Editorials

(By Larry Bowen)

As I sit here at my typewriter trying to dream up an editorial to make my weekly quota, I wonder what an editorial really is.

To me an editorial is more than just another story. It is a chance to tell the world what I think of it and myself. Writing editorials is a pleasure for me instead of a chore, and I hope that it will always remain that way and I will always have a chance to enjoy this privilege.

Two Employees Had Surgery

(By Laurel Anderson)

Two Rice High School employees, Ora Criswell, cafeteria manager, and Mary Ann Seifert, nurse, had surgery at the Eagle Lake Community Hospital last week.

These two ladies have been greatly missed by everyone at Rice. Their tasks that they go through everyday are ones that can not be overlooked. When students go to the office or through the lunch line and see that these certain individuals are missing, they seem to feel that not everything is like it ought to be and that the positions are empty without these ladies.

Mrs. Criswell will be back next fall, and Mrs. Seifert was back at Rice last week and we at Rice say, "Get well soon!"
