VOLUME V NUMBER 27
Garwood, Texas, April 17, 1936.
Editor: Lorraine Kallina, Editor-in-Chief; Vivian Williams, General Reporter; Gertrude Otto, Sports Reporter; Evelyn Krenk, Society Reporter; Freddie Kallina, Job Editor; Samuel Martin, Agriculture Class Reporter.

Agriculture
The Agriculture boys have become good jockeys in livestock and poultry. They won second place in each of these. They are now getting ready for a judging trip at A. & M.

Home Economics
The Home Economics classes prepared and served a dinner for the members of the school board and their wives Monday night. The menu consisted of the following:

WE LONG SINCE LEARNED THAT It Pays to buy Quality Merchandise

And there is as much difference between GOOD LUMBER AND BAD LUMBER

As there is between a Cadillac and a Ford In Buying our stock we GET the BEST that money will buy, and are always in position to give you top notch values for your money.

Let Us Figure On Your Requirements.

reading books that are listed on the State Reading Course. They are all trying to get a state reading certificate.

Fifth Grade News
The fifth graders who are not taking art are busy working on suggestions for fire prevention posters.

In Geography they are studying about Alaska which is a possession of our country. Each one now knows much more about the climate and people of this country of the North. Everyone realizes the value of Alaska's industries—the mining of gold, copper and coal; the raising of fish and seal; and the fishing of salmon.

The Ag. Boys and the H. E. Girls
The Ag. boys are a husky group. At their work they never drop. The H. E. girls are more refined. They sew and cook to spend their time.

The H. E. girls are better off. They eat the things they cook. The Ag. boys cannot cook at all. But they like to take what they can book.

The Ag. boys have a president. Who's good to keep things humming. He helps the boys the best he can. When hardships he sees coming. The President of the H. E. club is small but very bright.

She sews with her machine outspread. And then she pulls out Clayburn's thread.

Often have a party. The H. E. girls prepare the food. The Ag. boys eat so hearty. We have a boy in Ag. class. He is a bright young man. He loved to lie out on the grass. When away from school he ran—and then some—see us about tires!

Personals
Edrie and Royman Stallman were in Columbus Saturday afternoon.

Charlene Franks attended the show in El Campo Monday night. Evelyn Krenk and Jim Ella Kallina were in El Campo Monday night.

Sylvia Kallina was shopping in Wharton Saturday. Emma Labay attended the show in El Campo Sunday night.

G. P. Harry was in Flatonia Sunday. Miss Taylor and Miss Carey spent the week-end in San Marcos.

Mr. Lewis spent the week-end at his home in Rockdale. The H. E. students on the sick list this week are: J. O. Braden, Vivian Williams, Lorraine Kallina, Lucille Beck, Wallace Lavey, Clayburn, Delia, Frederick Priestmeyer, Ruth Winzenried.

Ask Vivian, J. O. Braden and Lorraine for information about news-letters. Books why did you think so Sunday night?—Jim Ella how did you go to El Campo Monday night?—Lorraine Kallina. Any interesting in the different colors?—The H. E. girls really ate a lot of ice cream at the banquet Monday night. Boys who had better stick around the H. E. girls are really some excellent cooks.

Teddy enjoys trying to throw a certain person out of the window. Clara likes to summarize history. Only when she can get her mind to concentrate—Vivian you had better hurry back to school. Evelyn is going around keeping for you—J. O. do you really have the measles, or are you trying to keep from summarizing—Edrie how did you like "Follow the Fleet"?—Jo-To's are back in style again. Giggling harns Clara's concentration—Emma and Samuel for once decided to quit picking on each other—Sylvia and Evelyn had a sing-song fight in the H. E. building Monday night—Emma did you break your glasses?—Veda you had better come to school more often. Clayburn, do you have the measles?—Clara, you had better get ready for those dances coming on again—Charlene and Sylvia like to sleep in hospital beds.
