First Baptist Youth Retreat Set At Freeport

(By Dianne Nichols, Youth Director, First Baptist Church)

The summer has been a busy, activity-filled adventure for F.B.C. young people, and to cap off the summer, the high school and college young people will be going to Freeport to the Anchor, a Christian coffeehouse and community center. The young people will leave Eagle Lake Friday.

August 2 at 5:30 p.m. and will return about 10:30 Saturday night.

The weekend will be packed with an evening at the coffeehouse, group sessions, recreation at the Anchor and beach, a water race, and a creative worship service planned by 3 guest students from Baylor University. The cost is only $5.00. We are in process of raising most of our money through bake sales and a Bake-A-Thank-In. Columbus Friday beginning at 9:00 a.m. Sponsor a child to Columbus or get in on the fun and ride with us!

"Be All You Can Be" - a real commitment to follow Christ. This retreat will not be just a time for fun and recreation, but a time of discovery: "Who are you?" "Take the steps" and "Follow Christ". We invite any young person to join us. Call the church by Monday, July 29 to make reservations. There is a limited capacity of 25. Young people will need to bring their own linens or bed-roll, a Bible, a notebook, and pen, and sustenance.

"And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not. From now on, thou shalt catch men." Luke 5:10.
