Innocent Intruder Wiggles Around in Music
By Joe Garcia
Who ever thought about a make wanting to learn how to talk Spanish? Well, it was really Paul Smith, a senior, who was preparing for class when all of a sudden he saw a small wiggly reptile, which happened to be a little green snake. It was really moving about under the leaves in the grass when Paul quickly grabbed his pencil and started to write the snake down. The snake was really moving about under the leaves in the grass when Paul quickly grabbed his pencil and started to write the snake down.

Drivers License WCJC Graduation Exercises Sat.

On May 14, the drivers license division was due to be at Rice High School to test the students who are eligible to take the written rules and signs test. Two sections had been scheduled for 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. Upon receiving a passing grade of 70 the student will be eligible for his beginner's permit. After passing the rules and signs test, he will be required to have his eyes tested and thumb print taken. Then the student will receive a beginner's permit and will then have to put in six hours of behind-the-wheel driving. Upon turning sixteen he will receive his drivers license after taking a driver's test. This year the driving instructors will be Coach Hollas, Mr. Brown, and Coach Wunderlich.
