

Miss Jacqueline Marie Leyendecker,
John Allen Mangini Wed

MRS. JOHN ALLEN MANGINI

Her full train-length veil of illusion flowed from a headpiece of matching lace petals, highlighted with bridal pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy, centered with deep red roses, which were detachable, and used as her traveling corsage. The "Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed, Something Blue" theme was used with Jackie wearing a slip that belonged to her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Leyendecker, her wedding ensemble; her sister-in-law's Bible; and a ruffled blue garter.

Miss Debbie Leyendecker served as her sister's Maid of Honor, and Mrs. Henry Schneider acted as Matron of Honor. Bridesmaids were Jody Franta, Debbie Potter, Diane Jan, and Debbie Zetter, and flower girls were Donna and Stacy Leyendecker, all daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Leyendecker of Columbus.

All the attendants were dressed in elegant formal gowns of cranberry velvet fashioned in the empire silhouette, and accented with white embroidered braid, clasped at the back with bows, and high ruffled necklines and long sleeves, tapering into petal points over the hands.

Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holt of Columbus. Acting fathers were: Emerson Etheridge of Chanterville, Ned Leyendecker of Texas City, and Russel Leyendecker of Columbus, all cousins of the bride, and Richard Holt, also of Columbus.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Leyendecker wore a two-piece double knit ensemble in lime green, featuring a long-sleeved, fitted sheath dress and matching sleeveless coat. She wore contrasting accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Mangini, the groom's mother, chose to wear a creation of lavender silk crepe, with double-breasted effect, wide self belt, and matching accessories. Her corsage was also of white roses.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

Immediately following the wedding all guests proceeded to the American Legion Hall in Columbus for the reception and dance, with music furnished by Randy and the Rainbow Ranch-Mids. Registering the guests were: Misses Kim Gillberg and Nora Lou Leyendecker.

VISITS IN HOUSTON

Mrs. W. C. Elkins spent a pleasant Christmas season at the J. B. Cox home in Houston. Other members of her family gathered for the holiday get-together.

State Domino Tournery Jan. 23 In Hallettsville

The 19th Annual Texas State Championship Domino Tournery will be held in Hallettsville, Sunday, January 23rd. Competition will start shortly after 9:00 a.m. All players are urged to be registered at the American Legion Recreation Hall before 9:00 a.m.

Several hundred players from all parts of Texas, and, as usual, some from bordering states, are expected to participate in the tournament. Each player will participate with his chosen partner, as in previous years.

Chairman G. H. Gerdes announces that the admission per player will be $2.00, the same charge as last year. Gerdes said the cash prizes will again be $50.00 for first place, $30.00 for second place and $20.00 for third place.

J. S. Konvickas Receive Catholic Award

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Konvickas of El Campo are recipients of the Archbishop Turrey medal. It was presented to them at the San Fernando Cathedral in San Antonio on Dec. 19th in recognition of exceptional service to the Catholic church and to the community and for exemplifying good Christian conduct in personal life.

Mr. and Mrs. Konvickas resided in Eagle Lake before moving to El Campo. Mrs. Konvickas also celebrated her 50th year in the Spiritual Works and Corporal Works of Mercy with people of all faiths and races. She began her work at the age of 15 in Eagle Lake.

Cong. Pickle Urges Hiring Of Vietnam Vets

U. S. Representative Jake Pickle has urged Texas officials and businessmen for their efforts to hire unemployed Vietnam veterans.

"A U. S. Department of Labor official today told me that early reports on a new federal program indicate Texas has definitely one of the best in the nation," the lawmaker reported.

The federal program instructed producers who have requested them previously. The new tax guide includes information on income and self-employment tax, required tax reporting dates, and an illustrated sample to come tax return.

tuted under Executive Order 11598 on September 24, 1971, requires that federal agencies and federal contractors list certain job openings with local state employment officials. In Texas, the Texas Employment Commission operates the state employment service, and under federal law they are bound to give veterans preference in job referral and counseling.

According to the latest Department of Labor statistics, veterans aged 20-29 suffered an 8.2% unemployment rate at the end of November compared to 9% for the nation as a whole and 9.4% for male non-veterans of the same age.

"As a whole," Pickle said, "the young veterans are more mature and possess judgment and leadership qualities of individuals far in excess of their years. We have an obligation to these young men, sincerely hope that local government, civic, and business leaders feel as I do and will continue to search for and provide job opportunities wherever possible."

Sections of major importance to farmers and ranchers include farm business expenses, depreciation, capital gains, casualty and theft losses, involuntary conversions, and soil and water conservation expenses.

The new tax guide was printed by the I.R.C. before the 1971 tax changes were known. These changes have been incorporated and will be available by January 1.
