM AT VAN VLECK

Mr. L. A. Bickham and family left this week through the country with three wagon loads of household goods, the latter wagon load will make the move to a large farm at Van Vleck, where they will make their home the coming year. Mr. Bickham owns a large farm at Van Vleck, and not being able to secure any responsible renters, has decided to move to the farm for the coming year. Miss Della Bickham left for Angleton where she will be manager for the Southwestern Telephone Company, and Miss Erma Bickham, who has held a position at the E. L. Mooney & Co. store for some time, will remain in Eagle Lake and continue her position at the Mooney store. She will board with the family of Mr. R. V. Rutherford.

Bad Cold and Cough Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Several years ago C. D. Glass, Gardner, Mo., contracted a severe cold and cough. He tried various medicines but instead of getting well he kept adding to it by contracting fresh colds. Nothing he had taken for it of any permanent benefit until a druggist advised him to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says "I was completely cured by this remedy and have since always turned to it when I had a cold and soon found relief."

FORT BEND COUNTY VOTES AGAINST BOND ISSUE AGAIN

In the election held in Fort Bend county on the 20th of this month for the issuance of bonds for good roads, the issue was defeated by a big majority. Many farmers were in favor of the proposition because it would increase their taxes, they declared. This is the third attempt that Fort Bend county has made to carry a bond issue in the hope of building their portion of the Houston-San Antonio highway through that county, and each time the issue has been defeated. The Headlight has not seen the figures in the election given in any of the papers, but is informed that the issue was defeated much stronger than at either of the two previous elections. We are informed that the opposition had a majority of about 700 votes, when a two-thirds majority is necessary to carry. The outlook is very discouraging toward getting the highway built through Fort Bend county, the very worst stretch of road between San Antonio and Houston.

Mr. Harry Larson returned home Sunday night from a Christmas visit to Austin.

PEOPLE SHOULD QUIT DUMPING TRASH AND STUFF ALONG ROADS

There seems to be a disposition on the part of many people of Eagle Lake to think that all of the old tin cans, buckets, paper boxes and other refuse that is taken out of town and dumped, either in piles or pretty generally distributed along the highways and roads leading into and out of the city. This is wrong and the guilty ones know it is wrong. There is a law against such practices and the first person caught dumping rubbish along the roads should be arrested.

These practices not only litter up the highways and roads to the end that such refuse looks bad and stamps this community as one having no civic pride, but it stops up the road ditches, impedes the flow of drainage water and thus inundates and in a short time ruins the highways and roads.

One may see evidences of these practices along every road leading into Eagle Lake. Some other disposition must be made of this refuse and such practices must stop.

We are glad indeed to note that our friend Judge J. J. Everett of Allector is much improved in health. For a year or more Judge Everett has been in very bad health and on a strict diet, scarcely just what his next meal was going to be, but is so much improved he was permitted to enjoy all of the good eats of Christmas time. That Judge Everett is well on the road to good health again will be good news to his many friends throughout the county, for if Colorado County has ever produced a finer man than Jim Everett, we have never met him.

Misses Annie and Lena Strickland of Houston are spending the holidays here with Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Stephens and other relatives and friends.

THINGS HAPPENING IN THIS TOWN SINCE CHRISTMAS DAY

Another Christmas has come and gone, and the few days following that big day are the days:

When mother says to dad, "what in the world did you get me that thing for?"

When Gladys, age seventeen says, "Shall I put the teddies out on the table with the rest of the presents? Tee, hee?"

When the older daughter says to dad, "Why didn't you buy some decent candy when you were about it?"

When baby is caught in the act of devouring some of the decorations on the Christmas tree.

When Willie sticks a pin in his new football to see if it has wind in it.

When auntie calls up and says, "If they don't fit, let me know and I'll take them back and exchange them."

When Doris, age nineteen says: "Well, I think it was perfectly all right to give it. She gave it to me last Christmas and I never used it once."

When grandpa hearing a big sigh verses his annual prediction, "Well, it won't be long until another year has passed."

When mother says to day, "Well, it does look like you would let Willie play with his own train a little while."

Mr. Clarence J. Jennings of Oklahoma City, Okla., left Wednesday for a business visit to Shreveport, Louisiana. On his return in about ten days, Mrs. Jennings, who has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. McCarty, during the holidays, will join him at Oklahoma City.

Miss Mary Nash of Houston arrived last Saturday for a visit to the family of her grandfather, Judge J. K. Davidson, and other relatives.

S. O. BOOTHE OPERATED ON AT TEMPLE FOR APPENDICITIS

After an illness of about a week, Mr. S. O. Boothe was taken to Temple on Christmas day by Dr. T. T. Doole and Mr. F. B. Ruwwe, where he was operated on the following morning at the Scott & White Sanitarium for appendicitis. He has been doing as well since the operation as could be expected. Dr. Doole and Mr. Ruwwe returned home Sunday night. Leaving for an operation on Christmas day surely can not be classed as "a merry Christmas," but we hope that Mr. Boothe may continue to improve and soon be able to return home well and strong, and that the coming Christmas may bring to him all the added joys which he may have missed this year.

Mr. J. G. Cooke has been quite ill this week, but is able to be about again now. He suffered a fainting spell last Monday evening at the Western Union office and was removed to the Hotel Dallas. Mrs. Cooke is in Dallas visiting her daughter, and for this reason Mr. Cooke was removed to the hotel after becoming ill.

Master Charlie Baker, who is attending school at Brenham, is spending the holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Baker.

The Garwood Scribe returns thanks to Mr. A. H. Loughridge for a fine treat of venison, which he brought home with him from his recent hunt in west Texas. We take it all back, for we've had the pleasure of enjoying a fine venison steak from that deer. Thanks, Mr. Loughridge, and we hope you'll have lots of success on your next hunt—and don't forget our street number.

If rice isn't worth but 3c to 5c here, why on earth does it have to sell at 12½c per pound only one hundred miles north of here? This is just another little answer to the question the rice journals are often propounding, "Why do not Texas people consume more rice?"
