Summer Classes Begin June 4 At WCJC

"Summertime... and the learning is easy" are the revised lyrics that students can sing while enrolling in Summer Classes at Wharton County Junior College in Wharton.

All proposed courses are scheduled in the mornings and qualified high school seniors may enroll as "special auditors" in selected courses as a means of recognizing their superior high school achievement and of accelerating their educational progress in college. College credit is given these students if they re-enroll at WCJC after high school graduation.

Contact: Emma Hays, Registrar, at 552-4550, ext. 6, for additional information or write to The Registrar, Wharton County Junior College, 211 Soiling Highway, Wharton, Texas.

Registrations are scheduled Monday, June 3 in the morning. Building and the class schedule begins Tuesday, June 4, 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Registrar's Office, 211 Soiling Highway, Wharton, Texas.

Bud Seaholm Boosts SHSU Rodeo Team To Win; Named All-Around Cowboy

Bud Seaholm, senior agricultural education major at Sam Houston State University and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Seaholm of Eagle Lake, performed well in his home area and boosted the SHSU rodeo team to victory in Sam Houston's third annual NIRA rodeo April 29-30 by winning the Champion All-Around Cowboy honors for 1974.

Bud placed second in the steer placing event with
