Michael Axel Meets TV Stars
(By Rick McDonald)
Recently while attending the Battle of Flowers parade in San Antonio, Michael Axel, a freshman here at Rice, met and talked with Al Freeman, star of "I Love Lucy" and "One Life to Live". When he asked if he was enjoying the parade, Mr. Freeman replied he thought it was a beautiful parade and enjoyed meeting the people who attended. He also remarked that it was quite hot but he really didn't mind much because he was having such a good time and he would try to come back again someday. Michael also saw Benedita Stantes (Thelma) of "The Good Times" and Grady of "Sanford and Son".

Kiddie Day Brings Fun To Rice
(By Mike Armstrong)
Last Wednesday, April 30, was Kiddie Day for the seniors. This day was designed for the seniors to dress like they did when they were kids. The dress was varied: the girls wore pig tails and dresses as story characters such as Raggedy Ann. The boys wore tee shirts and blue jeans and some wore overalls. Students and seniors had a lot of laughs and fun on this day as they recalled the past.

Snake Found In English Class
(By Rick McDonald)
One of the last things to happen during the Battle of Flowers parade was a snake crawling around on the carpet. Students in Mr. Grammer's second period were confronted with this situation. How the snake got into the school in the first place is still unknown. The possibility exists that some prankster put the snake in the room as a practical joke. The snake was taken outside and set free. It was about a foot long and was a small breed of non-poisonous grass snake.
