FARMER AND SON-IN-LAW DIE IN SCHULENBURG FIGHT

Victor Jordan, 40, and his father-in-law, Joe Hester, farmer, killed each other at the Hester farm, home three miles from Schulemburg, late Saturday night. Each died a instant according to Deputy Sheriff Jim Flournoy, who investigated.

Jordan's body was found near the barn about 50 yards from the house and Hester was on the porch. Jordan, who was separated from his wife, Hester's daughter, was an employer at Luling for the Magnolia Pine Lumber Company.

Flournoy said that Mrs. Hester said she ran when the dispute, believed to have been over family affairs, started and that she didn't see the shooting. She was found several hundred yards from the house.

The two men had met Saturday in a haberdashery in Schulemburg and had some words, officers said, and Jordan went to the farm home late Saturday night.

Jordan, world war veteran and former semi-professional baseball player, is survived by his wife; his mother, Mrs. B. Jordan, and a young son. Hester is survived by his wife and two daughters.

"FLYING JENNIE" FLEW COLORADO RIVER IN 1869

Mayor O. A. Zumwalt, of Columbus, has recently sent Mr. E. O. Tabor, of Bay City, a picture of the "Flying Jennie," a stern wheel flat boat which plied the waters of the Colorado river from Columbus to Austin for a couple of years about 1869.

The "Flying Jennie" was a wood burner. The picture shows it to have been a good size and powerful boat. It was stranded at Bastrop.

In this connection it might interest many to know that in the early days of Bay City, Capt. J. W. White, who still resides there, engaged in boating in a commercial way, from Matagorda and Bay City to Wharton on the river—Bay City Tribune.

DEVIL'S ISLAND END

France the past fortnight informed the world that her 44-year-old "Alcatraz," the famous penal settlement at Devil's Island and near Cayenne, French Guiana, are soon to be abandoned by decree of the French Parliament.

All of the condemned are to be reintegrated to prisons on French soil. Provision has already been made that no more shipments of human cargo will go to South America, and the December voyage of the prison ship La Martinique has been canceled.

This will be removed what Frenchmen deem to be "an abscissa on the body colonial," and an institution which has unjustly sinned their prison system a bad name the world over.

Devil's Island, which has erroneously given both places that popular and durable name, is actually the least important of the two institutions, since it harbors only five prisoners, who are free to roam at will at Cayenne, on the South American coast, however, 4,000 convicts are kept in the cloistered walls of the island.

Increased speed of trains wherever possible, increased newspaper advertising, maintenance of time schedules and inauguration of tray dining service for chair car passengers were suggested for improvement of railway business favored at the closing session of Santa Fe railway representatives in conference at Galveston Saturday.

FASTER TRAINS AND MORE ADVERTISING IS URGED BY SANTA FE RAIL MAN

The suggestions will be considered by W. E. Maxson, vice president and general manager, and other department heads Monday and will be forwarded to Chicago headquarters. Importance of courtesy in all departments with the public was also stressed.

In the opinion of most of those attending, the time was not ripe for inauguration of pick-up and delivery service and baggage service.

More and more cities are establishing the city manager form of government. Wheeling, W. Va., just a year ago, changed to that form. The city manager inherited a debt of $100,000 and at the end of his first year he paid every dollar and had a surplus of $79,212. The surplus was indeed very small, but it was very much better than a deficit of more than a hundred thousand dollars. Marshall has this form of government for a number of years and during all that time the affairs of the city have been efficiently met, taxes have been reduced and such a thing as a deficit has been unknown. The bondholders have been protected and Marshall's credit is A-1—Marshall News.

The Big Show of the Big World, the greatest show on earth, is now being presented at the Chesterville road.

Mr. Reuther set out the plan following the big freeze in January of 1934, and this week out of the bunch of 36 bananas, on which the bananas were beginning to crack following the recent rain.

Had all the bananas remained on the bunch, it would have been a large one, Mr. Reuther said. The fruit eaten, he says, has had splendid flavor. The banana brought to our office is shorter than an average one but thicker.

Mr. Mildred Coulter, Miss Cecelia Coulter and Miss Eleanor Reese of this city and Mrs. F. E. Cornelius of Garwood returned home early Sunday morning after a week's vacation in Chicago and other points in Illinois.

Centennial Highlights

John Westmeach, on being asked what he liked best about the Centennial, promptly said "Cavalcade" received most of his interest. Also, there were several things about the Ford building that attracted his attention.

Leonard Seasholtz liked the Shakespearean plays; while Mabel Campbell found many interesting things in the Government building. Margaret Arnold quickly answered my questions by telling me that she enjoyed the Black Forest and its excellent skating exhibitions together with "Cavalcade of Texas."

Ruby's Orchestra and Warden Law's show were the best on the grounds at Dallas, according to John Beards, but like many others, enjoyed Casa Manana, at Ft. Worth, best of all.

Cavalcade and Casa Manana were Ruth Thomas favorites. Freddie Hoenigmann liked the music of John Jones, at the General Motors Building.

The Shakespearean shows, and the Shakespearean plays at the Globe Theatre, were very interesting and entertaining, if anybody should ask "Cavalcade" say.

Betty Jule was strong in her support of Ft. Worth, saying Judy and Casa Manana were "swell" shows. Of the shows at Dallas "Cavalcade" in her estimation, was the best.

Coach Hinton said "Cavalcade" was the "whole show" at Dallas, while at Fort Worth, Casa Manana took his No. 1 vote. He was interested.

I see Almette still insists on talking in the study hall. Wonder why Maurice Towley and Billie Wade can't get along? What? No parties? I thought the freshmen always gave the seniors a party the second week of school. Coach Cheatham says the freshmen spelling is positively "boda-boda."

Ray Estlinbaum is carrying on the old family tradition. Ruth Ekins says that he's quiet—but not bashful. However, he doesn't keep quiet in history class if talking to Mabel means anything.

Billy Martin seems to think it cute to stomp around the study hall. Whenever Carl Gordy loses anything in the band room, he naturally blames it on the "saxophones." Know why?

Good Breaks! Bad Breaks

Lady Luck was pretty good to both teams, but her daughter "misfortune" also took her toll. Luck smiled on the Eagles at the beginning of the second half, when Belleville fumbled the kick-off. She soon turned against the home team, however, when a forty-yard yard punt was brought back on an "off-side" penalty. The second punt went about ten yards.

Betty Terrell went to Houston last week-end.

James C. (to say nothing of several others) seems to get slightly annoyed at "Bugs," the pigeon which the band adopted as its mascot.

Have you watched "Cookie" Neys and Henrietta Balmuck writing notes?

If you're still answering questions, who are the seniors all so sleepy-eyed on Monday?
