ENJOYABLE HOBBIES ARE RELAXING

Everyone can afford to enjoy a hobby. In fact, few people can afford not to, especially in America today. Free time presents a challenge. Doctors warn against too much inactivity which can produce boredom. You may enjoy being busy now and then, but excessive boredom makes many people cranky, depressed, even physically ill. How can you invest your leisure hours? Why not put them to work to make your life happier, more complete? You can find the kind of satisfaction in a hobby. As an emotional safety valve, a pleasure always ready to be savored, hobbies are unbeatable. Hobbies are practically guaranteed insurance that you will sit back and relax. When you have a hobby, you become a specialist of a sort, you have something new to talk about, something that will interest others. According to the Hobby Industry Association, whether you enjoy the rugged outdoors, or the snug comforts of home and fireside, there's a hobby for you. It doesn't take much equipment or know-how to get started. Hobbies come in just four varieties. You can decide what you want to do something, make something, learn something, or collect something. In each case, you may have a hobby to enjoy in blissful solitude or one which calls for the companionship of like-minded people. Therefore, highly desirable—people who are there to choose from? Almost as many as there are people to enjoy them. So, anywhere your fancy takes you, go there the hobby way. By allotting some of your leisure time to constructive activities, you will be a happier and more interesting person to know.

270 Attend FHA Banquet

(By Joe Garcia) Approximately 270 people attended the Future Home Makers of America (FHA) annual banquet, Tuesday, April 15, at the Sheraton Hotel.

The theme of the banquet was "The Future Home Makers of America." The club sang songs, performed a skit and a fashion show to carry out the patriotic theme. Dianne Shimek and Deborah Schellman registered the guests, and the invocation was given by Carol Schoellman. Welcoming the guests was Sharon Stapleton, and Mistress of Ceremonies was Carol Schoellman.

Songs sang were "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "This Land is Your Land," and "You're a Grand Old Flag." Sherry Smith played the piano and the group was directed by Miss Sarah Mahon.

"From May to September" was the title of the skit performed with narrators Monica Schubel and Terese Gold. Actors for the play were Brenda Argo, Gail Gohla, Susan Olvera, Bernadine Smith and Katharine Dancy.

For the fashion show "American Fashions on Parade," Special guests attending the banquet were the administrators, counselors, female faculty members and Connie Gertson. Also attending were FHA male freshmen and senior women, Mike Gertson and Carl Mascheck.

Joyce Davison, FHA sponsor, presented all officers with pins. In the senior chapter, officers are: president, Sharon Stapleton; vice president, Monica Schubel; secretary, Carol Schoellman; treasurer, Sophie Morales; historian, Deborah Schellman; and parliamentarian, Susan Olvera. In the freshman chapter, officers are: president, Susan Supak; vice president, Betty Domesick; secretary, Gretchen Gold; treasurer, Wallyperry Lowe; historian, Terese Gold; and parliamentarian, Gail Gohla.

FHA projects were mentioned and each member was thanked for taking part in different projects such as the conservation stands, collecting food labels (Patricia Drik collected the most), having the Halloween program and Christmas carding at the Heritage House in Eagle Lake, having bake sales, and attending the FHA Day at the Houston Livestock Show in Houston.

A delicious meal of barbecued chicken and all the trimmings was served to everyone. The Ag boys and Troy Krenk helped to serve this tasty meal. Sarah Mahon, Diana Wunderlich and Joyce Davison are the sponsors of FHA.

Named To Zone All-Star Cast

Rice Places 4 Members On All-Star Cast

(By Rick McDonald) Rice had four drama participants in the one-act play "Dark of the Moon" to make the zone all-star cast Thursday, April 17, at some competition in West Columbia.

Kyle Walker was named best actor. Janice Kallina and Brenda Argo made the all-star cast with Brenda Kallina receiving honorable mention.

Rice competed against six other area schools. Mrs. Barbara Mackey is the drama instructor. The Rice Raiders Band is thanked for their help.

Roughnecks Edge Rice Raiders

(By Rick McDonald) Rice's Raiders varsity baseball team lost to West Columbia Tuesday, April 8 by six to one.

Pitchers for the Raiders were Arthur Yanes and Jeff Wied. Rice got off six hits. Rice also faced Edna here last Friday, April 11.

Ten Health Club Members Attend Meeting

(By Mark Hoover) On Friday, April 11, ten students attended the State Texas Association of Careers in Health convention in Houston.

The ten students were D'Ann Davison, Mary Jo Spindel, Phyllis Koranek, Janice Kallina, Nina Zbrank, Barbara Baker, Brenda Kallina, Tina Kofel, Cindy Wegmott and Kathy Frybert. Accompanying the group to the convention was Mrs. Annette Rodgers, the Health Club sponsor.

Junior Highs Visit Rice

(By Mike Armstrong) Future freshmen from the Eagle Lake, Garwood and Sheridan Junior Highs visited Rice last Wednesday.

Various teachers gave speeches on the departments of the school and also Mr. Graham stressed the rules and regulations at Rice. The future fish were then given a tour of the Rice campus and after this they returned to their respective schools.

Essay Winners Announced

(By Larry Bowen) Herbert Engstrom, chairman of the Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Directors, has announced the winners in the 1975 Texas Conservation Awards Program essay competition.

This year's essay was written on "Conservation - The Key to the Future." Three of the four winners from the high school group that wrote on this timely subject were from Rice High School with the fourth coming from Columbia.

In the competition Brenda Kallina from Rice was first, Donna Danks from Rice was second, and Gail Gohla from Rice was third. The fourth winner was from Columbia.

Many students came dressed up in long dresses and high heels to overall blue jeans and straw hats. This special day brought laughs and excitement to the student body.

The most valuable gift you can give another is a good example.
