Mrs. Bessie Caylor Rites Held Sat.

Mrs. Bessie Caylor, a long-time resident of this community, succumbed to a heart attack at around 7 p.m. last Thursday, August 1st. Mrs. Caylor was taken to Eagle Lake Community Hospital at 11 p.m. the night of the 29th and passed away soon afterward.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist Church in Eagle Lake at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, August 3rd, with the Rev. Melburn Shibley, pastor of the church, officiating. Many tendered favorite hymns at the organ and accompanied soloist Marcus Guster.

Burial was in the Lakeside Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were: deacons of the First Baptist Church, Robert Griffith, Charles L. Spalinger, Paul Powers, Frank N. Davidson, J. K. Davidson and Dale Cassidy. Other deacons were named honorary pallbearers.

Mrs. Caylor was born Dec. 12, 1900 in Fayette County, the daughter of David and Annie Fleck Warren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Eddie Caylor, in 1964.

Surviving are only several nieces and nephews.

She was an active member of First Baptist Church and in the Women's Missionary Union and other church activities.

One of her favorite pastimes was to visit with the residents of the Heritage House and her visits were looked forward to with great anticipation by the residents.

She was held in high esteem throughout the community and she shall be missed dearly.

Car Stolen In Houston Is Stopped Here

Eagle Lake police chief Roy Chism apprehended a Houston man driving a stolen car at around 6:15 p.m. last Thursday after a chase that ended four miles north of Eagle Lake on 102 near Ramsey.

The local officer received a call from Wharton County officers at 5:15 that a car had left an Earl Bernard service station without payment.

The officer set up a watch for the car but it was not detected. Soon afterward a local couple reported to the police chief that a driver had tried to run them off the road in the Meadowbrook addition. The description of the car matched that of the one that was being sought. Chief Chism went after the car reported heading west on 102 and apprehended it near Ramsey.

Driver of the car, William Thomas Tishchar of Houston, told the officer that he had stolen the car in Houston. The vehicle was a 1972 Ford Mustang.

Reflected was a Houston officer and he was taken to that city to face charges.
