Large Crowd Attends Outstanding Coronation Program

(By Mary Castillo, MAYC Publicist)

The First Annual Mexican American Youth Council (MAYC) Beauty Pageant was held Saturday, Aug. 31 at 8:00 p.m. in the Eagle Lake Community Center with a suspense-filled program and entertainment enjoyed by a crowd of about 250 people, families and friends of the contestants as well as other interested people of the community. It was perhaps the most successful event which has been sponsored by MAYC so far, and many wonderful people helped make it so.

The Master of Ceremonies, Dr. James Blakely from Wharton, Texas, was just right for the occasion. He projected a relaxed and friendly atmosphere.

He was humorous and helped the contestants at ease and making them laugh during their interviews. He will not be easily forgotten, nor will his joking or his rolicking rendition of "Alla En El Rancho Grande" in which he accompanied himself on the guitar.

The judges present were Mrs. Weldon Leyendecker from Columbus who also helped a lot by preparing the girls for the pageant; the Honorable County Judge Lester J. Cranek from Garwood; and Mrs. Joe Hlavinka from East Bernard. Carlos Garcia who was to have been a judge sent a telegram that evening expressing regret that he could not be here because of hazardous driving conditions caused by a bad thunderstorm in Houston at that time.

The pianist was Mrs. Lany Powers who played beautifully during all the girls' appearances.

In between the girls' appearances, the crowd enjoyed the beautiful Spanish folk music and dancing by Tony Cerillos and his dancers from Wharton. One number especially appreciated was the sword dance.

Dennis DeLaughter and Lyle Anderson were a definite asset to the event. They played guitar and sang two numbers and then were called back for an encore and did two more numbers. They sang a beautiful Christian song entitled "Let Him Shine" and one song the audience really enjoyed was "The Preacher and the Bear".

All the contestants were beautiful and graceful and they were all winners. The judges had a tough decision to make. The girls first appeared in semi-formal dress, then in a costume or dress of what they wanted to be, and last of all they appeared in lovely evening gowns.

All the girls joined in singing "Pass It On", a beautiful Christian song.

The contestants were: Sandra Jean Vera, Alma Munoz, Sonia Lopez, Dianne Morales, Sophia Morales, Carolina Perez, Janie Rodriguez, Sylvia Barola, Chris Morales, Maricela Gutierrez, Susan Olvera, Linda Morales, and Yolanda Godwin.

Sophia Morales was crowned Miss MAYC 1974. Sophia has all the traits of a queen, including—beauty, sincerity, grace and a wonderful personality. She is 17 years of age, five feet four inches tall and a senior at Rice High School. She has many hobbies and she would like to become a model. Sophia was stunning in a long, sleeveless, V-neck orange gown, and even more so as she walked down the aisle in a long cape after she was crowned.

Sophia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Morales. The queen was crowned by Jay Anderson, chairman of the Board of Directors of MAYC. Susan Olvera was the first runner up. She is also 17 years old, five feet four inches tall and a senior in high school. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Flores. Susan loves sports and is mainly interested in becoming a good golfer. During her interview, she very calmly and confidently gave the audience a beginners lesson in golf. Susan was charming in a elegant multi-colored pant dress with gold trim at the sleeves and neckline.

Janie Rodriguez was the second runner up. She is 17 years old, five feet seven inches tall, and a senior at Rice High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ignacio Rodriguez from Garwood. Janie has many hobbies and interests. She would like to become a nurse. She said "being a good nurse has to come from the heart". Her gown was a beautiful multi-colored floral print with empire waistline, bell sleeves, and a high neckline.

Sylvia Barola was the third runner up. She is 15 years old, five feet six inches tall, and a sophomore. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barola. In her second appearance she was dressed as a cheerleader, since that is her major interest right now. At the request of the Master of Ceremonies, she led an animated Rice Raider cheer which delighted the audience. Sylvia was lovely in a long beige gown, with a lace bodice, and apron over a full skirt. The gown was sleeveless and had a round neckline. Sylvia has many hobbies and she hopes to be a teacher someday.

REFLECTIONS ON International Sunday School Lesson

(Genesis 12:1-3, 7; 17:1-8)

The methods God chooses to use sometimes surprise us. We like to picture His moving mountains and speaking through the thunder and lightning. God's method has always been a man though. He selected the strangest assortment of people we can imagine through the years and spoke through them. He defied the normal expectations of people who have of the way God ought to work and selected the unlikely, the uneducated and the unknown and made them His messengers.

When God selects an individual, he always has a great plan in mind. God envisioned a nation through which He could bless the world. He selected Abraham to become the founder. No particular qualifications are given. Abraham showed weakness, doubt and despair in the years that followed. His father was likely a pagan worshiper who sold idols for a living. God called Abraham and challenged him to go to a new land and to worship God alone. The society Abraham grew up in trained him to believe in the urgent need for the family to stick together. Society, security and loyalty all depended on this. Still, Abraham believed God and left home.

God demands a lot of those who follow Him. Sacrifice, obedience, faith and commitment are all necessary. Mod-
