Mrs. H. D. Lewis and son, Adair Lewis, of New Waverly, were guests of the family of our cousin, Mrs. Maude Kelly, during the week-end. Mr. Lewis visited his wife, a friend of Mrs. Kelly, who is a nurse, on duty here. The Eagle Lake bakery is making a wide reputation on the excellent qualities of its bakery products.

LOCAL MAN IS GROWING LUCIANO'S YOUNG BERRIES

Local stores are selling a home grown, big and luscious berry, the Youngberry, grown by Gust Goetcker at his place near Ramsey. Mr. Goetcker has the "Highlight" berries for a liberal donation of the berries. The berry is a cross of a loganberry and a dewberry, producing an unusually large berry of a ruby-red color and with the raspberry flavor. Mr. Goetcker has about a quarter of an acre planted to the berries and says it is a prolific bearer. It can be realized how profitable they are. Mr. Goetcker says, unless one sees the vines, they are simply loaded with fruit. He says Mr. Goetcker has some of the plants for sale and says he expects to have a surplus of plants of the same variety but of the thornless kind.

Junior-Senior Banquet

On last Thursday night the Juniors entertained the members of the Senior class with a banquet in the Home Economics cottage. The entertainment idea was carried out by using a block print of an early scene in Texas history, a stevedore on the Colorado River, as the background for the menu and place cards. Green and white, the senior colors, were used as the keynote of the decorations.

Vivian, there's no use buying new handkerchiefs. You'll only lose them—Oh, Evelyn, how did you get them from the banquet the other night? Don't worry, we know. It's getting to be a habit around here. Lucille, you should have been in Taiton, Sunday night. You were wanted—Emma can really treat people dirty. What about Sunday night for instance?—Charles, we are glad to see you back to school.
