With morning... came the repair crews

An early snow, drifting down from leaden December skies, froze to telephone poles and lines. Hard on its heels came the wind. Ice-laden wires snapped and poles splintered before the blast.

Night found scores of towns throughout the storm region handicapped by crippled telephone service.

But, with the morning, came the repair crews. Hastily gathered from regions untouched by storm, they poured into the stricken area with trucks, tools and materials. Day and night they rushed the work of reconstruction.

One advantage of the Bell System's far-flung organization is this: When disaster flattens the telephone system, men and money and materials are instantly available for the prompt repair of the damage.

Thanksgiving Day

And again Thanksgiving rolls around. But, on next Thursday, November 25, 1936, how many people will stop to think of the real reason for this holiday? Will it be only as a means of getting out of school; or will it be a holiday for watching a football game; or will it be a holiday for eating a turkey?

Perhaps there are some who don't ever know what Thanksgiving Day is all about; and for the benefit of these, and for those who have the story slip out of their minds, here is a short story of the origin of the day on which many a turkey is served for dinner.

This day is essentially a harvest festival and owes its origin to the Pilgrim Fathers. These Pilgrims had been in the New World for nearly a year. The springtime sowing had taken place, and all the crops were growing well. The Pilgrims with great anxiety, for all knew that their lives depended upon the coming harvest. The summer crops were all expectation, and late one day in the fall, Governor Bradford sent four men into the forests to shoot wild birds. "We will hold feast on the 28th of September," he said. "And I'll understand the story of the day on which many a turkey is served for dinner."

Mrs. W. E. McRae, Manager.

Eagle Lake, and who is living in Houston now and is attending Rice University there, was a week-end visitor here.

Corinne Wade, Ruth Thomas and Evelyn and Raymond Wadell spent Armistice Day in Victoria and Curcio.

Mr. and Mrs. Engelhard spent last week-end in Port Lavaca.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed were among those who enjoyed deer hunting during the first part of the week. They left with a party on Sunday and returned Tuesday.

The Girl Scouts enjoyed a delightful day last Saturday at Piney Wood, near Columbus.

Louise Kilgus, also one of our former students, spent the week-end with her parents here.

Grade Personals

Ethel Mae Reese and Dorothy Reese of the first and sixth grades respectively, have moved to Houston for a few weeks. Mildred Larson, who attended school in St. Louis the past term has entered the sixth grade here—Bert Larmer Jr. was a visitor in Cuero Wednesday—Carmel Joy Albright spent the week-end in Houston. The second grade is very glad to have Carl Seasholtz back to school after a year's absence. Those from the grade visiting out of town last Saturday were: Ernest Hendon in East Bernard, Isidoro Ramirez in Sealy and Lee Russell in East Bay. Those visiting on Sunday were: Simon White in Columbus, Altair and Weimar, Eleanor Dorst in El Campo, Daniel Beane in Richmond, Delores and "Sunnie" Spauld in Garwood, Leonard Walker in Columbus, and Dorothy Elkins in Houston.

Football Season Closes

With tonight's football game, the season will be finished, and the drug store quarterbacks and the "rah-rah" boys will soon be discussing the prospects for next year's team. The stars of the team will be gone before long, and new men will come up to take their places.

Football is more than just a game to these men going out. It is a duty by which they must fight to keep up the traditions of the school. It is an experience which teaches them to respect and believe in each other; it teaches them to play cleanly and to give their best. It binds them together into the coming harvest. The summer crops are all expectation, and late one day in the fall, Governor Bradford sent four men into the forests to shoot wild birds. "We will hold
